Under the careful tuition of Mr. Wilson it promises to be one of the fast horses of the age. RETURNED.-Mr. and Mrs. White have returned from the front, where they were visiting friends. On reaching home they were surprised to find their house adorned with that handsome piece of furniture, commonly called a sewing machine. We learn that Mr. White is no friend of those travelling agents, but still he must remember this, "To err is human; to forgive, divine." Now since the agent made the error in leaving the machine, surely Ben will have divinity enough to forgive him.
