Persons prematurely gray can have their hair restored to its youthful beauty, by using Hall's Vegetable Sulfur Hair Renewer the best article in the market.

Mr. J. H. Campbell, the teacher who has left Millbrook to take charge of the school in Camblesford, was presented before his departure, by his pupils with two volumes of the poets handsomely bound.

Millbrook officials are making it hot for the rowdies. On Saturday before Christmas several attempted to kick up a row, but were quickly nabbed and put in the lock-up, and upon their release were fined $10 and costs.

A cure for croup. There is no better remedy for croup than Hagyard's Yellow Oil taken internally and applied according to special directions, this is the great household panacea for rheumatism, stiff joints, pain, inflammation, etc.—46-2.

During the past summer five hundred townships have been surveyed in the North-west, opening up over ten million acres of land. The work has now extended beyond Moose Jaw, four hundred miles west of Winnipeg, and next year it will be carried along the Pacific railway as far as Calgary.

A Sure Thing.
 In the treatment of chronic disease with that great system renovator and restorative, Burdock Blood Bitters, there is no uncertainty as to its action, its curative powers are speedily manifest by its marked effect upon the liver, the bowels and the kidneys. Every dose performing its work in a perceptible manner.—46-2.

On New Year's night a man named Stevenson left the Island for Toronto, in a fisherman's boat about 11 o'clock. The floating ice carried him through the gap into the lake; his oars were broken, and he was compelled to take down the mast and use it for padding purposes. He was on the lake for eight hours, and when he approached the shore he sprang into the water and waded in until he reached land. He was soaked, famished and almost frozen when found and cared for. He is recovering rapidly.

A Wine Mixure.
 "A stitch in time saves nine," not only in making garments, but also in mending health. If Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam were used in the earlier stages of colds and coughs, many a "stitch in the side" and many a case of torn lungs might be avoided, that, neglected, rapidly develops into irreparable consumption.—46-2.

On New Year's evening some one entered the driving shed of the Queen's hotel, Woodville, and out the tie line holding a young horse belonging to Mr. Angus Ferguson, of the 6th con., Eldon, letting the animal loose. Upon the owner going to look for his beast all that was found was the cut halter shank. The animal must have travelled home at a breakneck speed as the fragments of the cutter were strewn along the road. Mr. Ferguson offers a reward of $10,000 for information as to the parties who perpetrated this deed.

The Woodville Advocate tells of an accident which proved fatal that occurred on Saturday evening. As the local train was passing north from Cannington, on reaching the swamp to the west of the town line, Mariposa, a woman and little girl were observed on the track but too late to stop. The woman who it appears was somewhat the worse of liquor was thrown into the ditch and received several bruises and wounds from which she died on Monday evening. The name of the unfortunate woman was Miss Currie, and she lived but a short distance from the place of the accident.

Fortunately valvular diseases of the heart is not very common, its disturbed action may be due to indigestion, liver irregularities, etc. A stomach disturbed with wind, or indigestible food will cause pain and fluttering by crowding on the nerves of the heart. Burdock Blood Bitters will speedily remedy all such difficulties.—47-2.

Last summer, while visiting relations in Rothwell, a bachelor of some 40 summers' experience spent a goodly portion of his spare time in paying his addresses to a young lady in town until the climax was almost arrived at and a marriage was on the tapis, when suddenly business or inclination called the seemingly love-stricken swain away. And so the world jogged on as usual till last week, when the wooer of the previous summer again put in an appearance, this time accompanied by a companion rejoicing in the title of "wife," to whom in the interim he had joined himself. On Saturday last, in company with some friends, the newly-wedded pair were enjoying a sleigh ride through town, when the former one, catching a favorable opportunity, and having ready a can of cod oil well mixed with whiskey, scented its contents with wonderful precision over the party, producing an effect at once startling and picturesque.
