CARD.

To the Public:

I beg to contradict a certain report damaging to my business, which some unscrupulous persons are taking a delight in circulating.

It is "that owing to my large trade with the North-west I am unable to attend to our Home Trade." Now regarding such report I will say my trade with the North-west is large, and can say also satisfactorily.

Having built new brick workshops, obtained the best machinery, and employ the best skilled labor, I am therefore in a position to fill our foreign orders and also to supply our home trade and give a better article than heretofore.

The stock of Hubs, Spokes, Rims, Axles, etc., is the largest stock ever brought into this country, and one great point in building good work is to have the stock THOROUGHLY SEASONED. Any one calling on us will be convinced that our stock is thoroughly seasoned before using.

We have several of our own home made wagons ready for sale, and I shall finish FIFTY OF THEM in a few days for our own trade. So do not be deceived by any such report, but give us a call, get prices, and see the stock and the new improvements made this season on our wagons.

Your obedient servant,
James Hamilton,
Lindsay, April 3, 1883.—39.

Clydesdale Stallion "ABBOTSFORD,"

No. 1565, Scotch Stud Book, foaled 6th June, 1879, bred by David Buchanan, Garscadden Main, near Perth in 1861, and brought up with white face and three white feet, the property of MOSSON BOYD and GEORGE McHUGH. Sire, Ivanhoe, (386); Dam, Garscadden Maggie, (41), by General Williams, (336); Grand Dam, Lovely, (40), by Victor, (309); G. Grand Dam, Chance, by Farmer, (264). IVANHOE, (396), the sire of Abbotford, was the winner of the first prize at the Highland and Agricultural Society's Show at Dumfries, and also at the Glasgow Agricultural Society's Show in 1878, thus being champion of the world as an aged horse at five years old. Ivanhoe also won several other prizes. (See Clydesdale Stud Book, vol. I, page 72.)

GARS CADDEN MAGGIE, (41), the dam of Abbotford, gained first prize at the Highland and Agricultural Society's Show at Aberdeen in 1876, thus being champion as an aged mare at six years old. Garscadden Maggie, (41), also won several other prizes. (See Clydesdale Stud Book, vol. II, page 17.)

GENERAL WILLIAMS, (336), was a prize winner at the Highland Society's Show at Dumfries in 1860, and at Perth in 1861, and also the premium for Buteshire two seasons, and the premium for Rosshire in 1864. (See Clydesdale Stud Book, vol. I, page 162.)

VICTOR, (302), won the premium for the following districts—Gatehouse of Fleet in 1861, Stranraer in 1862, Kirkcubright in 1863, Wigton in 1864, and Perth in 1865, and was afterwards sold to go to Australia. (See Clydesdale Stud Book, vol. I, page 162.)

ABBOTSFORD will be kept at his own stable, Lot 14, in the City of Glasgow, until the season commences, when his route will be announced by posters and advertisement. Owing to his superior bone and muscle and fine pedigree, Abbotford will be an extremely desirable sire. The Scotch Stud Book with above pedigree may be seen in the store of Mr. James Keith, Lindsay.

To Our Friends

This week we wish to draw your attention to some facts that are of importance to both yourselves and us. Kindly give the following your careful attention.

We have always endeavored to do the square thing with all those with whom we have had dealings, and it is very gratifying to us to know that our efforts have been appreciated and that our business has grown so rapidly in consequence of the liberal patronage of the public.

We now have the largest jewelry store in town, and carry the largest and finest stock. It is hardly necessary to state this for people can see for themselves. For this we have to thank our patrons.

What we wish to impress most firmly on your minds is this: (1) WE INTEND TO KEEP AHEAD of all competitors, and we solicit your assistance, your trade to that end. (2) WE ARE HERE TO STAY. We know if we are to expect your trade and support we must be worthy of it, and must by our efforts to please merit it. We intend to do our part. You will find with us HONEST GOODS AND FAIR PRICES.

That our prices are and will be lower for the same class of goods than others can offer, we are certain. We are not under heavy expenses, as we have NO RENT, CLERKS, APPRENTICES or JOURNEMEN to pay, thereby saving many hundreds of dollars yearly, and we can sell goods at a LOWER LIVING PROFIT than any house in town.

We are both practical workmen, having served terms of apprenticeship in Toronto under special instruction with two of the best workmen there, in TRADE SHOPS, where work of the finest description from watchmakers in all parts of the province was sent, work of such a nature that it could be done only by men who had the tools and what is of much more importance—the experience and knowledge how to use them.

