DUNDAS & FLAVELLE

BORCAY GEON.

Indians are encamped who employ their time in shooting and fishing, the products of their skill being disposed of to the pale faces. On Friday Johnston and some others went out fishing. After a time Johnston caught a maskelonge. He then went off to dispose of ir, and the rest crossed the lake to get on a lee shore. Johnston has not been seen since, and on Raturday his cance was found bottom up, in Courtney's bay, with the fishing line out in the water. Search is being made

BEAVERTON.

Correspondence of The Warder. Hyunniah Several weddings hav. taken place in this community during the past few weeks; and it is reported that our worthy ex. M. P. P. will no longer perform the duties which he has so long; and gracefully discharged on such occastons, but will shortly play a leading part

CHICKET OUF cricket club, after a fow years of nothing but disaster, has at length come to the front, beating Sunder-land by I run. Of our players who disc tinguished themselves at the bat we may mention Messrs. Lytle and J. D. Moc. Murchy, and at bowling, Dr. Gilpin, W. Lytle and Mr. A. Murray. The game was decided in favor of Beaverton on the LACROSSE What of your lacrosse club! The Checkers of Beaverton are sighing to hear from them, as there are no hopes of the Orillia and Stayner clubs ever screwing their courage up to the checking point. The Checkers are also longing to return the noble hospitality of the Uxbridge Le club, but from the held the Uxbridgeites will surely return with nothing left but their tails.

CHITTARY. We regret this week to record the death of Mr. Chas. Robinson, the first year of his age. At the time of his death Mr. Robinson had been a resident of this township for the long period of 51 years. During 21 years of that time he hiled the highest office in the recressing to this fellow-citizens—that of the recressing, and was once warden of the country of Ontario. In politics he was a staunch Reformer, but during his long and active career he always enjoyed the respect and esteem of those belonging to the party to which he was opposed. His chiable public services will long be reminered, but the fine personal and social qualities of the Squire will live settle longer in the hearts of the people of this community. His family have the sympathy of a very wide circle in their hereavement. in the 73rd year of his age. Work on the pulp

Pas Pole Mills Work on the pulp The Pule Mills.—Work on the pulp will progresses as rapidly asciroumstances permit; the engine and botter houses are already shingled; a network of heavy timber pervades the other portions of the buildings, and in a couple of weeks the whole will be far enough advanced to give a very good general idea of what it will be like when it is finished.

DRUNK AND DISORDERLY.—Two of the canal hands, named respectively Francis Ryan and Nelson Pallet, got into troubte and the lock-up Wednesday evening. In consequence of having imbibed too much whiskey they were misconducting themselves on the public street. Constable Nevison, after warning them repeatedly, affected Fallet, and Ryan interfered and attempted to resone him. There was fruite a row for a time, and in the course of it Ryan struck Constable Kelly, who was assisting Nevison, and knocked him down. Both men were finally conducted to the lock-up, where they were kept all sight, and next morning taken before Robert McFarland, J. F., who tufficted a time of $1 and coats on Fallet and $0 and coats on Ryan, the latter having, in addition to assaulting Constable Kelly, taken DEUNK AND DISCRORRING Two of the

It is not our object at this time to say whether it is an advantage to the country at large that wheat should be high or otherwise. They who buy of course wish it cheap, and they who sell wish it dear.

Our object is alongly to show whather it is Junkin, who lives near the take shore in the fawnishing a findew the sash broke, and the palm of her right hand near the wrist was badly on wheat the price would be to-day fully now the glass.

Shirped Dinger. On Thesday morning Mr. John St. Lawrence, merchant of And of course as the price in Toronto.

Nay, we believe it is due to the protective duty on wheat, which is part of the N. P., and by which every bushel of wheat sold in Canada for the past two months has placed just so much more money in the pockets of the farmers who had and have it to sell.
