PROVERBS IN ACTION.

Proverbs can be played in impromptu style with pleasure and profit, and can also be dramatized so as to amuse crowded audiences of cultivated people. But they are, perhaps, funnier when done in the former manner, and the costumes are caught up from the entry and the properties from the kitchen.

In this case the most eccentric turn can be given to the sentiment and pronunciation of the words used, and the alternate scenes may be represented in tableau, pantomime or charade. A few specimens of each will be given here from which even the youngest reader can gain ideas enough to enable him to choose the proverbs and arrange the action for himself.

A ROLLING STONE GATHERS NO MOSS.

Scene 1.—A cottage interior represented by any room, with wash-tub, churn, spinning-wheel, or any articles of domestic use. The old dame sits in a high-backed chair, and seems intent on convincing her family of the importance of keeping busily employed at home. Each one of her daughters is at work at some domestic labor.

Her son enters, dressed in a walking costume, with a plaid shawl over his arm and a bundle in his hand.

"Now, my dear boy," says the old lady, "I hope you will think better of your foolish plan of going out to service, and be content to help your father in carrying on his farm, which will be yours some day if you attend to it well."

"But, mother," says the boy, "I want to see the world."

"The world is a poor place, my dear boy, and full of trouble."

"Never mind, mother; you will rejoice to see me back again when I have made my fortune."

"Fortune will come to you, my son, if you work hard at home."

"I hate farm-work, mother, and have made up my mind to go. So goodby all."

The son gaily marches off, and the mother follows him to the door and looks earnestly after him, waves her handkerchief a few times, then totters to her chair and cries bitterly. The girls all cry in concert, and then dry their eyes and continue busily at work until the curtain falls.

Scene 2.—The same room with much better furniture and adornments. The old lady and her daughters in evening dress are engaged with fancy-work and books, and one young lady plays a cheerful tune on the piano. The door opens and a gust of snow is blown into the room by means of a pair of bellows and a large quantity of very small scraps of writing paper. A terrific wind howls without, the sound being produced by blowing into a glass bottle.

The son enters with rags and tatters hanging from his clothes. His cheeks are chalked at the sides, so that he looks very much emaciated. He holds out his right hand as if asking alms, and leans heavily on a rough cane with his left. No one recognizes him at first, until he says—

"Don't you know me, mother? I have come home destitute."

The mother rushes into his arms, and the girls welcome him eagerly. One runs out for provisions, another spreads the table, and all try to show their welcome and sympathy. He sits at the table and eats ravenously, and then says—

"Mother, it is a blessed thing to have a home to go to, and I have learned the lesson that steady labor is far better than a wandering life."

Another pretty entertainment is this:

FINE FEATHERS MAKE FINE BIRDS.

A fop enters and struts about with eye-glasses and cane, seeming too proud to speak to common people. A negro girl enters carrying a basket of clothes on her head, and the fop eyes her with disgust as she passes him and knocks off his hat accidentally with her basket. He is very angry and shakes his fist at her as she goes out of sight.

But his manner suddenly changes as he sees a lady with showy bonnet, thick veil and elegant cloak, and he makes the lowest bow to her as she advances. The lady, however, pays him no attention, being very much annoyed at his rudeness, but passes out of sight rapidly.

The fop still lingers sucking the head of his cane and putting on airs, when he again beholds the same costume approaching. Gaining courage, he sidles up and offers his arm to the lady, who accepts it to his delight, and they walk up and down together. He tries in vain to get a view of her face, which she keeps averted; but finally he lifts her veil, when he beholds the same colored woman that he met at first, who has put on the bonnet and cloak of her mistress. The mistress enters also now, and both the women laugh at the discomfited fop, who slinks away in disgust as the curtain falls.

Another proverb which affords an opportunity for action is the following:

ALL IS NOT GOLD THAT GLITTERS.

A pair of country people are taking a walk. They gaze into the shop-windows, and seem to be surprised at the novel sights which they see on every side. They walk arm-in-arm and often look tenderly at each other.

Soon they are met by a Jew peddler who has a tray full of fancy goods. He stops and calls their attention to his wares. They seem to be delighted with the articles which he holds up for their inspection, and at last fix upon a large bracelet, which is made of a band of sheet iron covered with gold paper. They spend much time in discussing the price, and the man says,—

"Is it gold?"

