Warder week, (causing a postpone, as glorious weather of silect of which was that a otopeople from a distance fact that the horses we stone ces at other points and come after the postponement after the postponement of representation of the letter.

is attendent on the post-off at the post-off a cheer the proud driver of reco meat Space will not permit Manto a detailed description of sold of the changing radiate of the formation of the consequent upon which meet affile eny ati the horses are well-and tes unous the furty some of make ords under 2.824, and even along the porally contested from start and horse doing the from he able to state that there exist this of any kind, and the ne people assembled was of erly character. We can be able to he harder. rird from any one present, al sold is the official record; copied and is the chicial record, copied? The shock is an element of the rest class of the rest class of the entries, air starting of element owners from idean owner; Presbyterian, of the last owner; Queen, M. Plank owner is a starting of the control of the farm of the l'au, & d'ahnaten owners el se ud. Win Meltas owner epff d ir heats in this race, Black same og first place in the three ruing the race; Volunteer Fon Mird. Time 2.31 or a said to said $20, 3rd $10 cod gar Wilt race, age, 4.5 There date tries and three startingers yabs and three startingers yabs and A. John Palmer owner; amost W licthour owner. Mand amand a fin three straights; Cientipersal Phil St John third. Time, a start of the list John third. Time, a start of the list John third.

the lat Suu, 2nd $25 and go delated.

There were never the Market and the Artinia, namely — Huckle and the Artinia, namely — Huckle and the Artinia and the Ar

All the ladies and gentle-part in the work descript Mr. Needler too, kindly

The Victoria Warder.

LINDSAY, ONT., FRIDAY, JULY 16, 1886.

Vol. XXIX.—Whole No. 1530

Where to Buy Fine Shoes. SMYTH&LDE

a Per Annum in Advance.

It is very well to please the eye, but we strive to please the legent also; a personal examination of our elegant stock of Boots will certainly convince all, even the closest and most careful buyers, that we are offering

GOODS AT LOW PRICES. goods warranted as represented. Please come and see what we have to offer.

T. G. MARLATT,

Red Front Shoe Store, opposite post office, Kent St.

IN REGARD TO

WATCHES.

Our special watches are the

Are the least liable to get out strongest, yet the simplest

Are the easiest and quickest repaired, at the least ex-

All the material used is

For neatness, beauty, symmetry, DURABILITY and

ACCURACY are unsur-

They combine the good points

BRITTON BROS.

FOR SALE.

A five acre lot, house and barn; also good well on premises. Corner Colbo, 16 and St. David streets, East ward. Possession given in October. For further particulars apply to MRS. GEORGE GLENESTER, St. Patrick st, East Ward.—39-tf.

RIVER VIEW FARM FOR SALE.

A LL THAT PART of west half of lot No. 24 in the con. of Ope lying east of Scugog river, about 53 acres. Land excellent, all cleared, no buildings. Also 35 acres of the same lot on west side of river. The east and west parts will be sold separately if desired. Land very desirable being pleasantly situated just outside the limits of the Town of Lindsay. Terms easy.

Also a number of handsome town lots for mic 13-4f. W. McDONNELL.

T. BEALL, LINDSAY,

GANADIAN PACIFIC RAILWAY

LICENSES

MARRIAGE

of all other makes.

strictly first-class.

in construction.

he Victoria Warder EVERY FRIDAY MORNING.

At the office EVAN'S BLOCK, KENTST, LINDSAY SUGHES, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. HORSE STRAYED. bout the 11th July a horse strayed into pout the fifth July a norse strayed into earlie undersigned. The owner can be proving property and paging all savertising, etc. JOHN PATTON, Freelon. 30-3. TEACHER WANTED.

a seed or a third class male teacher school at the Village of BAYSVILLE, doe at close of summer vacation. Ap-scalary wanted, to MOSES DICKIE, freasurer S. S. No. 1, McLean town.

WANTED. A achers for the junior departproceeding stating qualifications, well by the undersigned up to pices to commence on the fe-

CARD OF THANKS.

(Signed), WM. FAROUHARSON.

GRACE & MACMURCHY, O'LEARY & O'LEARY, H. B. DEAN, BARRON & SMITH, MARTIN & HOPKINS, A P. DEVLIN, MCINTYRE & STEWART, F. D. MOORE, JAMES HEA JOHN MCSWEYN, HUDSPETH & JACKS N.

Hearing Sale

1 MONTH.

Stock now in course of manufacture.

oom and Kitchen

Lounges and Chairs LATTRASSES.

