done to the crops here by the frost on the 23th ult., but they are getting up a little Building.-Mr. E. English is putting up a new house.

VERY DRY.—The weather has been very hot and dry for the past week and crops are beginning to suffer, but a nice rain to-day will likely have a very beneficial effect. NEW MACHINERY.—The farmers round here are beginning to get reapers and mowers. The Sylvester works in Lindsay appear to get the greater share of patronage from here. The village would undertake to construct the approaches free of expense to the county in case the bridge be rebuilt of iron. They further considered it necessary that prompt action be taken, and would recommend that the county engineer be instructed to prepare plans and specifications for atoms work, etc., and with as little delay as possible to complete it this season.

Mr. Drynts Howkins left this neighbourhood Monday with a large herd of young cattle for pasture in the township of Verulam. Dennis is a thriving farmer and we have no doubt but this will pay him better than to have his cattle on the public road. If other farmers would take Mr. Howkins' example there would be more beef to dispose of in the fall. Mr. D. B. Carmichael, of Eldon station, is to open out a general store in the old stand formerly occupied by N. McFadyen, where he can supply you with goods cheaper than the cheapest.

It is our painful duty to chronicle the death of Mr. David Anderson. The sad event took place at his brother's residence, 5th com., Eldon: Deceased was highly respected by all who knew him. He was buried in the Smith's cemetery by the Orange order, of which he was a member. -Advocate.

A game of base ball which was to be played between the Bethany and Caran clubs did not come off, some disagreement arising between them and could not be settled satisfactorily. WOODVILLE.

CATTLE FAIR .- The first quarterly catthe fair was held on Tuesday last, and resulted in a very fair success. The day was fine and a large number of persons gathered in the afternoon. The animals offered were all sold, and realized good prices. Mr. Don. Jackson's fine thoroughbred bull was on the ground and received much admiration. The number of animals much admiration. The number of animals was small, and we heard several remarks that were it not for the prizes offered more would have been present as many did not bring animals thinking they would be put in competition. ROSEDALE. Correspondence of The Warder. DEATH .- It is my sad duty this week to have to send you the news of the death of Mr. William Hooey, who died on Saturday morning, 31st of May, in the 33rd year of his age. Deceased was the second son of the late Wm. Hooey, sen., of this place, his two brothers and his father having died only a few years ago. Deceased was generally respected and liked by all who knew him. His remains were interred in the Fenelon Falls cemetery on Monday. The funeral was not as large as it would have been had it not been for the grand picnic which was being held here at the same time. GRAND PICNIC.—The grand picnic which was held on the 2nd of June was very well attended. The day passed off very quietly. Owing to the death of Mr. Wm. Hooey, whose funeral took place in the afternoon, a great many were taken away who otherwise would have been at the picnic. After dinner was over the crowd assembled together to listen to the speaking. Speeches were given by Messrs. Cruse and Coady, of Mariposa, together the people spent a pleasant day on the waters of our beautiful lake and on SUICIDE. - Mr. J. Stephens' cream mare, Northern Beauty, committed suicide here on Monday evening. She seemed to be in her usual condition up till Monday, but as there were a great many horses in the state of the s village that day attending the funeral and picnic she was seen gazing on some of the fattest of them, apparently comparing her condition with theirs. The difference being so great it was thought she became despondent and determined to end her existence. She waited until dark when all was quiet, then she went down to the river below the wharf and plunged into the water and drowned herself. She was found there the next morning by her Annie Knupp, the sixteen year old daughter of a wealthy Vesper township farmer, has for some time been the mag net which attracted the matrimonially inclined young men of the locality. John Forbes, a youngfarmer, was the favored suitor, but Annie's parents credited him with an anxiety to possess the valuable farm which will be Annie's inheritance. On May 26th John took Annie to a concert. On the way home Mrs, Knupp met the lovers, referred to John in no complimentary terms, and ordered her daughter to leave his side. Annie refused, and at Mr. Camerom moved, seconded by Mr.

Taylor, that this council grant $100 to exect a bridge across the Talbet river in Edden at the village of Balsover, and that this resolution be referred to the committee on reads and bridges.—Carried.

Mr. Walker moved, seconded by Mr.
