OPS.

The council met on the 28th ult. as a court of revision. Members all present. Minutes read and confirmed.

The council then met for the despatch of ordinary business. After a number of accounts had been passed Mr. Hopkins gave notice that he would at the next meeting of the council introduce a by-law for the encouragement of planting trees on the highway in the township of Ops.

LIFFORD.

ORDINARY.—It is our sad lot to chronicle this week the death of George Werry, sr., an old and much respected resident of the township of Manvers, who died at his residence near Lifford on Wednesday, 23rd May, aged 70 years and 9 months.

Rev. Mr. Whitlock, B. C. minister, conducted a very feeling and impressive service suitable to the occasion at the residence of deceased before leaving for the place of burial, delivering a discourse well calculated to do good to all who heard it.

NORTH BEXLEY.

SUMMER is coming at last. Vegetation is showing itself; crops are beginning to look remarkably well; seedling is about finished all but potatoes; corn and turnips, fall wheat and rye look well.

BUILDING.—Mr. Geo. Staples is busy putting up his new house. He has a good number of men at work building the wall of the cellar, and has Mr. Doukey for head man and Mr. H. Southern, Andrew McKee and W. Litterle assisting the mason.

BRUN has given up demanding mutton from the farmers. He paid a visit to several of the neighbors and gave up trying any more for fear if he came back he might lose his life.

FISH.—The fish are up in shallow water at Cobocook mills. They come out of the deep water into shallow to spawn. The farmers from the surrounding country are catching them in large quantities.

MILLBROOK.

A BRAKEMAN named George Crouter had his right hand jammed at Millbrook on Saturday. While coupling cars his hand was caught and squeezed until two fingers burst, but the bones were not broken.

LEG BROKEN.—The Messenger says that on Tuesday afternoon as Mr. Samuel Hunter, of near Millbrook, when driving home from his brother-in-law's, Mr. Fry, and while coming through the long swamp, two and a half miles east of Millbrook, in order to hasten out of the rain, having his wife and two small children, a little eleven year old girl (that is living with them) Annie Argue, of Manvers, and a brother, Mr. James Hunter, all in a heavy, two-seated carriage, on driving over a small knoll, the little Argue girl was thrown over the dash-board, both wheels passing over her thighs, breaking the left thigh.

She was brought to Dr. Barnham's, when at the girl's particular request, it was decided to send her home, and Dr. Breton was telegraphed to meet her. She was made as comfortable as possible on the bottom of the buggy, and the Messrs. Hunter drove her home. Dr. Barnham and others did all they could to arrange her so as to ride as easily as possible, under the circumstances. It was raining heavily all the time. The poor child bore her sufferings bravely.

Correspondence of The Warder.

ORDINARY.—This week it is our sad duty to chronicle the demise of Mr. Farquhar McEachern, who departed this life on the 2nd inst. Some two years ago Mr. McEachern took the diabetes and then set in consumption which subsequently carried him off. The funeral took place on Monday and was the largest ever seen in this section, the service being conducted by Rev. Mr. McDonald, Presbyterian minister of Glenarm.

PERSONAL.—Mr. Colin Donn, of Fitzroy harbor, is now paying a short visit to his friends here. He intends leaving shortly for the North-west, where he will reside permanently if the country prove satisfactory.

SALEM-EMILY.

Correspondence of the Warder.

SCHOOL MATTERS.—One of our pupils refused to obey our teacher, and we are informed that the trustees have taken the matter in hand. If the same is indulged in again we shall put in the said pupil's name for publication.

SEASON FOR YOUNG MEN.—A sermon is to be preached in the C. M. church by the Rev. Mr. Power next Sabbath to the young men. A large crowd is expected as we understand the rev. gentleman is going to compliment the Salem boys on their religious principles.

RAIN PROSPECTS.—As your correspondent has been through the greater part of the townships of Fenelon, Ops, Emily and Verulam so far as he can see by the present appearance the crops will be far below the average. Some wheat holds have been re-seeded with barley and oats.

JANETVILLE.

Correspondence of the Warder.

IMPROVEMENTS.—Mr. Robt. Armstrong is improving the place lately owned by Major J. McDermid which he has purchased, by taking down and replacing it with a new and substantial frame house. This is another addition to the number of new houses which have been put up this spring in our pretty little village.

SICKNESS is still prevalent around here. Mrs. Henry Heaslip is dangerously ill at the present time. Dr. McAlpine is doing all that medical skill can do for her and he still thinks he will be able to raise her up yet to her usual health.

THE REV. J. WHITLOCK and his colleague the Rev. Mr. Brown have taken their departure for Exeter to attend the annual conference of the B. C. church, which opened on the 5th of June for the transaction of business. It is expected they will be removed from among us to another circuit this year. The service of consecration and consecration of the Episcopal church and burial grounds took place on the 29th ult. According to arrangement there was a large gathering of people to witness the ceremony, and the proceeds of the tea amounted to the handsome sum of $45.

PRESIDENT.—Mr. Wm. Preston, near here, has an ewe that has produced thirteen lambs in four years. It is supposed that this ewe has some idea of starting a ranch on the plains, as she takes her large family and relations to the rocks every chance she gets.

OPENING BUSINESS.—Mr. H. Young is getting along well with his new building for a store at Sebright. We hear that he intends to set out with a regular flourish and draw a great share of the people that way to buy goods in future. Mr. Young is well known and is sure to succeed.

PERSONAL.—Rev. G. Hanna, of McGill college, Montreal, has been appointed to preach here during the college vacation. Rev. Geo. Carpenter has passed the recent promotion examination of the C. M. church held at Toronto. Mr. John Frost paid us another visit on Thursday evening last. His visits are quite frequent but unwelcome, but he sure not to put this last after either of the scraps concerning the preachers.

SPARE NOTICE.—To the Perrin, Glenarm, et al correspondents, I wish to say that their controversy is not very edifying, although it is quite villifying. This idea of attempting to identify other correspondents is a poor one. It don't do any good if it is successful and always does THE WARDER some injury when it fails. Some persons who possibly has some slight social falling is merely guessed at to be a correspondent, his real and some unwell feelings published, and as the editor of THE WARDER is not personally acquainted with every man in the Midland district, and cannot therefore scratch out these offensive paragraphs, people who are not correspondents are allowed to be thus assailed and I am the publishers of the paper a good deal. I have personally known several such cases. What good is there in such rackets anyhow?

The case of Cornell v. Grand Trunk Railway, in which a verdict for $5,000 was given on account of the death of Mr. George Valentine, through an accident at the Kingston road crossing, was brought up on appeal Tuesday, and judgment was delivered, the court holding that the damages were assessed at too high a figure, but if the plaintiff will consent to reduce his verdict to $1,500 he may hold it at that amount, otherwise a new trial was directed on payment of costs by defendants. One month's time was given for the parties to consider the most advisable course to pursue.