Adret-class Stock of DERTAKING GOODS

all kinds

耳

0

OLD

AVISI

H

þ

The Glorious, Pious and Immortal Memory of William III, Prince of Orange.

The sacred rights these heroes gained,
In many a hard fought day,
Shall they by us be still maintain'd,
Or basely cast away;
Shall rebels vile rule o'er our land,
And sell to all the life of the same and sell to all the And call it all their own,
Oh surely no, the faithless foe
Must bend before the throne.

Then here's a health to all good men, To all good men and true, And when we close our Gates ag became vacant through the abdication of the servant of the Pope of Rome, King James II. The people of England then summoned William and Mary, Prince and Princess of Orange, the son-in-law and daughter of James II, to accept the throne and dignity of the English realm. The house of Orange had long been distinguished in history as upholders of civil and religious liberty. The Netherlands, the lowlands around the mouths of the rivers Dutch Republic" is one of the brightest spots of protestantism, though one of the Orange was the mainspring, the central one that furnished the directing power.

We need not dwell on the struggles pre-ceding the days of our own William III. of millions of money, and of thousands on thousands of lives, the freedom of the Dutch Republic was accomplished. In that struggle English men and English money played a prominent part. When William succeeded to the government of by the tyrannous cruelty of Spain; but by the more subtile aggrandizement of Rome, through Louis XIV of France, backed up by his able generals and indomitable soldiers. To strengthen the protestant power arch enemy of civilization and of responsible government overthrown, yet he paved the way for his successors to do it. Year in and year out he fought the French. As Smyth & Lee.

March 10th, 1986.—12.

March 10th, 1986.—12.

To the Editor of The Warder.

MR. FDITOR—Thanking you for the space allowed in your valuable paper, I would like to make a few more remarks, but do not wish to enter into any controversy. Mr. Lake referred to several mistakes which were made, among them being the wong use of the term "Mormon." Now, it was through no idea of gaining sympathy that this term was used, although I do not see why he should object to its being used, for he claims that the "Book of Mormon" and the Bible in and year out he fought the French. As an instance of his personal bravery in action, the following from Macaulsy describes his conduct at the battle of Landen: "Many fell on his right hand and on his left. Two lead horses, which in the field always closely followed his person, were struck dead by cannon shots. One musket ball passed through the curls of his wig, another through his coat; a third bruised his side and tore his blue ribbons to tatters. Many years later gray headed old pensioners, who crept about the arcades and alleys of Chelsea hospital, used to relate how he charged at the head of Galway's horse, how he dismounted four times to put heart into the infantry, how he rallied one corps which seemed to be shrinking:—"That is not the way to fight, gentlemen. You must stand close up to space allowed in your valuable paper, I would like to make a few more remarks, but do not wish to enter into any controversy. Mr. Lake referred to several mistakes which were made, among them being the wong use of the term "Mormon." Now, it was through no idea of gaining sympathy that this term was used, although I do not see why he should object to its being used, for he claims that the "Book of Mormon" and the Bible go together; by referring to Revelations, xxii, 18,—"For I testify unto every man that heareth the words of the prophet, of this book. If any man shall add unto these things, God shall add unto him the plagues that are written in this book." You will see what the result will be of those who add to the sayings of the Word shrinking:—'That is not the way to hight, gentlemen. You must stand close up to them. Thus, gentlemen, thus.' You might have seen him with his sword in his hand, throwing himself on the enemy. It is certain than one time, among the rest, he was seen at the head of two English regiments, and that he fought seven with these two, in sight of the whole army, driving them before him above a quarter of an hour." Yet, brave and intrepid as he was on the field, he was sagacious and far-seeing in counsel. More, too, he was firm, unbending and fearless in questions of principle. And it is that nature and these characteristics that have left their impress and example on the world, an impress and example which, coupled with those of his co-workers in the cause of liberty, both before and since his day, have given the world its advanced civilization. You will see what the result will be of those who add to the sayings of the Word of God. As Paul was willing to be called a fool for the sake of Christ, so am I perfectly willing to be called a religious crank. When John Wesley was preaching from the tollowing text, Matthew v, 11, "Blessed are ye, when men shall re vile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely for My sake," he told his hearers that he had been accused of all this but being intoxicated, an old lady in his meeting sug-been accused of all this but being intoxicated, an old lady in his meeting suggested that that was not so, for she saw him under the influence of liquor. "Thank God," replied Wesley. "my list is full." So, if John Wesley's list was full, then so is my list full long ago. I was brought up in the Methodist denomi-Therefore have Britons done well to honor a man worthy of all praise, both positively, for his personal worth, and negatively, in that he removed the blot of serfdom to Rome from Britain's throne. Therefore do loyal descendants of the English, Irish and Scotch men, as well as other nationalities, who stood shoulder to shoulder with him in his trials and victories do well to commence in fitting is full, "So, if John Wesley's list was full, then so is my list full long ago. I was brought up in the Methodist denomination, but I desire to belong to no better church than the church of the Lord Jesus Christ, by whom I was ordained. John Xv. 16, "Ye have not chosen me, but I have chosen you and ordained you, that ye should go and bring forth fruit, and that your fruit should remain, that what soever ye shall ask of the Father in My name He may give it you." I believe if life. Lake and his followers would be guestly blessed they would do with thair book what God talls the people to do in Acts xiz, 19, and take the Bible as their only guide, for God knows we have enough "lems." He refers to the Old Testament too in regard to "Wiedom," but I would refer him to the New Testament, James 1, 5, "If any of you lack wisdom let him ask of God that giveth to all men liberally and upbraideth n.t, and it shall be given him." If Mr. Lake were to go to this source and get wisdom, those forty or fifty souls would not be less of head religion and more of heart religiou is their midst. God says man's heart is desperately wicked and deceitful above all things, and He mys also, Son, give me thy heart. He will take our hearts of stone and give us a heart of feets, and write His laws upon it, and also Christ will will in us to de that we might do cell sound to the count of the strugiles of the countons in their will will in us to de that we might do cell sound to the long of the counton of the nationalities, who all occurred to the lord the nationalities, who all second and visual ask of the Father in My name He may give it you." I believe if life. Lake were to go to this source and get wisdom, those and there would be less of head the will be given him." If Mr. Lake were to go to this source and get wisdom, those and there would be less of head the period of the sould be less of head the latter of the strugiles of the counton were sould be less of hea six of them were the medals commemorating their valor at Batoche. That circumstance alone shows whether or not Orangemen are lip-loyalists only.

