OAKWOOD. Correspondence of The Warder. TEA MEETING. - The Methodist church held its usual anniversary tea meeting on New Year's night, in the commodious Bible Christian church of this place. Tea was served in the basement, after which the crowd adjourned to the body of the church, where a very interesting meeting was opened with Mr. Jesse Weldon in the chair. Revs. Moran, Pomeroy, Emsly, Barns and W. Eyres, Esq., delivered addresses, interspersed with select music from the choir. The closing scene was specially interesting, consisting of a present of a beautiful easy chair and costly fur coat and sleigh robe, all worth about $50 or $60, to Mr. Jesse Weldon,

FIRE.—The farmhouse of John Stewart near Marysville, Tyendinaga, was burned Sunday with all its contents. The loss is $500, no insurance. Last night the barn of McCaughey, Sidney fell a proy to the fames. The contents belonged to Mr. McCaughey, he being a tenant of Mr. Knex. The loss is estimated at $2,000, fully covered by insurance in Liverpool, London and Globe. The fire was caused by the explosion of a lamp in the hands of Mr. McCaughey's son, who was badly burned.
