The appointment of the notorious Samuel Stanley Peck as stipendiary magistrate for Haliburt a is a precedent that young men may presistently and pertingently refer to, and suggests an example they may not be low to imitate. The old-fashioned idea of a magistrate was a man above repro ch, a man of strict morality, stern pri ciples, and undoubted integricy—whose is a was pure, and whose hands were clean. It was also an old maxim that "He was seeks equity must do equity," which hay be freely transder.

Mr. Gross's insertion of ARTIFICIAL TEETH is bringing the mirror up to nature: they are life-like in appearance, and pernature: they are life-like in appearance, and perfect in eating and speaking. All kinds of plates made, ranging in price from $9 to $65 for a full Upper or Under Set. The reputation of his English Black Rubber Plates is established. Those who value excellence and purity, particularly in an article to be worn in the mouth, will have nothing but Black Rubber. It is free from mercury or anything injurious and makes a more durable plate than any of the rubber-compounds. One or more of Mr. Gross's English Black Rubber One or more of Mr. Gross's English BlackRubber Plates may be found in almost every neighborhood within 30 miles of Lindsay, and all giving the greatest satisfaction. Red Rubber Plates made for those who prefer them. Teeth extracted without a particle of pain by use of ELECTRICITY. Sufferers are daily relieved without pain or risk, and voluntarily offer to testify in its pain or risk, and voluntarily offer to testify in its favor. Mr. Gross experimented for months with a view of regulating the Electric current to suit the different temperaments. He was the first in Lindsay to introduce it, and is the only one in the place using it successfully. A great many certificates in favor of this great destroyer of pain have been taken. No extra charge for its the part of the use. Pure Gas is kept, but, as it is considered unsafe and injurious to health (accidents from its use being of frequent occurrence), it will be given practice in the County of Victoria, and the most successful in the Midland district. He has now a stock of about 8,000 teeth, perhaps one of the largest held by any regular practicing death.
