3000 REWARD.—For a remedy that will equal Dandelion Blood Bitters for Indigestion, Dyspepsia, etc., 25c per bottle at Higginbotham's.—13-2.

See To It.—Every voter should remember the assessors' lists are not the same as Dominion voters' lists. The names should be on both.

FREE.—On Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock a fire destroyed the dwelling of Mr. Sullivan on the northern border of the town. The children were alone when the fire broke out.

THINGS ARE GOING TO BOOM.—Next fall will witness more improvement in Lindsay than has any fall for years. Doctors of houses, churches, schools, &c., are going up.

30000 PAPER MILLS.—The new paper mills are now in working order. Business will begin next week. All the machinery and presses will be run constantly.

THE CORRECT VERSION.—"I often wonder how I am a Protestant, and so many of my connections belonging to the Roman Catholic church."—The Irrepressible Candidate.

BASE BALL ENTERTAINMENT.—Lindsay Amateur Dramatic Co., will appear in a new play in aid of the Lindsay base ball club, on Easter Monday evening, April 26th. Look out for programs &c.

STURGEON POINT.—The sale of lots at the Point is brisk. Parties from a distance as well as in Lindsay are buying. Book this beautiful spot will rival Chautauque, Wellesley Id., or Grimsby.

PAY UP.—We are pleased to state that many owing this office on paper and job accounts have acted on our request of last week and paid up. We hope many more will follow suit. Borrow the dollar and then you can read the paper with a clear conscience.

EVANGELISTIC MEETINGS.—The special services in the Methodist church, will be closed next Sunday night, in order that the church may take part in the union services which commence next week. The meetings have been a great success, and have resulted in much good.

LINDSAY IS BOOMING.—Few people know that right in our midst is an extensive industry.—Easton's hoop skirt and bustle factory, yet such is the case. Mr. Easton we hear employs about 30 hands. Lindsay is about becoming what she long ago should have been—a manufacturing town.

SPECIAL SERVICES.—Last Sunday night the Rev. M. L. Pearson commenced a course of sermons, on the events connected with the last days of the Saviour's earthly history. The subject was the "Denier." On next Sunday evening the subject will be "Judas the Betrayer." Evangelistic meeting at the close.

A PECULIAR LOSS.—Some weeks ago Mr. Patton of Ops, lost a buffalo robe in a hotel yard in Lindsay. The robe was in the rig when Mr. Patton entered the hotel with a lantern but on his return it was gone. Strangers to say it was found by the owner recently having been sold by the "finder" to Mr. Fee's livery stables.

EVANGELISTIC SERVICES.—Rev. F. Schiavone Evangelist Brooklyn, N. Y., has by invitation of the ministers of this town consented to conduct a series of meetings here, to begin on Sunday April 4th. Some union services will be held next week, by the ministers of which definite announcement will be given from the various pulpits on Sunday next.

NORTH BRITISH & MERCANTILE INS. CO.—This Company was established in 1809 and ranks with the best English companies. Its reserve and accumulated funds are equal to any one company. It insures all classes of property at current rates, and all losses are paid promptly on equitable terms. J. R. DUNDAS, Agent.

ORDERED MANTLES.—New management, perfect fitting garments guaranteed in every case. DUNDAS & FLAVELLE BROS., 141. DUNDAS & FLAVELLE BROS., C. P. R.—The new time of the C. P. R. is a very convenient for parties going east of Peterboro. The morning and evening trains from Lindsay both connect with the Canadian Pacific at Peterboro. Parties from Lindsay or Victoria district can secure tickets from J. H. Lennan second door west of WARDER office for all points on that railway.

"TO BE OR NOT TO BE."—St. Paul's Episcopal congregation of Halifax, the restoration of which has been vacant since he decided to call Rev. Weston Jones of Lindsay, Ont., a young man of 32, he being the first selection from a large number of applicants. The parish is the largest low church in the Maritime provinces, and the salary $2000 with a curate.

COLONISTS' TRAINS.—The Canadian Pacific railway has arranged to carry large parties, who wish to settle in the North-West or British Columbia, through by a fast train together with their home hold effects, farm implements and stock. Where a number of families are preparing to move from the same section, they should club together so to take advantage of this liberal offer. Colonists' sleepers attached to trains; berths free. Colonists' trains leave on March 23rd and 30th. For tickets and all information apply to JAS. H. LEXSON, and Agent C. P. R., opposite Benson House.—13-2.
