EASTON can furnish you a complete outfit for school cheaper than any other firm in town. J. R. Easton.—79 3.

If the man who got the barrel of sugar in mistake for a barrel of salt returns the same expenses will be paid. No names are given.

LINDSAY MODEL SCHOOL.—As it is proposed to re-establish the model school at Lindsay candidates who have passed the non-professional third-class examination are requested to apply for admission to J. H. Knight, P. S. Inspector, Lindsay.

CORRECTION.—In the report of the names of the candidates who passed at Oakwood read the following corrections:—2nd class, Maybes Byron. 3rd class, only one in the list took 2nd class papers, Intermediate, only the first three took 3rd class papers.

WATCH THEM.—There appears to be a small gang of young urchins who watch the grocery stores, especially those in which fruit of any kind is displayed at the doors. Merchants should watch them, especially when a crowd happens to be in the store, as it is then the pilferings take place. Our constables should also take note of these young customers, as their stealings are said to amount to considerable sometimes.

The Agent's Herald, of Philadelphia, published by L. Lum Smith, is showing up fraud, and swindles in fine style. It gives a list of frauds each month, advises publishers of any dead beat or fraudulent advertisements appearing in their papers and is truly the friend of the agent and publisher. It has a sworn circulation of 50,000 and is a good advertising medium reaching all classes of agents. Subscription 50c. It will pay every business man to subscribe.

DISASTROUS AFFAIR.—The Uxbridge Guardian office had a peculiar mishap last week, the whole concern falling to the ground with all the type and presses, which had been moved in the two preceding days. The type was badly mixed and scattered and not a press escaped without some injury. The foundation of the building was not firm enough and the springy nature of the ground with the weight in the top part of the building caused the structure to topple over. Although building on such ground in such a manner was a mistake it cannot be helped now and does not lessen the loss or make the misfortune any lighter to bear. It is not known what the exact loss is.

THE CENTRAL EXHIBITION.—A meeting of the directors of the South Victoria Agricultural Society was held in the council chamber, Lindsay, on Saturday. Minutes read and approved. Members present—John Connolly, president; James Deacon, Dennis Scully, P. N. Murdoch, D. Grant, R. Willock, W. McBurney, W. M. Robson, I. W. Reid, J. McLennan. Absent—A. McCready, E. Shine, G. Crandell. Moved by Mr. J. Deacon, seconded by Mr. D. Scully, that all persons who have subscribed sums of one dollar and upwards shall be members of the South Victoria Agricultural Society for the current year.—Carried. Moved by Mr. J. Deacon, seconded by Mr. W. M. Robson, that the president and secretary take the necessary steps to have the property of the society in the south ward, in the town of Lindsay, surveyed into building lots with the necessary plan with a view of offering the same for sale by public auction or otherwise.—Carried. Moved by Mr. D. Scully, seconded by Mr. R. Willock, that Messrs. McLennan, Connolly, Keith, Deacon, Robson and McBurney be a committee to make arrangements for printing, games, and all necessary arrangements for letting stalls and booths.—Carried. The prize list was arranged in committee of the whole by advertising nearly the same as the late Central prize list, and the directors urge the farming community to come forward and assist them by becoming members of the society. Adjourned.

Isaac Robb, a brass-founder at Mont-treuil, went to sleep in a train on Saturday night. Waking up he found himself past his destination, St. Lambert, and jumped out of the cars, which were going at 55 miles an hour. He received fatal injuries.

Personal Paragraphs.

Mr. Joe. Davies has been sight-seeing in the lower provinces. Mr. C. D. Barr returned last week from the press excursion, having had a very enjoyable trip.

Rev. J. S. Clarke, of Picton, was in town a few days this week visiting friends at Mrs. Bowen's.

Among the names who matriculated at the late Toronto university is Mr. A. McMurchy, of this town.

Mr. D. G. O'Brien returned last week from a trip to the lower provinces. Dav looks all the better for it.

The camping party composed of Messrs. Metherell, Soanes and others, have returned and report an enjoyable holiday.

Mr. A. W. Parkin and family are camping out on the lower lakes, Mrs. Jesse Parkin and family accompanying them.

Mr. Jas. Dean, the popular engine driver between Lindsay and Whitby, intends visiting Wingham for about one month.

Col. Deacon left Monday for Brockville and the coast. He will then take a trip up the Ottawa, across Lake Nipissing and return by the Roseau and Muskoka lakes.