"It certainly's cold," says the Jew, rubbing his ear with one hand.

"If you are sure it is gold," says the bumpkin, "I will give you six dollars for it."

"Ten is the lowest," says the Jew, and after much chaffering the bracelet is purchased for six dollars and a half, and the man proudly clasps it on the arm of his friend, rejoicing that he has outwitted the peddler.

The couple continue their walk, and the lady, after constantly looking at her new bracelet, rubs it with her handkerchief to brighten it. What is her horror to see the gold rub off and the iron slowly come to light under the process. The woman cries, and the man sets out with uplifted stick in eager but fruitless pursuit of the deceitful Jew.

The above examples, it will readily be seen, can be easily enlarged into little dramas by writing in longer dialogues, which will prove an excellent exercise in composition. But if the actors have confidence and wit enough to make up the conversation as they act, it will sound more real than if written and committed to memory.

OMEMEE.

ATHLETIC.—We understand that it is the intention of Mr. R. N. Harrison to open a school in Omemee for athletic training.

A SAD MESSAGE.—On Wednesday last Mr. F. Fitch, of Emily, received the sad news of the death of his brother Robert, a young man of about 24 years of age, at Port Arthur.

SALVATION.—The first attack was made on Omemee on Sunday at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. The meetings are held in the village hall. There are "one captain and five or six blood and fire soldiers" in the regiment.

AGENCY.—The Lindsay Gold and Silver Plating Co. has appointed Mr. Jas. A. Clark, jeweller, their sole agent for Omemee and vicinity.

Stephenson and presented her with a gold watch and gold pencil, a gift from her friends in the congregation, as a recognition of her punctual and efficient services at the organ.

PRIZE.—Mr. Sheppard, the headmaster of our public school, has offered a handsome volume of poems to the pupil in his division who makes the highest marks at the next entrance examination.

OBITUARY.—On Tuesday morning last Mr. Wm. Neill Sr., died in this village at the advanced age of 80 years. Mr. Neill has been a resident of Omemee for upwards of forty years.

OMEMEE'S POPULATION.—Last week Mr. Robert English finished taking the census of this village, which was ordered for the purpose of seeing whether there was population enough to allow of another hotel, which will be granted as there is 765 of a pop.

OVER THE TELEPHONE.—One evening recently, Mr. D. McKinley, the renowned musician, took up his position in front of the telephone in Mr. M. J. Waugh's office and entertained audiences in Peterboro, Port Hope, Toronto and intermediate points, by the sweet strains which he can bring forth from a mouth organ. Dave is a buster, he played some sixty tunes, but still the heartless people of Peterboro' wanted more.—[Herald.

SOMERVILLE.

COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS.—The members elect of the municipal council of the township of Somerville met this 21st day of January, 1884, at Hodgson's house, Rettie's station pursuant to statute. The reeve stated to the council that, on account of the engineer's illness, he had no estimate of the bridge at Rettie's; but thought it might be made perfectly safe for a term on the principle, which would cost but little and be a great savings financially to the township. The reeve nominated S. Gray as auditor, and on motion of Mr. Graham, seconded by Mr. Suddaby, Mr. John T. Beech was appointed on behalf of the council. The applications of Thomas Robson, Jr., Wm. Portious and John T. Beech for the office of assessor for the year 1884 were laid before the council. Moved by Mr. Rumney, seconded by Mr. Perdue, that John T. ONTARIO COUNTY.

MR. J. V. Thompson owner of the Port Perry house, the first of the fine range of buildings laid in ashes in November last, is making preparations for rebuilding a worthy successor of the fine hotel whose place it is to occupy.

PORT PERRY RACES.—Tuesday was fixed for the opening day of the trotting tournament, unfavorable weather had done much towards preventing the making of a proper track, only half a mile track could be secured and that was far from being a suitable one. However as the named race was to come off on the first day and there was quite a number of fine horses entered for it with not a few expert drivers, much anxiety was manifested to test the superiority of the several horses; and the fact of their being all local and known horses increased the interest in the race. The morning of the 6th looked a little favorable, and the racers were so anxious to get to work that they brought on the 2:50 class race and the colt race. The 2:50 race was a grand one, but McRae's Mayflower was to fast for all competitors and there were five fast horses in the race, McRae's Mayflower took first money and Flint's mare second. In the colts race there were seven competitors, but the "Orphan Girl" ran away from them all and secured an easy victory.

