CANNINGTON.

OYSTER SUPPER. - Perhaps one of the most enjoyable among the several gathertendered by Mr. Hugh Wilson on Wednesday night, to the contracters and workmen, on the completion of his new residence. In addition to those, several friends were invited guests on the occasion; in all about seventy sat down to the fessive board, and attacked the bivalve in true Canningtonian style. The toasts of the evening were replied to in an able manner by the several speakers interspersed with which were several good songs, rendered in capital style, many of which brought down the house and were heartily encored. Among those present we noticed several gentlemen from a distance, who largely contributed to the en-joyment; noticeable was Mr. J. D. Mc-Murchy, of Lindsay, rendering in his peculiar happy manner a supposed dialogue at the Centennial, between the sons of old England, Scotland and Ireland, Mr. Wilson was congratulated on his business enterprise and cordially thanked for the pleasant entertainment. The guests dispersed about one o'clock, by singing "Auld Lang Syne" and "God Save the Queen."

OBIT. - It is our sad duty this week to record the death of one of Brock's earliest settlers, that of Mr. John Gibbs, who died on Wednesday last, at the advanced age of 73 years. The deceased gentleman was one of the early school teachers in this locality, and was much respected by all who knew him. The funeral took place from the residence of his son, Mr. W. Gibbs, on Saturday last, to the Necropolis, and was attended by a large

THERE was some surprise manifested in our quiet village last week, caused by notices to the effect that the Hon. Edward Blake was to de iver a lecture in the village Hall. The grits, however, were somewhat disappointed when the day vaccinatory process has caused a good passed without the arrival of any other than a gentleman in a buffalo coat, who went away again without any demonstra-

SURPRISE PARTY -Some of our es teemed neighbors managed to get up a surprise party to visit the house of Mr. Thos. Graham, of Fenelon. The party was not quite so successful as it was fair sex had got an inkling, that there was to be more than a "party" and as some of our maidens have an aversion to dancing, they would not come to time. However, those who had no compunctions of conscience on the subject, amused themselves thoroughly until the small hours of the morning, when they began to feel hungry. It was then to their dismay that the boys found that they had neglected to speak about eatables. It is to be supposed that if any cold potatoes were to be found on reaching home they (the potatoes) would be rather scarce in the morning. I should advise that gentleman to remember the necessaries next time. The same gentleman had shortly before disappointed a number of young people, whom he had given to understand he would drive to a revival meeting in his sleigh. We hope he enjoyed his party.

BAYSVILLE. ecial to The Warder.

This is a beautiful little hamlet in the centre of the township of McLean on the south branch of the Muskoka river near its efflux from Trading Lake or Lake of Bays. The site of the village was up a very late date a pine forest. Baysville possesses three hotels, half a dozen good stores, saw-mill, grist-mill, post-office with daily mail, a good school, three churches and two excellent steamers one the property of Mr. C. Marsh and the other of Mr. W. Brown late warden of the count of Victoria. Baysville is the paradise of anglers for speckled trout. Trout weigh ing 3 to 4 pounds are not unfrequently is also a favorite resort for hunters and tourists. The river is only navigable as far south as this point Dwight, The Portage, Colebridge, The Ox Tongue, etc., are reached from this point. Trading Lake is one of the handsomest in the world. It is about 15 miles in length from west to east and about 10 miles from south to north. Its bays, peninsulas and islands are unsurpassed. Several government roads diverge from this point, out leading to Bracebridge, one to Gravenhurst, one to Port Sydny and Huntsville and a fourth crossing the river here, estends east to the Bobcaygeon road at Cole-