THE DAY AT BOBCAYGEON. At 7 o'clock the steamer Dominion and alace scow set out for Bobcaygeon bearing many excursionists under the auspices of Dunsford Church of England. Large parties were taken on at Ball Point near Cameron, Pleasant Point, and Dunsford. These windfalls of good luck, coupled with the splendid turnout from Dunsford made the church excursion a complete success. Cameron and Dunsford lodges of Orangemen, with their many friends were all on that excursion.

At 8.30 sharp the Lindsay district Orangemen under command of Master J. L. Winters and Marshalled by W. Woods marched to the steamer Eva which with a splendid awning covered barge was with a splendid awning covered barge was tastefully decorated. The lodges in the column of march through Lindsay were Lindsay junior O. Y. B., Fleetwood Orange Young Britons, Valentia, Hill Head, part of Janetville, and the two Lindsay lodges. With banners streaming and fifes and drums playing the column presented a fine appearance.

The sail down the river was enjoyable but when the lake was reached and the little Eva drew steadily alongside the Dominion after the latter left Dansford wharf, the excitement of both excursion parties was aroused. Steadily the race continued; yet steadily while in deep water the little Eva with her immense scow, drew ahead of her larger rival. Cheer after cheer rent the air as one or lowlands around the mouths of the rivers
Rhine, Mass and Schelde, the present
Holland, belonged in the 16th century to the kingdom of Spain. The "Rise of the was coming steadily on in rear, but seemed neither to gain nor to lose. At last when within a mile and a half of Bobcaygeon the Eva and her load were clearly in bloodiest and blackest on the page of his tory. In that history the family of were there, and her deep draught told were there, and her deep draught told against her. Steadily the Dominion gained as the river was entered until as the dock was neared the race was almost neck to neck. However, the Eva held Suffice it to say that after the expenditure her own and touched first, though the scows were tied up about the same time.

Amid the excitement of the race one could not overlook the great concourse of happy people on the wharves awaiting the several handsomely constructed arches alone, Holland could not long resist the all under command of Charles Fairbairn, and men if need be. As soon as the three excursions and he gladly availed himself of the powerful assistance his position as king of England would give him.

Though William did not live to see the dinner.

After everyone had appeased a hungry appetite, the lodges, each assembled around its own standard in the market square. When all was ready, District Master and Grand Marshal Fairbairn gave the order to march. As the procession passed through the place, over the various bridges and along the dusty streets the view was magnificent. The following lodges, not in this order however, were present.

address, showing the need of adhering to the principles of the order.

