FRIDAY, JUNE 25, 1886. Growing-A Temperance Song.

How do pinks and roses grow? Is it whickey, do you know, Sprinkled ever them each day, Makes them bloom so fresh and gay: No, so ; let me tell you, no ; Water maken the flowers you, Raindrope patter, dewdrope neatter to the fresh and cooling water Wets the leaves and roots, and lo! This is how the flowers grow.

How do grapes and apples grow?
Do they all nice juices owe
To champagne and beer and ale,
Showering down on hill and vale?
No, no; let me tell you, no;
Water makes the sweet fruits grow; Raindrops patter, dewdrops scatter : So the fresh and cooling water Wets the vines and trees, and lo ! This is how the sweet fruits grow.

fow do little birdies grow, Flying, singing, chirping so?
Are they fed with wine and rum,
In their dainty nestling home?
No, no; let mo tell you, no;
Water makes the birdies grow;

Raindrops patter, dewdrops scatter so the fresh and cooling water Wets their tiny beaks, and lo! This is how the birdies grow. Now do little children grow? Not by drinking rum, I know;

Brandy, eder, wine and beer Never make them strong and fair No, no; let me tell you, no; Water makes the children grow Raindrope patter, dewdrope scatter; Fountains fill and flow with water; See, they bathe and drink, and lo! This is how the children grow.

DRAW Editor, though you wield as saduence in the control of politics you esonot control the weather, also gonld we have you breathe one pleasantly phere that is well sigh meeting us. We are only just now waking up, Mr. Editor, to what an enterprising er. Editor, to what an enterprising little village this is with atoms whatles on every side dinning our care morning, noon and night. Mr. Meliab has just completed the agestion of his portable naw mill and is capitly shelling out the timber much being the place by giving employment to a goodly number of land; while our old standby Andrew Washington just a little to the east of the village, has made a big "out" this summer; he expects to finish his success? It large lot of logs within another mouth and a half. Andrew Patterson and his highly respected partner (who has taken up residence with ne lately) are looking pleased at the prospect of the season having alliented by P. C. South as manager.

fellows and are giving general satisfaction. Mr. Megwood has a full stock of hardware and boots and is doing a good trade. Mr. Cavana and Mr. Shields & Co., are good representatives of the dry goods and grocery line for a village like this; while Levi Washington has an excellent stock of furniture on hand together with all the outfittings required to carry on the undertaking business. Levi, is a first-class man and of to carry on the undertaking business. Levi, is a first-class man and is exceedingly reasonable in his prices—pardon me, Mr. Editor if 1 eay, the man that goes even to Lindsay for his furniture is losing money. The Plymouth brethren have purchased a lot in this village and intend building a church this summer. So eay, the man that goes even to Lind-eay for his furniture is losing money. The Plymouth brethren have purchas-ed a lot in this village and intend building a church this summer. So you see, sir, that we are not dead.

Expending Money on Roads,-Mr. J. Coulter has completed his contract on the 2nd quarter line in to viship of Bexley, which made a very satisfactory job. Men like J. Coulter should be represented by our municipal councillors more on such jobs. He makes a satisfactory work EXCITEMENT.—Mr. Albert Alton on seeing two bears made a grand rush for his gun, and captured one, which weighs 800 lbs. The other one is still at large.

Mn. R. J. Black is building an addition to his barn, and is rapidly getting things in right shape.

RETURNED .- Mr. A. Peel, of our section, has returned after an absence of a few days, and it is said by his companions he was seeing the fairest of the fair in the shady groves at Goodwood.

Our worthy councillor, W. Peel, is erecting a board fence along the front of his farm, which adds greatly to the look of his place.

LITTLE BRITA IN.

Special to The Warder, BASE BALL.—On Saturday a match was played between the Fingerboard club and the club here, resulting in a victory for the home club. The result was rather unexpected to some McTaggart, Forest Hill, Brock. sult was rather unexpected to some who had been forecasting it, as the risiting club was composed of good players for a rural club. Probably the victory for the club here may be acconsted for from the fact that they had given more attention to practice for the past two or three weeks than the whad done before, The "ducks," oh! I beg their pardon, the young ladies, towards the close of the game, appeared on the field with well filled back is, and at the close of the game tained by them on the field. On the same day, in the forenoon, the junior match with the junior club of Oakwood, at the latter place, resulting also in a victory for the Britain boys. BROKE DOWN .- On Saturday afternoon the bridge over the creek passing through this village fell down, or at least a part of it, necessitating a new one, or extensive repairs. Fortunately there was nothing on the bridge at the teme it fell. Cause of the collapse, rottenuess of the timbers.

BOBCA YGEON.

Special to The Warder, WE received a visit last Friday from the Victoria county council. Our brass band gave a moonlight excursion on the 17th inst. to Sturgeon Point on the steamer Esturion. The St. Alban's Sunday school pionic was held on the 17th inst., in the grove near St. Alban's church. The roman catholic picnic last Thursday was a success, though not so well attended as in previous sea-The church of England Sunday school, Dausford, pieniced here on the 17th inst. A number of fishermen arrived ouring the week, and if bait can be found there will be a great slaughter among the base for a few weeks. The indiane bring into the village about fifty makinonge per day. Tae largest fish Robinson, Scotch Line, It weighed 191 pounds.

The B beargeon cance club had their first meet on Monday, and though the wind was only very light some good sailing was done. Mr. J. T. Robinson acted as starter. He got off the four skiffs Gladys, Waubetta Peri, and Fearless about 4.30 p. m., the concess atting about ten minutes later. Only five canoes started—M. Collins' Lass, W. J. Read's Zip, A. E. B. trum's Myrtle, W. Hamilton's Peach, and F. Minns' Corunns. The tourse chosen was from Mr. Boyd's best beine, around a buoy off west bost island and home to boat house.

Mr. Collins finished first, Mr. Read record, Mr. Minns third. The others failed to sail the course. Mr. Kil-mer's skiff Gladys was first, Mr. Godfrev's Waubetta second, Mr. Hollo-min's Fearless third, and Mr. Gun-acius' Peri fourth. The next meet will be on Monday, 28th inst.
