But we have something else to talk about of great interest to your welfare and purse—how to save money. That causes everybody to do some thinking. But do not let it cause you any uneasiness. We have provided a way to put money in your pockets. Bradburn & Co's. large double stores must be empty in a few months, the goods must be got out, and look here —Canadian and Scotch tweeds we are taking 35c off each yard—a plum for you. A lot of white coats and vests and several other lines we will sell you $1.00 worth for 50c. Hats, Caps, Ties, Braces, &c., giving for a mere nothing, and in ready mode suits from 3 to 5 dollars for each suit. Ladies' attention! Our dress goods are cheaper than you ever saw before. Fringes, laces, collars, and all kinds of ladies' wear you can buy a large parcel for little money. Carpets, Curtains, Piano Covers, and all house furnishing goods you can make a clear gain of $1.00 on every $2 you spend. All the goods in the two double stores has to be turned into Cash. In your life time you will not get a better chance to buy your Summer Wear at such a saving as is offered by Bradburn & Co., the peoples benefactors.

But all this talk is of no avail unless you take the advantage and make us prove our statements by giving us a chance to show you what we can do for you, we invite your presence and will send you away with wonder and consternation, and a big parcel of dry goods as well. You will find the place opposite the Benson House, and the name of the Dry Goods Palace is Bradburn & Company, on Kent St., Lindsay.
