DALRYMALE. Correspondence of The Werder.

THE CROPS.—Though crop reports are generally unfavorable yet both winter and spring grain are looking well here, with the exception of some of the low lands, where the recent rains have scalded the spring grain considerably. The meadows are further advanced than the foliage on the trees and if the grat crop of clover the trees, and if the first crop of clover can be cut in time there is a splendid prospect for another good yield of seeds this year. The pasture lands are teeming with grass and large quantities of dairy produce are looked for.

Sudden Death.—It is our very sorrowful duty to have to record the sudden death from heart disease of one of the most highly respected young women in this neighborhood. Mr. Francis Grigg was not quite robust ever but had complained little till a day or two before her sudden demise on Friday norning last. The young couple had but ately been married, deceased being a daughter of Mr. Nicholl, of Uxbridge village. Great sympathy is expressed for the bereaved young husband in his affliction.

Some attractive in Fovements on new pickets and two few gates. The above improvements have made this place look a great deal bette.

Butter Making.—Mr. William Padget intends going extensively into butter making, and is had ing a very large stone cellar built. Mr. Elliott and Vaut being the contractors, the work is being rapidly pushed ahead.

Correspondence of the Warder. A CIRCUMSTANCE of a serious nature happened to four of our village boys. Contrary to the wishes of their friends they went to attend a Sunday school aning his waste steam through a funnel of its own. It is a most commendable dodge, but it makes a terrific snort. When They embarked in two boats at Magill's landing. While the wind was still blowlanding. While the wind was still blewing a gale they made their way to a place called Stony Point but they could advance no farther and finally the boats upset, throwing them into the water. By this time they were accompanied by two more young men bound for the same place, and over they went into the water also, and had it not been for the timely aid and assistance. aid and assistance of a Mr. Wilson who lives close by, the two last named would have run a hard chance of saving their lives. But our village heroes fought hard lives. But our village heroes fought hard against the wind and waves to reach the shore. One of the parties we are told floated like Capt. Bynton with his swimming apparatus util he reached terra firma, nothing the worse for his adventure. In the meantime the friends of the parties were expecting to hear of them lying in the bottom of the Scugog. The joy of their friends at their safe return can be better imagined then described, especially the one who floated so well and was still
