We gladly publish the able letter under the above caption, from the pen of Mr. Eyres Req., of Mariposa. The case seems a very distressing one, and the authorities have not at least neglected the unfortunate creatures. They should, however, be removed to an asylum. We do not believe it to be, the duty of any church, to feel obliged to relieve charity. Such cases as this, clearly come before the council. Of course, private as well as church charity, might readily be extended the aufortunates; but it should not be expected as a right.
