To the residents of the place the spectacle is a novel one, and appreciated as such, and doubtless they feel satisfied that they get the value of their money in seeing powerful men playing with each other with poles, hammers and weights, even though then it is more than uncereven though then it is more than uncertain whether any one of the said men cares two cents whether on that particular occasion he wins or loses in any of the

Mention of E. W. Johnston's name recalls a query lately put by a correspondent regarding Johnston's nationality.

Johnston styles himself at present "manager of athletic tournaments," and poses as a member in good standing of the Hamilton Caledonia Society. According to this latter fact he ought to be a Scotch-man. There is not a drop of Scotch blood in his veins, but although he may not be properly qualified for membership in the Hamilton Caledonian Society, he is certainly qualified to "manage athletic tournaments." Johnston graduated in the athletic tournament business long ago. The temptation to illustrate to a party in the Dominion, so far as we are Mention of E. W. Johnston's name reago. When R. N. Harrison, the once well cnown Toronto athlete, was at his best, he and Johnston used to star around the country and engage in desperate wrest-ling conflicts. At the time neither the press nor the public were quite up to the me or our people were only suspicious and not sure. Johnston's favorite plan at that time was to have Harrison, or whatever other athlete was at hand, challenge him other athlete was at hand, challenge him in some of the papers, and then to have a match arranged for some fabulous sum to in a definite way that which really belongs take place in some locality where the thing would "draw," For example, the following was from Johnston to Harrison, at a time when both celebrities were at the height of their reputation :=

BELLEVILLE, Feb. 22, 1880. DEAR BOR,—Enclosed find a letter that you will take to the Mail and have published. Then I will ring in after a while, and we can have a match here that will draw a big house. I have got the operahouse engaged for March 6th, and this will give us lots of time to work up a job. You put this (challenge) in just as it is, and it will give the thing a good color. Do this at once, and we can make $75 apiece here. Write me at once,

E. W. JOHNSTON. This letter also contained advice as to what should be done if D. C. Ross or other athletes should unexpectedly chip in. It was accompanied by a challenge drafted by Johnston to be copied and signed by Harrison, and publicly levelled at Johnston himself. The challenge duly appeared in the Mail. The Mail had no more protection at that time against Johnston and his triends than the public

Mr. Mowat's Bad Example.

[London Free Press.] One of the most ridiculous attempts territorial status of Ontario is, that the leaders of that party propose to relinquish large areas rightfully belonging to this Province. Nothing is further from the fact. What the Conservatives and what would have been properly ascertained long ere this, is the correct line of the true boundary. This being done, all difficulty would at once vanish. The only difficulty of any magnitude is one of Me Mara tertain boundary ine, he has milled to have it duly ascertained and certified to by the proper and only court that can give a final decision on the mat-ter. The Conservative position is not to to her estate as a Province. This, we take it, is far better, far more honest, than to set up a squatter's policy long after warning has been given that the territory is in dispute. As to the sending up of twenty-five constables to 'take' the country, that was simply an act of aggression, which, while it does not add anything to the value of the claim Ontario may rightfully have, indicates a spirit of lawless aggression which cannot be too strongly characterized. Ontario professes to be governed by law, to be ruled by order, but here we have seen Mr. Mowat, who in his official capacity is supposed to represent and support law and order, outraging the one and the

Mr. John Carnegie, when lately in Scotland, purchased and brought home with him seven Shropshire Down sheep consisting of a shearling ram and six shearling ewes, obtained from the flock of Lord Polworth at his estate of Humbie, in a highly exposed district on the confines of the Lammermoor Hills. This The next document at hand deals with flock has been in existence for twelve years and is identical with the celebrated English flocks which have so great and deserved a reputation amongst breeders of Shropshire sheep. It is a soon as things are arranged between you. I will advance all moneys, guarantee all expenses, and give you and Johnston each 26 per cent. of the net proceeds.

About this time Lynch, of New York, chipped in, apparensly having heard of what was going on. He wrote to Harrison, auguesting a series of hippodromes thus:

I cannot for the life of me see why we cannot get up a tournament the same as these three evenings, if you only lay your heads together. What is the use of practising and wasting our time for nothing the cannot get up a tournament the same as the cannot get up a tou

ENGLISH BLACK RUBBER PLATES.

Mr. Gross is using for his best dental plates Gold, Platina and Black Rubber, three of the most reliable materials now in use for the pur-pose. Mr. Gross uses the purest English Black. Rubber, and never, during his experience of nearly twenty-three years, has he been so uniformly successful with any material. Black Rubber is non-irritant and non-conducting, and can not therefore produce congestion or any other disease of the mucous membrane of the mouth. Thousands of people who have been not only annoyed but actually tortured by the attempted use of red rubber and other poisonous plates are to-day wearing Black Rubber plates with pleasure, never before known in their experience with artificial teeth. An attempt is being made by a rons a humbug, called a "gold alloy plate." Do not be deceived by it. It is nothing new, but an old thing revived, and does not contain an atom of gold. Mr. Gross has a sample of the genuine article from which gold alloy plates are made and any one can see it by calling at his office. He will make plates of what is called gold alloy or of red rubber for persons who want such plates after their poisonous nature has been fully explained. If you are about getting artificial teeth plained. If you are about getting artificial teeth and want something that is good, and that will stand the test, get them made on Gold, Platina or Black Rubber, and you will have no cause for regret. In some respects the Black Rubber is superior to either of the meta's named and can be furnished at about one-fourth their price A full upperer under set of teeth from $9 to $65.

Mr. Gross is using Liquified Nitrous Oxide Gas,