Is equipment our workshop is second to none outside of the cities, either in TOOLS, MATERIAL or WORKMEN. These are the grounds on which we ask the public for their continued patronage. Remember we pay no rent. Remember we pay no journeymen. Remember we own our stock, and these three things give us the "inside track," and we know it, and so do you, or you will if you come to buy from us.

The Somerville Treasurership

(To the Editor of the Warbler.)

Sir,—With what avidity the average Crit catches at everything that can by any distortion of facts be made to serve for making a little political capital. I see the F. F. Gazette and the Post are just now making a great deal of fuss about the dismissal of the Somerville treasurer, and all because he voted against Mr. Fell. Well, I don't slander about the Post, but for the other slander dispenser it knows better. It is well known that Mr. Smith never about telling a lot of stuff about the reeve that had not a particle of truth in it, that he had appropriated the township's money to his own use, that he had not paid his taxes, that he had taken money from poor men in the township which was entrusted to him to pay their taxes and kept it, and so on. I heard some of these stories and I contradicted them, and I was answered that it was so because the treasurer of the township said so and he knows, and was it likely that a man who would tell such stories knowing them to be false would be kept in such a position? Well, I thought he should not be kept and so I moved the six months' hoist. I have always heard that a man that will lie will steal, and it is my private opinion that a man who thinks any crime so venial as to lightly charge another with committing that crime should not be trusted in the way of temptation. Mr. Smith so far has performed the duties of his office satisfactorily so far as I know, but I don't think any man who will charge another with misappropriating money knowing that he is lying is a fit person to be trusted with money. Mr. Smith is at liberty to vote for whom he pleases, but not to tell as many lies as he pleases, and he knows and the Gazette knows and the correspondent of the Post knows that Mr. Smith was not dismissed on account of his politics, but simply for telling what he knew was false.

Yours, etc.,
S. SUDDABY.

Burnt River, April 25th, 1883.

S. S. Peck's Appointment.

(To the Editor of the Warbler.)

Sir,—It was supposed when Mr. Peck had been rejected by the electors of this county owing to his dishonesty that this part of the country would not be disgraced by his ever again occupying a responsible position here. Hence, you may judge of the surprise occasioned by the announcement of his appointment by the Government to the highest position in the county. Some people are really silly enough to think that some slight legal knowledge is necessary in order to qualify a person for this position, and there is probably a large number who believe that the members of the judiciary should possess at least a moderate amount of honesty, and even those who feel inclined to ignore the necessity of either of these qualities, feel that the Government should not choose a person who is conspicuous for the absence of both.

It appears Mr. Peck is very desirous of coming back to Minden, so of course he should do—he should come back and endeavor to undo in some slight degree the mischief he has done, repay some of the money which in some unaccountable manner found its way into his pocket. But it is this Mr. Peck's object in returning? Let us judge by the following remark by this gentleman:—"I would like to go back to Minden again to lay a few of them out, particularly Gainer." And yet this is the man Mr. Mowat thinks is a proper judge.

Mr. Blake, although a Reformer, appears to hold a slightly different view from Mr. Mowat on the qualification of a judge, as shown by his remarks in speaking in the House of Commons on Mr. Hawkin's motion to enquire into the conduct of the judge of the county of Kent. He said "upon confidence in the judges rested the respect of the masses" of the people for the sanctity of the law. I trust that Mr. Mowat is not so utterly lost to a sense of honor as to expect the people of this county to have any confidence in the man who has robbed them, or any respect for a Government who could so far forget their duty to the country as to make such an appointment.

Yours truly,
B. W.

Haliburton, April 26th, 1883.

LIFPORD.

(To the Editor of the Warbler.)

FALL wheat and young clover are looking splendidly in this part of the country; since the late rains they have prospered quite a green and fresh looking appearance. If not injured by late frosts no doubt both will be a good crop.

FARM operations have commenced here, and are rushing along quite lively.

Mr. Thomas Winskill, our village blacksmith, has shipped a number of Flexible iron harrows of his own manufacture to Manitoba this spring, which speaks well for our village and an energetic blacksmith.

SALEM—EMILY.

(To the Editor of the Warbler.)

DISAPPOINTED.—For short we will call him Mr. S. and the lady Miss B. Miss B. and Mr. S. had all things arranged and the day set to join hands and hearts, when to his surprise Miss B. took the measles. A despatch was sent to the parson postponing the wedding and so far as is known for an indefinite period Miss B., it is said, has a green-eyed monster in view and declares her determination to let the whole matter go by default. Mr. S. must take courage, for youth and good looks cannot fail sooner or later to make matters right, if not with one young lady at all events with another.

