BOUND FOR DAKOTA. - One of our oldest and most esteemed friends, Mr. William H. Best, having sold his farm and stock, intends leaving for Uncle Sam's dominions on or about the second week in April. We need not enlarge on the subject of the loss of Mr. Best in this vicinity, so his good character and neigh-borly feelings are well known throughout the entire community.

PRESENTATION.—The Good Templars of this place presented Miss M. A. Best with a very handsome cake basket on Thursday evening last, which bore the inscription, "Presented to Miss M. A. Best by I. O. G. Ts. No. 157, March, 1884." They also read an address, which showed that the article was not given for the intrinsic value of it but to show the esteem in which she was held by the lodge, not only as a mere member but as a faithful worker for that noble cause. It a faithful worker for that noble cause. It also expressed regret at having to part with so true an advocate of temperance. A short intermission was given, after which tea was served by the sisters of the lodge who had provided for the occasion. Then a reply was read from Miss Best, which was very suitable considering the great and audden surprise, as the present was wholly unexpected by her. The members of the ledge then gave an elegent programme, consisting of vocal and instrumental music, readings, speeches, etc.

scarce. Another family moved in to the village, who will be the next?

TROTTING .- At the meeting of turfmen ments were completed for the spring trotting circuit to commence at Montreal on June 15th, and be continued at Ottawa, Belleville and Kingston in the order named. Montreal will give $3,000 in purses, and the other cities $1,500 each. Toronto will be asked to join the circuit, which will probably join the National trotting AMBITIOUS .- Two deaf and dumb boys named Sours and McKay, each aged 14 years, ran away from the institution for the deaf and dumb, Belleville, on Tuesday, and no tidings have been heard since by the authorities. It is supposed they were desirous of earning some money THE important and well-known association of the United States.

Church esse, malliwell v. Synod of Ontario, down for hearing at the present chancery sittings, has been referred to Osgoode hall before Justice Ferguson, when the case will be argued as to the right of a bishop to revoke a license to preach. which was done in the case of Halliwell Explosion. -An explosion occurred at

Mr. Henry Corby's distillery on Saturday morning. When the spirit started to boil, instead of passing through the column and to the goose condenser in the usual way, it escaped through the defect in the valve. The fireman detected the smell of spirits and sent for the foreman. The
