The Old Oak Tree.

Down yonder by the cool green meadow,
Nestled the old oak tree,
A child was sleeping in its shadow—
Dreaming nappy dreams was he.
Angels were there, on him attending,
Watching all unseen,
O'er him their faces bending,
Guarding while he slept serene.

Obituary.

Ob, the blissful hours of childhood,
Fleeting in their stay,
But our old haunts in glen and wood,
Never from the heart can decay.

Down yonder by the cool green meadow,
A fair youth I noted,
Resting 'neath the old oak's shadow,
Wooing there a fair young bride,
Just from the altar, newly wedded,
Glad he bore her home,
To yonder cot with ivy shaded,
Never from the loved one to roam.

Obituary.

Ob, the blissful time of wooing,
Fleeting in its stay;
True love, the heart of youth renewing,
Never from the heart can decay.

Down yonder by the cool green meadow,
Never more came he,
On him had fallen a darker shadow,
Than that of the old oak tree,
She, too, who had so fondly loved him,
Faded in her bloom,
Sally her pleading eyes reproved him;
Now, she sleeps in yonder tomb.

Obituary.

All the woes of dissipation,
Tongues can never tell;
Fly then from the cursed temptation,
Fly, and you may yet do well.

News of the Week.

Sir Leonard Tilley's health is improving slowly but surely.

British officers in India are being granted short furloughs, and are being allowed to visit England.

The French revenue returns show that the recent protective legislation has failed to exclude foreign sugars.

The number of saloons in Ohio have been reduced one-half since the Scott law went into effect in that state.

Natural gas has been discovered at Colborne. It may turn out to be merely some escaped speeches on the franchise question.

Mme. Margaine, a dressmaker of Lyons, has been fined forty francs for whipping one of her apprentices, a girl fifteen years of age.

Wolfville, Nova Scotia, is demanding a goal. But what—say nothing about it or the Reformers will blame it upon the N. P.

The council of Pittsburg township, Ont., have decided to have the telephone poles removed from the highways in the municipality.

The liberals are getting uneasy about Mr. Gladstone's intentions, and the News yesterday morning exhorted him to lead the electoral campaign.

Letters from West Africa report the death of Mr. Blair, the new British consul at Oil River, and it is suspected he was poisoned by natives.

Earl Dufferin has arranged to hold a durbar at Averis in November, to be attended by the chiefs of all the Rajpootana and Central Indian States.

Smallpox is declared to be epidemic in Montreal. There are now 36 cases in the city hospital. Four deaths occurred on Tuesday in the suburbs.

The silver jubilee of the Roman Catholic bishops of Charlottetown, P. E. I., and Chatham, N. B., was celebrated yesterday at Charlottetown with great ceremony.

It is stated that the sanitary condition and drainage of the city of Ottawa are so bad as to cause grave fears for the result should cholera make its appearance there.

As a result of the Fall Mail Gazette revelations, several cheap lodging-houses for work girls have been established in the east end of London. A special to the Mail inquirer our correspondent where a girl can obtain a bed, three meals, and a warm bath for eighteen cents.

The growth of the cattle industry is wonderful. Twenty years ago $1,000,000 would cover the amount invested in cattle ranches in the United States, while now the investment is estimated at $100,000,000. Not only in this country, but abroad, agriculture has been superseded in many places by cattle raising, which is lowering, and will continue to lower, the price of beef.

Russia has despatched fifty torpedo boats to the Black sea.

The Affghans are said to be manufacturing great bodies of troops at Herat.

To intimidate the Sultan of Zanzibar, Admiral Paichon has moved his squadron opposite his Majesty's palace.

Brigades are ravaging Epirus. They have carried off several ladies and demand heavy ransoms for their release.

Walter Whitman, the poet, had a partial sunstroke recently. Poetry with less heat in it may now be looked for from his pen.

A convention to decide upon the date for submitting the Scott act in the county of Essex will be held next week at Essex Centre.

Lord Salisbury will start tomorrow for a fortnight's holidays at Dieppe. He denies that he will meet Prince Bismarck and premier Depretis.

It is said the Czar and emperor Francis Joseph will discuss a treaty for extradition by direct correspondence between the law courts of Russia and Austria.

A proclamation eulogizing Gen. Grant was recently issued to the Cheerokees by the head chief of the tribe. Our Grit friends will probably consider this a gross outrage.

