EMILY.

COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS.—Council met on Wednesday last. Present—the reeve, deputy-reeve, and councillors Graham, Guiry and Scully.

CAMERON LAKE.

OBITUARY.—Miss Daniels, second daughter of Mr. J. Daniels, the reeve, was buried last week.

ACCIDENT.—The other day Mr. J. Pearn in trimming the knots of a log a piece of the knot struck him in the eye, almost blinding him.

Mr. W. Isaac is buying cattle again. He intends to send away another car load.

Mr. Richard Byrnell intends building a new barn this spring.

The spring work is commencing and the fields are fast drying up.

Mr. T. Styles has purchased some thorough-bred fowls. He intends raising poultry and no doubt it will prove a paying business.

Frogs are again at hand and are beginning to make the woods ring.

BONCAYGEON.

POUND.—What is a village without a pound. We knew there was something the matter, but never could tell exactly what.

CHANGE.—Mr. Jackson Reid, who for some time has conducted the Forest house with much acceptance by the public, retired from business, on Wednesday, and Capt. Bottom at the same time assumed the role of "mine host."

STREAMERS.—Our lake captains are busily engaged in preparing their crafts for the season. Last year the "Eva" made her first trip to Bridgforth on the 18th, and to Lindsay on the 18th.

FERRIN.

FOR MANITOBA.—Mr. J. D. Ferrin, our esteemed postmaster, departed for Manitoba on Tuesday of last week, to try his luck in the speculative business we believe.

WANTED.—Now that the rigor of winter has been curbed by the balmy air of spring, the snow bird succeeded by the robin and the jay, and nature extricates itself from the grasp of the tyrant and appears in all its regal magnificence.

NEW-COMERS.—Mr. Ashbury, of Oakwood, we learn has taken the farm of Mr. Irvine's hands and intends moving on immediately with his family.

J. M. ARMSTRONG,

Successor to W. M. ROBSON, Grocery and Provision dealer,

Will Continue to Carry on in the Old Stand, Lindsay Tea Warehouse, Six doors East of Market,

And solicits the patronage of Mr. Robson's old customers and as many of the public as will give him a call.

All articles will be sold at the Lowest Remunerative Profits and Satisfaction guaranteed.

Please give him a show. Highest price paid for all kinds of Farm Produce.

J. M. Armstrong.

Lindsay, April 18th, 1883.

keeping this generation at least within the confines of their homes till doomsday.

ENTERPRISING.—Mr. W. Fowler, agent at this place for Laut's teas, intends during the summer months to connect egg-buying with the tea business, and carry both on an extensive scale.

THE LAST OF THE SEASON.—A shindig and general nonsense was held at Mr. Hugh McMillan's (lately entered on the list of benedicts), one evening last week, and since it was the last of the season it far eclipsed anything performed by the company since its formation.

NORTH VERULAM.

SEEDING.—Farmers in this place expect to be three weeks behind last year in commencing seeding.

DULL TIMES.—We have very dull times here owing to the roads being impassable for wheel vehicles. Snow is several feet deep as yet.

RESIGNATION.—Rumor says that W. M. Payne has tendered his resignation as teacher of S. S. No. 22, but we hope this may not be correct.

IMPROVEMENTS.—Mr. Jos. Junkin is about to build a large brick house. This will match Mr. Thos. Devitt's, which was built last year.

THE NORTH M. P. P.—The Gazette and some of its supporters have been busy of late publishing through the valuable columns of that journal Mr. John Fell's misdeeds, and it now wants five to send forward their names as subscribers vs. Mr. J. Fell's withdrawal.

BETHANY.

ONE WEST.—Those who left for Manitoba last week were Wm. Benson, S. Grandy and son, Wm. Galloway, James Foley, and J. Douglass, all of whom own lands in the "Ox Bow," where they were last summer, doing settlement duties, etc.

SUPPER.—Before the departure of Mr. Wm. Benson his friends gave him an oyster supper and presentation in the "White Hall." The chair was filled by Dr. G. Brereton, and the vice-chair by John Kennedy, deputy-reeve.

BALSAM LAKE.

SICK LIST.—Mrs. Joseph Staples has been down sick with congestion of the lungs, but we are glad to say is recovering, and is now able to sit up.

BUILDING OPERATIONS.—Mr. James Sutton has erected new buildings. Mr. Wm. McMillan has also erected a house. Mr. Miles Haygarth has had a few men on the 18th inst., who framed and erected the frame of a house.

BUILDING PREPARATIONS.—Mr. Jos. Staples has been preparing timber and intends to erect this season a frame stable, driving shed and implement house combined.

SPRING IS HERE. Frogs began their music on 18th and 19th of April. And your correspondent here with the return of spring has commenced to bother you again.
