We are called on to announce the sad news of the death of Miss Sarah Scenes, news of the death of Miss Sarah Scenes, teacher, Cartwright, referred to heretofore in your paper. No WARDER at the Burton office on last Saturday but copies of it reached Lotus. It is supposed that the trouble is with the Pontypool distributing office, it such is the case and a repetition of the annoyance is perpetrated the proper authorities will have to be notified.

MR. Henry McQuade, of Orc, who has been for some time the victim of litigation and its accompaniment of botheration has succeeded in winning an important suit. The case was tried at Peterboro. The plaintiffs being one of our prominent loan companies it is altogether likely that this will be followed by other suits against the same company.

A DAUGHTER of Mr. John Brown, South Cartwright, is seriously ill. Three medi-cal gentlemen have been called in but the chances of her recovery are none the more favorable on that account.

Mr. Neeman, an agent of the Dominion Organ Co., Bowmanville, sold to R. Kers-cadden, Esq., Cartwright, one of that company's celebrated organs. Mr. Neeman, as an agent for organs, is no doubt a successful one, and quite at home in the business; but in horse trading and taking horses in part pay for organs he has failed to maintain on some occasions his reputation for shrewd discernment.

Mas, Charlotte Wate, daughter of T. D. Williamson, Esq., Maple Villa, Cart-wright, is visiting among Cobourg friends. Mr. Ayres, of Bobcaygeon, father of Mr. Robert Ayres, Cadmus, is visiting at the home of the latter.