THE CARNIVAL.—The carnival held on the Lorne skating rink Friday evening was one of the grandest ever held in Port Perry. The Uxbridge brass band played some lively airs which added very much to the pleasure of those present. The maskers were numerous and the costumes elegant, and they deserve credit for the good taste displayed in selecting the various characters.

METHODIST CONVENTION.—Port Perry was besieged last week by delegates from the several Methodist churches within the bounds of the Whitby circuit of the Methodist church of Canada, which range of country extends from Newtonville, in the east, to Pickering, in the west, and northward as far as Sunderland. There were present some ninety preachers and laymen, representing the keen business tact of the laity of the church. The proceedings were characterised by the perfect order of business which usually prevails among trained officials. The business of the convention is to rearrange the work of the several circuits, in the view of the approaching Methodist union.

MR. J. W. Burnham has received the appointment of postmaster of Port Perry. Mr. Burnham, who is the eldest son of his honor Judge Burnham, will undoubtedly fill the position with credit to himself and to the satisfaction of the Port Perry public.

MR. John Brandon, of the 10th con. of Mara, this county, on going to his barn early on the morning of the 16th ult., was surprised to find a young lamb running about the yard. Now then, come out with your spring lamb yarns.

CURE FOR CHILBLAINS.

Bathe the feet for ten or fifteen minutes in water as hot as can be borne; then apply Hagyard's Yellow Oil, and a cure is certain. Yellow Oil cures Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Deafness, Lameness and Pain generally; and internally cures Colds, Sore Throat, Croup, Asthma, and many painful affections.

Capt. Nellie Ryerson, of the Salvation Army, Kingston, while engaged to her present husband, received proposals from a clergyman and a rich whiskey vendor at Belleville.

MALADIES MULTIPLY ONE ANOTHER. A simple fit of indigestion may—especially if the constitution is not naturally vigorous throw the entire mechanism of the liver and bowels out of gear. Sick headache follows, poisoning the blood by bile causes, and there is grave and serious disturbance of the entire system. Check the threatened dangers at the outset with Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Dyspepsia Cure, the medicine that drives every impurity from the blood.

A LONG TIME.

Fifteen years of suffering from the tortures of Dyspepsia is indeed a long time. A Burns, blacksmith, of Cobourg, was thus afflicted, but it only required four bottles of Burdock Blood Bitters to completely cure him.

John Haddon, an employee of the Walkerville, Ont., sugar refinery, while walking along a platform at the rear of the building stepped off the end and fell eight feet striking on his head.

A Cure for Cut, Sores, Etc. The finest healing compound under the sun is McGregor & Parke's Carbolic Cerate. There is no sore but will succumb to its wonderful healing properties. It is an invaluable dressing for scalds, festers, etc. Price twenty-five cents at A Higinbotham's drug store.

Dr. Wilson, late curate of St. George's cathedral, Kingston, will be asked to remain in Kingston and head a local religious movement, omitting the objectionable features of the Salvation Army.

BATTLE CREEK, MICH., Jan., 31, 1879. GENTLEMAN.—Having been afflicted for a number of years with indigestion and general debility, by the advice of my doctor I used Hop Bitters, and must say they afforded me almost instant relief. I am glad to be able to testify in their behalf. THOS. G. KNOX.

Some parties obtained entrance into a barber shop owned by Fred. Oldham, of Lucan, by forcing open the back door of the premises and carried away everything available, to the value of $35 or $40.

DALMENY P. O., Tp. Osgoode, August 29th, 1883.

Messrs. Churchill & Co., Dear Sirs,—I have been troubled with piles for the last five years, and during that time I have taken medicine from five doctors which failed to effect a cure. I have used only one box of your Climax Eye Salve, which I purchased from W. F. Ritchie, of Osgoode Station, and can recommend it as a safe cure to all afflicted with the same disease. I consider your Fountain of Health an excellent tonic to build up the system. Yours truly,

(1) ARCHIE McDIARMID.