The Fall Mail Gazette states that a member of the depression of trade committee was publicly flogged in London yesterday afternoon, for the alleged seduction of his assistant's daughter.

All Russian ministers in the Balkan States have been summoned to St. Petersburg to confer with the Government previous to the coming meeting between the Czar and Emperor Francis Joseph.

Hon. J. H. Pope was recorded a reception by the people of Sherbrooke on Saturday and was heartily thanked for his efforts to secure a short line of railway from the upper provinces to the sea.

The Nova Scotia cotton factory was run at a loss last year owing to the low prices prevailing; but the free traders are still "out" with our cotton lords for the alleged rapid increase in their wealth.

It is said that the halfbreed of the North-west were terribly oppressed, threatened with eviction and deprived of their lands, yet Riel's counsel were unable to produce as a witness one man who had been so wronged.

The Young Liberals have had their preliminary meeting. As the first resolution was "that a subscription list be passed around" it is clear that the young men of the party have as keen an eye to the main chance as the old chaps.

In consequence of a new law prohibiting the employment of boys under fourteen in mines in Pennsylvania, more than four thousand boys have been discharged in the Schuylkill region, and over ten thousand will be discharged in four counties.

It is reported now that Dumont proposes to rescue Riel. Curiously enough, just one week ago the Toronto Globe published an article stating that Riel was confined in a shanty, and that it would be easy to kill the guards and carry him off.

The sale of American petroleum in Europe has been much lessened by the importation of the Russian product. The loss is compensated, however, by the growing export to Japan. Two ships leave Philadelphia this week for the latter country, with 190,000 cases of oil.

Mr. Preston, the Grit candidate in East Durham, announces that he comes out in the Reform interest with the full concurrence of Mr. Blake. So much the worse for Mr. Blake. He should know better than to try to seat Mr. Preston in the vicinity of Sir Richard Cartwright.

Manitoba is not the only province in which "the moulds of fate that shape the state" are not balanced. There is open voting there, but as both parties favor the ballot the provinces will doubtless be brought into line with the rest of the Dominion, open voting being abandoned.

A most startling event has recently thrown the people of Richmond, Va., almost into convulsions. A bank robber who slipped from the city to this country recently with $36,000 has voluntarily returned. This will probably be considered prima facie evidence of insanity.

Lady S., who is well known in the circles of the haut ton, says a London letter, has a very bad memory, and is in the habit of tying knots in her handkerchiefs to remind her of little matters through the day. A short time ago she attended a reception at the West End, and made herself unconsciously conspicuous by carrying on a desperate flirtation with a lieutenant captain of the Guards. Her hostess did not approve of such goings-on, and contrived to skillfully break up the tele. As the lady was leaving her chair she dropped her handkerchief, which was promptly picked up and returned to her by the gallant captain. She immediately noticed a knot in one corner of the delicate cambric, and exclaimed, "Oh!

dear me, what can I have forgotten now?" to which her hostess replied in a tart and acerbic whisper, "That you have a husband."

The council of the English Liberal association is divided as to whether to ask Sir Charles Dilke to retire from public life until after the trial of the divorce case.

Mr. John Ruskin, the art critic, who recently injured himself while felling a tree, is now in a serious condition, suffering from dangerous cerebral symptoms.

Dr. Metcalf, superintendent of the Kingston Insane Asylum, was dangerously stabbed in the abdomen yesterday morning by one of the inmates, and is now lying in a critical condition.

A working lad's institute, containing reading, recreation, refreshment, and class rooms, workshops, school of art, gymnasium, etc., and capable of accommodating one thousand lads, will be opened in Whitechapel, London, in October.

There was a text for a sermon in this inscription on one of the banners borne in a procession of Socialists at Chicago Sunday. It read: "We mourn not so much for Gen. Grant as for the child who was starved to death yesterday."

A special to the Mail says it is understood that Lord Salisbury will appoint a committee of experts to investigate the accounts of the several Government departments during recess, as it is more than suspected the "irregularities" of book-keeping are not confined to the admiralty office.

The officers sent up to Bisectating, Lake Superior, to put a stop to the lawlessness of liquor peddlers in that village, have effectually accomplished their task. Thirteen of the gang have been lodged in goal, and officers are searching for the ringleaders, who managed to escape.

