havitle does nothing but talk and plan
the future; but the worse of it is, so to we can learn, that is the policy purid for the last afteen years here.

Story Act Opprace. One night last at a choemaker in Peterbore was aloned by the crash of atoms through a windows and against the walls of his use. On looking out he new in the man Catholic school grounds opposite number of men. The throwing was in renewed until he called out that he is not the Stort Act informer—that that was lived near him. They then dealer. Such cowardly acts should be stamped to a tonce. No town should allow thing of the kind, and we sincerely he so one in Lindsay will so far forget limit as to commit any outrage or overt Ancovery.—It gives us pleasure to au-nounce the speedy recovery of Mr. Wm. Stineon from near Mount Horeb. By our specials it will be learned how he was almost fatally injured.

MINERY LOYSE COMPANY.—We notice, with a fellow feeling, that Bowmanville offices complain of the irregular delivery of their papers in certain country offices. Perhaps Inspector Sweetnam could help matters if called in !

FIRE AT JANETVILLE.—On Friday night last the steam griet mill at Janetville was entirely destroyed by fire. The wind, blowing from the north-west, carried sparks and blasing shingles into the village, nearly fring other properties.

SUDDEN DRATH.—Thomas Scott, Req., miller of Mount Pleasant, died suddenly last Wednesday morning. Mr. Scott was well and favorably known throughout Manvers, Cartwright and Darlington townships where he and his estimable family had many friends. Mrs. Scott and her children have the sympathy of the community in their bereavement.

Onange Meeting.—On Thursday even-ing last, L. O. L. No. 934, Lindsay, met in their rooms, when several new mem-bers were proposed, some degrees given, and other work of interest performed. It was decided that the lodge in full regalia-go to church on Sunday, 11th July.

OFFARIO TEACHERS' CONVENTION.—
The annual convention of Ontario teachers will be held in Toronto on August 10th, 11th and 12th. Among others we are pleased to notice that Inspector Reazin is to deliver an address. Subject,—Inspection of schools in new and poor townships.

SALVATION ARMY.—Lindsay, among other things may well be proud of its Salvation Army. That body now, thanks to the preservence and energy of the officers, has a very good bress band. At a distance the brasen notes mingled with the voices of the singers give a pleasing offect. The marching, too, of the soldiers, both male and female is good.

ORANGE HONORS FOR VICTORIA.—At

ORANGE HONORS FOR VICTORIA.—At the recent meetings of the Grand Lodge of Orangemen in Toronto Rev. Dr. Smithett, Omemee, was elected grand chaplain of the Order of Black Knights; William A. 1866.—"No. 2 in the rear rank in 1866" writes us in reference to a reunion of the old Lindsay company of 1866. We agree with "No. 2," such would be a very pleasing reunion. Several, to our knowledge are still to the fore, among them two of Victoria's most estimable citizens Capt. Adan. Hudspeth and Lieut. George Matthews. Colonel Deason, was, we believe, not then officially connected with the force, but acted as instructor.

DIPHTHERIA.—The drains around town need thorough cleansing. Diphtheria exists in a few places; but firm and strict must be the enforcement of the law in relation to the spread of that disease. There must be no "happy go lucky" sotion; no temporizing; no consideration of individual feelings. Diphtheria must be stamped out, and if landlords and owners will not keep their premises clean them the floard of fleatth must do it and charge the cost against the properties.