He was followed by Rev. Mr Farncomb, Episcopal minister, Bobcaygeon, who dealt chiefly in historical references, and deductions therefrom.

Next, Rev. M. L. Pearson, of Lindsay spoke. He showed how Orangemen had no feelings but those of love and pity for their Roman Catholic brethren, but he condemned the system of that church. He also enunciated the right and duty of ministers to take part in politits, not odge was large and had several staunch old Orangemen in the ranks including Mr. It also had a splendid drummer.

No. 121 'Bobcaygeon." John Foster, master; and Wm. Kelso, deputy. A good three cheers for the Queen, the speakers, etc., and marched to the boats. Next lodge and well appointed.

No. 996 "Fenelon Falls." Thos. Austin master, and Wm. McIntosh, deputy.
This lodge seemed to contain many very high in the order. They were large and handsome men, of whom Messrs Swanton, Austin, McDougall, McArthur, &c., are sweet music mere samples.

No. 541 "Burnt River." Sam Suddaby, master; Thomas English, deputy. This lodge had driven in all the way from Burnt River, therefore looked like veter-age in their coat of dust. They were a very fine manly looking lot of men, as any body led by Mr. Sam Suddaby would naturally be.

No. 42 "Fenelon Falls True Blues,"

Battle of the Boyne on shipboard, where there were dozens of Orangemen en route for Canada.

Chas. Fairbairn, Esq., proposed three cheers for Wm. Johnston, of Ballykilbeg, looked especially fine in their handsome outht. Their officers are P. C. Burgess, master; and R. Kelly, deputy. They came on the Paloma, and included many young men who played havoc among the affections of Bobcaygeon young ladies.

No. 557 "Lindsay" led by Thos. Mur-affections of Bobcaygeon young ladies.

No. 557 "Lindsay" led by Thos. Murtagh, master; and Jas. A. McWilliams, deputy, are so well known as to need no description. Some were heard to say that this lodge had a very handsome master, as well as members. There were a few Batoche medals in it also.

No. 539 "Cameron." This lodge as it approached, dressed in full uniform of Royal Blue jackets, and with a regular step at once showed its military air. On the breasts of several shone the medals for service in the North-west; while the faces of nearly all look familiar in the scarlet of her majesty's uniform. The lodge was led by Manley Maybee, master; one of Victoria's crack riflemen; with Gorden G. Townshend, deputy. J. P. Palmer and other prominent citizens of Cameron district were in the ranks.

No. 935 "Glenarm." Frank Dewel, master; and Jos. Black, deputy. This lodge, which includes a great many Scotchmen, dressed with much tasta. Each man wore a uniform hat trimmed with white blue and orange; a white jacket or shirt and black trousers. The members are fine specumens of the stuff loyalists are made of. They came and returned on the Palonsa.

"The turnout at Cannington was also unparalleled in the history of Ontario county Orangemen. Omemee and Emily district lodges visited Cannington as did also Little Britain and other West Victoria lodges. There were monster demonstrations on 12th July by the Orangemen at Ponty-pool, Belleville, Hamilton, Toronto, Cannington, and various other points, at all of which the utmost good feeling and loyalty were displayed. "Then here's to those that meet their foes, As men and heroes should, And let the slave steal to his grave, Who fears to shed his blood.

Lindsay High School Eintrance Examinera, with school at which local examinera, with school at which loc of fifty men in the ranks, among whom we noticed Mr. Stinson, teacher, and Mr. E. Olver. The officers are Thos. Olver, master; Hugh Nichels, deputy; and Jno.

No. 952 "Emily," J. H. Cassidy, master; Robt. Nugent, deputy; had many of Emily's finest sons in the ranks. This lodge drove in and bore traces of it in their dust covered garments, which only made them look more like business. Rav Mr. Pattyson, a veteran Orangemen, accompanied this lodge.
No. 510 "Valentia," under the lead of
J. Taylor deputy, as on former occasions, looked remarkably well. They drove to Lindsay in time to meet the steamer and deserve, with the Fleetwood and Janetville men, much credit. This lodge musters well on all occasions.

"Bobcaygeon" Orange Young Britons under Sam Hill master, were uniformed in neat caps, embroidered with gold lace, scarlet jackets also neatly embroidered, and black trousers with gold stripe. They looked remarkably neat, seemed well drilled and active. Their whole approximate was most exaditable to the vilpearance was most creditable to the village honored by the celebration.