The grand lodge I. O. O. F. of Ontario yesterday elected its officers for the ensuing year. The next meeting is to be held in London. Bro. King, of Toronto, who has filled the office of grand secretary for twenty-one years, was presented with a handsome gold watch, chain, and seals.

It is estimated that there are no fewer than one thousand cases of smallpox in the city of Montreal, and over one hundred in the suburban village of St. Jean Baptiste. Seventeen deaths have occurred within the past two days, and the loathsome disease is spreading rapidly, every part of the city being affected.

Toronto city council decided to take advantage of the opportunity presented by Sunday night's fire by widening the esplanade from Brook street to Berkeley street by not less than sixty feet. A by-law was also read first and second times providing that in future buildings erected on the south side of the esplanade shall be covered with galvanized iron or some incombustible material.

A writer in the Montreal Gazette contributes the following interesting chapter to Canadian history.—"Twenty-five years ago, at Marienville, in Rouville county, Timothee Pontus, aged 26, led to the altar a pretty girl of sweet sixteen. The other day the pair celebrated their silver wedding, and what do you think was the crowning wreath of the feast? A ring of 24 children, all hearty and blooming. The father is only 45 and the mother 41. Vive la Canadienne!"

If this sort of thing continues very many Grit papers will soon be deprived of the privilege of filling long fell wants in the households of great Grits. Hon. E. Blake has "stopped" his Grip because it dared to criticize him. Hon. A. M. Ross "stopped" his St. Catharines paper because it did the same thing. The consequences is that these gentlemen appear quite as foolish as many others who seek to annihilate newspapers which have offended them by "stopping" their papers. Mr. Blake will next be trying to knock out the Port Arthur Herald and sundry other Grit papers that are holding up the Morris boom.

A Montreal butcher attending church at St. Perrot, finding himself physically unable to kneel on both knees, knelt on one only and slightly bent the other, a posture which we may safely accept his assurance was unaccountable. To the butcher comes an intelligent (?) church warden, who insists upon his getting down upon both marrow bones. The butcher in vain protests that he was doing the best he could; at the instance of another intelligent (?) church warden a warrant was being issued against the butcher and he was arrested, charged with committing an act of irreverence by placing himself upon one knee and keeping the other only slightly bent and thus giving the warden the appearance of the pious. At the instance of the warden the warden (?) butcher $5 and costs. It is just as well that visitors to St. Perrot may know what is expected of them if they go to church. Actions are threatened against the two warden and the J. P. in the event of their failing to apologize and to return the $5. It is to be hoped that all three will keep a stiff lip at this point, so that a legal decision may be obtained which will show how for a church warden may go in disciplining attendants at church. It would be interesting to know what the Bishop thinks of such antics. [Montreal Star.]

Mr. Blake, in a fit of virtue, hands over his special indemnity of $500 to the West Durham agricultural association, thus converting it into political capital. We respectfully submit that by so doing Mr. Blake applied it to as strictly personal use as if he had employed it in the purchase of a pair of horses for his carriage. The latter investment, or some similar one, would indeed, in our opinion, have been the more proper of the two. Political influence is not a good thing to buy with one's own money, not to speak of money which one does not feel like calling his own. If Mr. Blake thought that money should have been paid to him, his proper course was to refuse it or else to pay it back into the treasury. There is lots of room for it there. [Montreal Star.]

It is said that Grip has deteriorated wonderfully—in Mr. Blake's opinion. When it was filled with vicious hits at the Conservative leaders and the Conservative party he thought it intensely funny. Recently, however, he has become quite disgusted with it, and has issued his mandate that it shall cross his threshold no more. Mr. Mowat still continues his subscription.

It was thought at one time that few of the volunteers would take up their land grants; but it turns out now that large numbers of them are applying for their homesteads. The volunteers have the privilege of taking the land themselves, or assigning it to a substitute within a year, or of accepting scrip to the value of $80. There can be no question which is the most profitable choice. By taking the land, property at present valued at $320 is secured; but of course actual settlements are one of the conditions of the grant. This, however, will augment the value and make the grant a permanent and profitable investment. Those who assign their claims to land will probably realize half the present value of the land. One claim has already been sold for $100. Those who take scrip will probably realize $50 if they apply it to purchasing land; but less if they dispose of it immediately upon receiving it, and while there is a quantity of it on the market for sale.

DR. LOW'S PLEASANT WORM SYRUP is a safe and reliable worm remedy for all worms afflicting children or adults.

