CANNINGTON.

Anour two o'clock a. m. on Monday last, two frame tenement houses at the station were discovered to be on fire, so rapidly did the flames spread that all hope of saving the buildings was abandoned and every effort directed to the saving of furniture, etc., which fortunately were snecessful, very little being lost, Mr. George Wheeler, of Uxbridge, is the owner of the property. It is not known if there is any insurance. The cause of the fire, as usual, a detective any It is one sad daty this

As accident which might have reto died on Thursday, April sulted fatally occurred on Monday der a long and poinful illness, last, Mesers, Hodgins & Henry, blacksmiths, were desirous of adding about three foot to their frame carople living in the vicinity of ringe shop, and in order to effect this stypool hotel did not have the roof was raised clear of the buildsecond slumbers on the night ing, the necessary distance. Some ay, april 80th, as the noise of the workmen were on the roof and others under, when without a moment's warning the roof swung away to the west, several feet coming down on the building with a crash; happily, however, without collapsing. Had it done so some would undoubtedly have been killed. Tue hotels and liquor stores did a rushing business on the last day of April, "Scotties" and "Antie" vied with each other as to who would lay in the largest stock of the eritter," the result of which was that never in the history of this place was there so large a stock of liquor stowed away in the cellars of private ndividuals, confirming to the letter what was predicted when the Scott act should come in force. And now we shall see what we shall see.

Special to The Warder. ST. MARY'S S. S.-The S. S. in connection with St. Mary's church, Manvers, will be opened next Sunday at 9 o'clock a. m. At a meeting held for the election of officers, lease Preston, jr., was elected superintendent; Robert Hannah, assistant superintendent; John Sisson, secretarytreasurer and librarian; Miss Lizzie Atkinson, Net Foster, Hannah Sisson, Mrs. Henry Time and Mr. E. Atkinson, teachers. It is now 28 years since this Sunday school was organized, and during that time it has always been conducted upon purely evangelistic principles. It is hoped the teachers will not only HEAR the lessons, but TRACH them, and that success may crown the labors.

VESTRY MEETING.-The annual vestry meeting in connection with St. Mary's church, Manvers, was held on Ractor Monday. The incumbent, Rev. H. F. Burgess, ecoupied the chair. The new wardens elected were, Mr. Wm. Sisson for the parson and Mr. Wm. Hannah for the people.