SEEDING.—Farm operations have fairly started. Mr. W. Bouden, of this place, started to plough on the 13th and seed on the 16th.

FALL WHEAT.—Fall wheat in this section is looking well and promises to be a good crop.

CLOVER.—Clover is looking well and a good crop of hay is anticipated.

CATTLE BUYERS.—Cattle buyers have been through this place paying very high prices.

FOR MANITOBA.—Mr. James Murdoch and Mr. Miller Murdoch has taken their departure for Manitoba on a surveying expedition.

HOSIERY and gloves. Special importation from Germany—no dearer than the common stock.—R. Smyth. D. C. Trew, manager.

KINMOUNT.

(To the Editor of the Warbler.)

OBITUARY.—Mr. Thos. E. Baker, one of our oldest pioneers, and who first came to this back country 25 years ago to help to build the first bridge over the Burnt River, departed his life last week. He took up the farm and cleared the land that the village of Kinmount is built on to-day, and opened the first hotel in this place. In politics he was a Conservative. He had reached the allotted three score years and ten and died in the full hope of a bright hereafter regretted by both young and old.

SAD AFFLICTION.—Mrs. A. Wilson buried another of her daughter's on Sunday, making three children the poor mother has lost within the past month. The funeral was a very large one and the sermon was preached by Rev. Mr. Byham. Mrs. Wilson has the sympathy of the young and old alike in this district.

PUMPKINVILLE.

(To the Editor of the Warbler.)

THE inhabitants of this flourishing little village were in a great state of excitement owing to a report being circulated that Mr. Wm. Morrow was accidentally drowned in Pumpkin's creek, west of Mr. Thos. Oliver's farm on Saturday evening, but happily the report was not correct. Certainly, Mr. Morrow had a very narrow escape. It seems that he had been at Fenelon Falls during the day and had proceeded homeward by the "Cedar Tree Road." At the above named creek the crossway was hoisting, but which Mr. M. resolutely resolved to cross, which he accomplished after a perilous passage. He then in an exhausted condition made his way to the residence of Mr. Thomas Oliver, where every necessary care was taken of him. Mr. Morrow's friends will be glad to hear that he is none the worse from his recent immersion, but is about his duties again hale and hearty. The strangest feature of the affair is that he is a man about 5 feet high and the water at some points was twelve feet deep.

GLENARM.

(To the Editor of the Warbler.)

SINGING SCHOOL.—Mr. Peter Ferguson has started a singing school at Maple Hill. The night he organized it he was struck with surprise to find his pupils further advanced in music than he was himself, and was therefore obliged to discontinue the singing school as his services were of no use. He is now preparing to start teaching music at Glenarm.

IMPROVEMENTS.—Mr. S. Nicolson, carriage-maker, is preparing to build a fine dwelling house, which will be an improvement to our village.

I HAVE noticed for the last few months in your paper great blowing from the Perrin correspondent. He some time ago tried to show his intelligence by casting slurs at Glenarm, but they seem to think too much of themselves to reply to his nonsense. He is now firing his big shots at Islay. I fancy if he were to take more interest in the important duties which are devolving upon him such as training and developing youthful minds that he would add more to his own credit and would be greater satisfaction to the ratepayers of that section. Our Perrin friend should put forth some efforts to cultivate his intellectual bumps instead of howling and backbiting at his neighbors.

JANETVILLE.

(To the Editor of the Warbler.)

REPAIRING.—Mr. J. Hobbs, one of our village blacksmiths, is doing a large business this spring in repairing old seeders. He has purchased a set from Mr. Mason, of Oshawa, at $20, which enables him to set the hoe feet in a perfect way. The facilities which he has for repairing old seeders has been a boon to this settlement, as he is removing the old rubbers and fitting in steel springs in their place, making them better than they were at first. Since the 1st of March he and his apprentice has overhauled some 80 seeders, and sent them from his shop in perfect working order and a credit to himself.

SEEDING.—The fields in this vicinity are wearing a lively appearance this week. Almost every farmer has his seeder at work and the soil is in a splendid way for receiving the seed. Young clover and fall wheat are now proven to be out of all danger or harm from spring frosts.

THERE is some talk of having a social gathering in the Methodist brick church here on the 24
