This world-renowned periodical, in addition to its other great features, has now employed the LEADING AMERICAN WRITERS to describe THE RURAL LIVES OF OUR AMERICAN PRESIDENTS, nearly all of whom were reared on farms, or retired to them from active life, Donaid G. Mitchell (Ik Marvei), R. H., Stoddard, James Parton, Julian Hawthorne, Dr. Lyman Abbott, and others equally eminent, are now preparing these supplemental Historical Papers. They are to be accompanied with ENGRAVINGS, 22x13 inches in size, executed at large expense by our first artists, lilustrating the Rural Homes and Surroundings of our Farmer Presidents, comprising a magnificent portfolio collection for every house, rich and poor alike. These Special Papers and Special endravings will be of absorbing interest to all interested in country, life, and likewise constitute an important acquisition to the historical knowledge of the country.

PROCLAIM the glad tidings through the WARDER. The home of Wm. Henry Ferguson Esq., Manvers, is made brighter by the advent of a charming girl baby. Among the guests at the musical party held at the residence of Major Hughes, Manvers. were Mrs. Scott, Miss Emmaline Williamson and their brother Mr. James Williamson of Cartwright; also private Wm. Barton of Batoche fame. COWPER SAYS:

To stamp the marriage bond divine,

So in all probability thought Mr. Jas. Paul of Cartwright, as that gentleman on Wednesday the 16th proceeded with the proper and necessary retinue to the village of Millbrook where resides Gordon on last Thursday but was visible only to McKiver Esq., at whose home was tied the "few." Rev. John Ewing, Pres. Mount Pleasant grandtather in Her Majesty's ser and niece of the Rev. W. C. Windle, Pres., Manvers, for life to James. Among the Cartweight representatives present of this very important event in the life of James were Mr. Richard Egerton, Mr. Paul, Mr. Robert McKee, Miss Annie Paul and Mr Charles Gent. dence of Mr. George Bradburn, Manvers, on last Friday night.

Mr. Henry Werry long a resident of Manvers and a representative of the agricultural profession has with his family departed for his new home western Ontario. The parting of Mr. Werry from his friends who accompanied him to the Pontypool station of the C. P. R. will not be soon forgotten, some of them long after the train had left were powerfully affected. On Wednesday night March the loth a large party by invitation assembled at the residence of Mr. George Staples, Darlington. A number of respresents. tives of the Lotus elite were present.

LOTUS MARKETS .- General business in somewhat affected by the tightness of the times; receipts in grain not as large a they might be; supply of fresh eggs small, very little demand for those that have reached the years of maturity. butter fresh, receipts not large, demand steady, butter mixed with capillary substance, sales small; pork more than fair. There has been considerable excita ment over this article as well as keen competition about it. The supply in the Lotus market a few days since was very large comparatively speaking.

We understand that Mr. Alexander McCabe proprietor of the Lotus general store has transferred the business to a Mr. Ferguson of Toronto. Fair prices and fair dealing ought to secure for Mr. Ferguson a continuation of the patronage already extended to the establishmen referred to.

MR. James Hall, Cartwright, having accepted an agency for the sale of self binders and other agricultural implements has commenced operations in that new and untried (for James) sphere of action, success attend him.

Major. Hughes and family paid a visit to Darlington friends. The Major can enjoy life and is quite at home in the social element.

INDIVIDUALS in Cartwright have expressed a willingness to subscribe for the WARDER. See to the matter those presid. ing guenius of that paper by communicating with T. W. Robertson E q., Cadmus, small favors should be thankfully received; as the elephant said when the boy ted him on small chunks of gingerbread. NECESSARY steps have been taken to replace the stable lately destroyed by the Williamsburg fire and owned by the Cadmus, Pres., congregation. MRS. Mary Anne Holmes, South Manyers has to regret the loss by death of a first rate cow. WE have been informed that a new version of the Lord's Prayer for the edification of its readers spiritually inclined is to be seen suspended conspicuously in one of our Cartwright establishments but judg ing by the comments and criticisms expressed in relation to it we may unhesitatingly say that it will not be generally adopted in the Methodist churches.

MR. Henry McQuade for many years a resident of Cartwright, lately residing in Oro, has been visiting the old scenes so familiar if not dear to him.

By the death of one of his horses Mr. George Bartley, of Williamsburg, came to a somewhat heavy loss. We were inform ed that the animal was sick about half an hour when death supervened. PARTY given by Mr. Thomas Graham at his residence South Cartwright. There is a time to pray and apparently there is sufficient time to dance. MRS. Lougheed of Cadmus, has been very unwell. The hand of time presses heavily on her. MR. James Lawson, Cartwright, has brought into the township an imported and registered general purposed horse for the special benefit of the farmers of that township who are in favor of securing good stock in the line of horses. It is to b hoped that Mr. Lawson will succeed in this his first venture in the business. Miss Leane, teacher, Cartwright, his been incapicitated from the performance of her educational duties through rather severe attack of illness It is to be hoped that the young lady will before this appears be fully enabled to re-

MR. John Herron, eldest son of the late Wm. Herron, sen., is on a visit from Muskoka to Cartwright and Manvers

MR. James Nickleson, Manvers, has been suffering from a severe attack of congestion of the lungs. MR. Ferguson the new proprietor of the Lotus general store has created some as tonishment if not love and praise at the extraordinarily low rates at which he is selling goods. If Mr. Ferguson continus as he began it is likely that Lotus will become the centre of a lively mercantile MR. Benjamin Armstrong, Manvers, will soon take possession of lot 24, con.

It is rumored that Mr. Woods will occupy Birch Lodge, South Manvers, owned by Thomas Crawford, Esq., Cartwright. A VALUABLE mare ewned by Mr. John Movish, Clarke, departed this life a few days since, deeply regretted by the owner.

Thus friend after friend departs who has not lost a horse. Manvers and Cartwright readers of THE WARDER forget not the oyster supper to be held to-night under the auspices