Loss and Gain.

CHAPTER I.

"I was taken sick a year ago
With bilious fever."

"My doctor pronounced me cured, but I got sick again, with terrible pains in my back and sides, and I got so bad I
Could not move!
I shrunk!
From 228 lbs. to 120! I had been doctoring for my liver, but it did me no good. I did not expect to live more than three months. I began to use Hop Bitters. Directly my apnetite returned, my pains left me, my entire system seemed renewed as if by magic, and after using several bottles I am not only as sound as a sovereign but wheigh more than I did before. To Hop Bitters I owe my life."
R. FITZPATRICK.

Dublin, June 6, '81.

HOW TO GET SICK.—Expose yourself day and nights; eat too much without exercise; work too hard without rest; doctor all the time; take all the vile nostrums advertised, and then you will want to know how to get well, which is answered in three words—Take Hop Bitters.—1-6.

W. H. GROSS

DENTIST.

The oldest dentist in Victoria county. Over 23 years' experience; from June, 1860, to December, 1883.

For any kind of Dental Work that will stand the test of time call at GROSS' DENTAL ROOMS, Lindsay.

ENGLISH BLACK RUBBER PLATES have no superior in the world for durability, cleanliness, purity, perfect adaptation to the mouth and comfort to the wearer. Hundreds of people who could not use any other kind of plate are wearing them with the greatest satisfaction. Mr. Gross is the only dentist in Lindsay who uses the genuine English Black Rubber. The inferior American black variety is well calculated to deceive, and the public are cautioned to be on the look out for it. Also for that mammoth humbug called "Gold Alloy." No sensible man or woman who reads the papers will allow themselves to become victims of this glaring fraud. Mr. Gross makes a specialty of the preparation of plates for lower jaws, vacated by shrinkage or absorption. He made last week for parties in Manvers two perfect fitting sets of lower teeth, given up by another Lindsay dentist, after repeated trials with his "new process." ABOUT 10,000 ARTIFICIAL TEETH to select from most likely the largest, and certainly the best selected, stock of teeth ever brought to Lindsay. The natural teeth permanently filled and saved. Gold fillings inserted by the Electro-Magnetic Mallet, a new thing in Lindsay. Fillings guaranteed for FIVE YEARS. A FULL UPPER OR UNDER SET OF TEETH FROM $9 TO $15. Liquified Gas and Electricity successfully used. Gross' Dental Catechism, containing valuable information on the subject of teeth. Call and get one free. Remember the place,—over Kennedy's store, Kent street, Lindsay.

J. NEELANDS,

L. D. S.

OVER 20 YEARS' EXPERIENCE.

The most successful dentist in this part of Canada. The GOLD ALLOY used by Mr. Neelands for artificial teeth is a grand success, notwithstanding the false statement made about it by a Lindsay dentist jealous of Mr. Neelands' enterprise in buying the patent right. This individual exhibits to his patrons a piece of gross metal resembling soft solder or lead, and tells them it is a poison and the same as Neelands' Gold Alloy, which is a falsehood, as the Gold Alloy used by him contains both gold and silver and no poison.

Mr. Neelands inserts numbers of perfect fitting sets of teeth for people in Lindsay, Ops, Mariposa after this dentist had tried and entirely failed to give satisfaction. Black Rubber has been used by Mr. Neelands for the last 17 years. The only genuine English Black Rubber kept constantly on hand. Teeth inserted on any plate desired. In extracting teeth with gas it is a common thing for Mr. Neelands to exract from 10 to 15 teeth with one dose of gas and the person leaving quite well and strong. Mr. Neelands made a special study of this gas under Dr. Colton, of New York, the inventor, who writes to Mr. Neelands that he has given the gas to 136,613 persons without an accident. Teeth filled to last a life time. One lady says she had her teeth filled with gold by Mr. Neelands over 15 years ago, and her teeth are all good yet. The Peoples' Dental instructor, a book worth its weight in gold, call and get a copy free. OFFICE—Next door to R. Smyth's store. May be found after hours at private residence, Mill St., near Kent. Persons from a distance will please send postal card before coming.