Catarrh—A New Treatment

Perhaps the most extraordinary success that has been achieved in modern medicine has been attained by the Dixon treatment for Catarrh. Out of 2,000 patients treated during the past six months, fully ninety per cent. have been cured of this stubborn malady. This is none the less startling when it is remembered that not five per cent. of patients presenting themselves to regular practitioners are benefited, while the patent medicines and other advertised cures never recover a cure. Blake and no other medicine now generally believed by the most scientific men that the disease is due to the presence of living parasites in the tissue. Mr. Dixon once adapted his cure to their extermination—this accomplished, he claims the Catarrh is practically cured, and the permanency is unquestioned, as cures effected by him four years ago are cures still. No one else has ever attempted to cure Catarrh in this manner, and no other medicine has ever cured Catarrh. The application of the remedy is simple, and can be done at home. The present season of the year is the most favorable for a speedy and permanent cure. The majority of cases being cured at one treatment, sufferers should correspond with Messrs. A. H. DIXON & SON, 305 King Street West, Toronto, Canada, and enclose stamp for their catalogue of Catarrh.—Montreal Star, Nov. 17, 1882.—52-V.

A MARVELOUS STORY

TOLD IN TWO LETTERS.

FROM THE SON: "29 Cedar St., New York, Oct. 26, 1882."

"Gentlemen: My father resides at Glover, Vt. He has been a great sufferer from Scrophulous, and the enclosed letter will tell you what a marvelous effect has had in his case. I think his blood must have contained the humor for at least ten years; but it did not show, except in the form of a scrophulous sore on the wrist, until about five years ago. From a few spots which appeared at that time, it gradually spread so as to cover his entire body. I assure you he was terribly afflicted, and an object of pity, when he began using your medicine. Now, there are few men of his age who enjoy as good health as he has. I could easily name fifty persons who would testify to the facts in his case. Yours truly, W. H. FARRAR."

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

FROM THE FATHER: "It is both a pleasure and a duty for me to state to you the benefit I have derived from the use of

Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

Six months ago I was completely covered with a terrible humor and scrophulous sore. The humor caused an immense and horrible itching, and for days created so much pain that I was unable to sleep. My condition began to improve at once. The sore has all healed, and I feel perfectly well in every respect—being now able to do a good day's work, although I was formerly a cripple. My condition has improved so much that I can now, and will, as I have before, tell you, you a Sarsaparilla. Glover, Vt., Oct. 4, 1882. Yours gratefully, W. H. FARRAR."

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA cures Scrophulous eruptions, skin diseases, Eruptions, Ringworms, Itchings, Pimples, Boils, Tumors, and Stragglings of the skin. It cures the blood of all impurities, and thus restores the system of the blood, and thus restores vitality and acceptance of the whole system.

KEEP COOL.

W. MARSHALL,

One of our citizens, has secured the Agency for Victoria County for one of the greatest and most luxurious novelties of the age, viz: the "American Chair Fan." To-day it holds a chief place in the most fashionable circles of American society. It can be adjusted to any rocking chair and turned in several directions, so that a baby in its cradle, an invalid in bed, or a friend by one's side may receive a part or the whole of the breeze. Fans and mosquitoes are kept at a safe distance. Certainly it is one of the most useful novelties ever introduced in the Dominion and no family should be without one. All orders to be addressed to W. MARSHALL, Lindsay. Agents wanted.—79-4

REPORT OF SPRING SHOW

Held at Manchester April 21st, 1885.

ON IMPLEMENTS :-

Your judges beg leave to report that they have examined all of the self-binders and would highly recommend all of them, but more particularly Mr. Sylvester's Minnesota Chief, Toronto Light Binder and the Little Bradford, in their order of merit as mentioned above.

(Signed,) W. C. HERON, W. M. TOMLINSON, } Judges
ED. WILLIAMS,

Manchester, May 1st, 1885.

I certify the above to be a true copy of the judges' book.

S. H. CHRISTIAN, Sec. Treas.

As the agents of the Chatham binder have been making a malicious attempt to deprive us of the chief honors awarded at the above exhibition by falsely advertising that no awards of judges were made, the above report shows conclusively that such award was made and that the Chatham binder was not noted at all, which no doubt deeply chagrined the gentlemen interested, after their elaborate display with the rooster. But possibly they are only following their usual tactics and further notice is unnecessary from us. We leave the public to judge.