Mr. J. Britton, accompanied by Miss Britton, arrived home Tuesday, having attended the grand lodge of Oddfellows as delegate for this lodge and paid a visit to the ancient capital.

Sir Henry Tyle, president of the Grand Trunk Railway, with Messrs. Joseph Hickson and Geo. A. Cox, arrived here by special train Friday evening on their tour of inspection of the Midland. The next morning they left for Midland, thence to Toronto.

We learn by the Brandon Sun that Messrs. Russell & Cooper, of that city, have been appointed agents and solicitors for the Freshford Loan and Savings Co. of Toronto for the Brandon district. Mr. Cooper is son of Mr. Jos. Cooper, of this town. They obtained the appointment through Hon. Mr. Wood, who is manager of the company.

We regret to learn of the somewhat sudden demise of Mr. C. Rankin in Winnipeg Wednesday morning. Mr. Rankin was well known in Lindsay and some years ago studied law in Mr. A. Hudspeith's office. He subsequently went to Winnipeg and by care and business ability soon acquired considerable wealth. It is expected his remains will be brought either here for burial or to Toronto.

OMEGEE.—EXAMS.—The following are the names of those who passed the recent examinations held at Omegee, for third class and intermediate certificates.—Third class—Annie McCrea, John Morgan and Lizzy Campbell. Intermediate—Annie Stephenson, T. Stephenson, May Marr and Daisy Stephenson.

NOT RIGHT.—The sportsmen of Omegee and vicinity are a law abiding lot and will not shoot or fish out of season, but every year a number of sports from a distance come to this place and go down the river eight or ten days before duck shooting opens, thereby depriving our men of the sport they are justly entitled to, by killing and chasing the duck away. The inspector should appoint an assistant for these waters, and have him located here.

SALEM—EMILY.—CREDITABLE.—At the teachers' examination at Lindsay Miss Agnes Murdoch took a third class and Misses Martha and Isabella Murdoch passed the intermediate. We congratulate the Misses Murdoch on their success.

RUNAWAY.—As Mr. John Ireton and Mr. James English were on their way to Lindsay their horse took fright and became unmanageable, throwing the occupants out of the buggy. Mr. Ireton is said to be fatally injured and Mr. English had his leg broken. They were unable to procure assistance until a team came along and brought them to town, where they had their wounds dressed. Strange to say the buggy was not upset or in any way broken.

MR. BENJAMIN PARKER has been awarded an agency for this place from Messrs. L. D. Sawyer & Co's agricultural works, Hamilton.

GOOD OATS.—A large stalk of oats has been found in this place, which measures from root to tip five feet six inches, length of head two feet four inches, and number of grains on head 238. It can be seen at any time in this place.

A SCARE.—Mr. B. Parker and Mr. James Campbell had a narrow escape the other morning by what they state to be something like a gorilla. It attacked them with a wild shrill which made the hair stand on end on their scalps. The young men thought to face the animal at first, but as it drew near to them their courage failed, and they beat a hasty retreat. The animal retreated then into the woods to its old haunts. The young men think that the animal must have young, as she was so furious.

RUNAWAYS.—A few days ago Mr. Richard Podget's team ran away while attached to a reaper, and before they stopped completely smashed the reaper. The horses were not hurt.

News of the Week.—A Dominion election is pending in Carleton county. Francis Clemon and Mr. Mosgrove, both conservatives, are the candidates.

The tender of the Ontario Investment Association for $175,000 worth of the city of London, Ont., debentures at 93 1/2 has been accepted.

St. John, N. B., is making great preparations for the so-called Dominion exhibition. A military review and a trade's demonstration will be among the features.

Henry Beatty, formerly manager of the Beatty steamboat line on Lake Superior, has been appointed manager of the steamboat service of the Canadian Pacific Railway.

G. E. Bell, of Belleville, has a pair of snow shoes and a powder horn that came into his hands 55 years ago, and were made in the Northwest 45 years before that date. The horn is a fine large one, elaborately and skillfully ornamented. It bears the following inscription cut upon it in plain letters: "Stephen Maddagh, his horn, made at Fort Howe, Aug. 19, 1783." These interesting relics were given to Mr. Bell by a French Canadian named Joseph Jourdain 55 years ago, when the former was a resident of Berkshire county, Que.

The donor was then a man 75 or 80 years of age.
