THE WATERLOO Chronicle calls upon the ministers of the various churches to lift up their voices against the prevalent lottery mania, and includes in the list of wickedness to be preached down, the "grab-bag," the "popular man" and the "pretty woman" schemes with which church societies are wont to coax the reluctant dime from the unwilling pocket.

Why is it that the Ontario Government are so anxious at the present time to gain possession of the disputed territory? The matter has been before the people for years and there have been repeated opportunities offered them to decide the question, but Mr. Mowat and his colleagues desiring to maintain it as a cry in the local elections, have studiously avoided any attempt at settlement.
