There is in the possession of the Household Brigade a horse's hoot, polished, shed and meunted so as to do the duty as a smill box. It is kept at the Guard's Club. The hoof itself is not a model, nor is it finished with the same artistic elegance displayed in the 'get up'of the horney relies of deceased favourities now a days. Its interest lies in its historic associations. It is the hoof of the great Rapadson's favorite charger. Marengo, ou the outside of the gold lid is the following inscription:—Hoof of Marengo, rare charger of Napodeon, ridden by him at Marengo, Austerlitz, Jenn, Wegrass, in the champeign of Russia and lastly at Waterloo. An inscription on the inside of the lid tells that the hoof was "Presented April 8,1840, by II W Augerstein, Captain Grenadier Guards, and "Presented April 8,1840, by H W Augrestein, Captain Grenadier Guards, and Lt. Colonel, to his brother officers of the Household Brigade," Housel the outer margin of the shoe—a silver one, of the furn usually applied to the furn feet—is the following;—"Marengo was wounded in the near hip at Waterloo, when his great master was on him, in the hollow road in advance of the French position. He had been frequently wounded before in other but less."
