 Wort will surely relieve and cure.

They must have lively horses down about Alliston. Messrs. Cain and Connor were out for a drive last Sunday night, and when they were about to turn the horse into the livery stable yard of Muirhead & Scott, the animal shied, upset the cutter, and sent Connor flying through the livery office window smashing all the glass.

Good Advice.

 vice, they will always keep a bottle of Hayward's Yellow Oil at hand for use in emergencies, such as burns, scalds,

Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry.
 The standard remedy for the cure of coughs, colds, influenza, bronchitis, hoarseness, asthma, whooping cough, croup, sore throat, diphtheria, difficulty of breathing, quincy, phthisis, pain in the side and breast, spitting of blood, liver complaint, bleeding of the lungs, and all diseases of the throat, lungs and chest, including even consumption. It seems hardly necessary to dilate at length upon the virtues of this favorite remedy. It was introduced to the public by Dr.
 Wistar nearly a half century since, and by the wonderful cures which it envailed, gained an immediate and enviable reputation, which to this day it has fully sustained. From the gulf of the St.
 Lawrence to the shores of the Pacific, there few villages or hamlets without "living testimonials" to the rapidity and certainty of its curative effects. The proprietors, mindful of their responsibility to the afflicted, exercise the utmost care in the selection and compounding of the various ingredients of which the Balsam is composed; and the sick are assured that the high standard of excellence on which its popularity is based, will always be maintained.
 50 cents and $1 a bottle. Sold by all druggists.

A Sporting Horse.
 Once on a time a Yankee who was travelling through Kentucky had a fine horse and no money. He had taught the animal to lie down or sit on his haunches when the bridle was pulled pretty hard.
 Our traveller saw no way of replenishing his purse but by selling his horse, and this he resolved to do the first opportunity. As he was going slowly along he saw a hunter at some distance from the road, whom he rode up to and accosted.
 In the course of the conversation he told the latter that he had a valuable horse to sell—a horse that would act precisely like a setter when he was in the vicinity of game. Casting his eyes around at the same time discovering some fresh rabbit tracks, he gave the bridle a jerk. The docile quadruped immediately lay down.
 "There are some rabbits here," said the rider: "I know by his ears." The Kentuckian, curious to test the reputed sagacity of the horse, then accosted around, and sure enough, started three or four rabbits. He was greatly surprised, but the Yankee took the affair as a matter of course. To make a long story short, the wonderful horse changed hands on the spot, $300 being the consideration.
 His new owner mounted him, and, with characteristic hospitality, the Yankee agreed to accompany him home. They soon came to a stream which they had to cross, and which was rather deep for horsemen. Judge of the Kentuckian's dismay when, on pulling the bridle in the middle of the river, his steed subsided in the running water as if he were a hippopotamus. "How is this?" he roared out, nothing but his head visible.
 The Yankee, who was mounted on the hunter's other horse, was not disconcerted in the least, but replied coolly—"Oh, I forgot to tell you he is as good for fish as he is for rabbits."

Gray hairs are honorable, but few like them. Clothe them with the hues of youth by using Ayer's Hair Vigor.

Druggists say that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the best remedy for female complaints they ever heard of.

Kidney Disease.
 Pain, irritation, retention, incontinence deposits, gravel, &c., cured by "Bunch grapes." $1.

Two years ago the name of Lydia E.
 Pinkham was scarcely known outside of her native state. To-day it is a household word all over the continent and many who read the secular and religious journals have become familiar with the face that shines on them with a modest confidence, in which we find the truth that "nothing is so wonderful in such a temple."

A change of life. We observe constantly a failure of constitutional vigor, owing to the large demands made on the vital forces incident to rearing children. Prolonged nursing, constant watchfulness, brain worry and work exhaust the nervous system and arrest the work of repair. At this critical period a large number of cases have experienced the remarkable restorative power of Wheeler's Kidney Phosphate and Calcium, which cleanses the nervous system and promotes the functions of nutrition.