"Lindsay" junior Orange Young Britons, in neat white jackets, headed the precessions and looked well. "Hill Head Lodge," was not present in body though several of the prominent members were in the ranks. Mr. Smith is the master. No. 934, Lindsay, with Joseph Brown, master presented a fine front. The members turned out strong, and reflectd much credit on their town. Indeed Lindsay may well feel proud of all her Orangemen.

The various district officers present

C. Fairbairn, district master, Verulam. J. L. Winters, district master; J. A. MeWilliams, deputy district master, Lindsay

Thos. McRoberts, district master; Mr. Cook, deputy district master, Fenelon. IN THE PARK.

Arrived at the park, Mr. Fairbairn was called to the chair, when he introduced the Rev. A. Wilson, Methodist minister, Bobcaygeon. That gettleman made a most telling speech in favor of the upholding of the Union, concluding by mov-ing the following resolution, which was carried unanimously.

"We, the Orangemen and protestants assembled in Bobcaygeon celebrating the Battle of the Boyne, hereby wish to enter our protest against the granting of Home Holland he found himself confronted, not arrival of the steamers. There were Rule to Ireland, believing that it will be detrimental to the best interests of our each bearing appropriate mottoes such as "God save the Queen," "Welcome Brethren," "No Surrender," "The open Bible," etc. There were also in waiting the was William's greatest aim in ascending the throne of England. He saw that, headed by the Bobcaygeon brass band and pledge ourselves to support them by means along Helland could not long resist the land common of Charles Feitheirn.

Fenelon Falls, seconded the resolution. Rev. Mr. Craigie, Presbyterian minister square where they were disbanded for Bobcaygeon, delivered a most appropriate dinner.

present.

L. O. L. No. 199, "Silver Lake." W.
Stewart, master; John Lambert, deputy.
A bronzed and hardy lot of stalwart men made up this lodge.

No. 96 "Dunsford." W. Graham, master; J. J. McCullum, deputy. This lodge was large and has beveral staunch.

the lodges going northward by carriage were given a "send off" and the celebration ended. The boats all reached home

It must not be omitted to mention Bob-caygeon brass band which discoursed sweet music during the day. Mr. Argue, of Janetville, proved himself a good drummer.

Abram Kennedy, Esq., of Ops, was present. Fifty-two years ago the 12th July he celebrated the anniversary of the Battle of the Boyne on shipboard, where for Canada.

Chas. Fairbairn, Esq., proposed three cheers for Wm. Johnston, of Ballykilbeg, Ireland, which were given with a will.

The True Blues and the Citizens' band reached home from Belleville at twelve o'clock midnight. They report a monster demonstration at Belleville. The turnout at Cannington was also unparalleled in the history of Ontario

Lindsay Public Schools.

INSPECTOR'S EXAMINATION. THIRD CLASS-JUNIOR,

Miss Holtorf.

COAL

Fresh mined Coal of the best quality, as usual; and cheaper than ever this year, at the Lindsay Lumber, Coal and Wood yard. Quality guaran-teed. R. BRYANS.

	THE COR TY COOK ! C
Skinne	er, Wm	26
Wilson	, Eddie	25
McGre	gor, Walter	.25
Morga	n, Reuben	24
Gladm	an, Everett	. 24
Middle	eton, Chas	. 24
Weldo	on, Isaac	23
Willia	ms, Arthur	. 23
Henly	Wm	.23
Stingo	n, Coplin	23
MeLa	nnan, Kenneth	29
Reave	s, Samuel	96
Skitch	n, Walter	99
McMi	llan, Bruce	90
Comm	nings, John	91
MaMn	irtry, Frank	91
MoSm	eyn, John	91
Thata	her, Charles	91
Ingle	Mark	9
Malle	Mark	9
Hasla	im, Walter	9
Elliot	tt, George	9
Bain	James	7
Sheri	dan, Wilfred	1
Hoad	ley, Walter	7
Soone	es, Stanley	1
Down	rey, Joseph	1
Cathr	c, John A	1
Armo	strong Seward	1
Carr	Wm	Ī
Hette	ger, Henry	1
Letty	Bertie	1
Dun	las, John	7
Reli	Iames	1
Booth	Jamesh, Geo Wm	1
Booth	h, Geo Baldwin	7
Now	man, Wm	1
Made	lison, James	1
Walt	tone House	1
Chang	ters, Harveyie, Daniel	1
Sand	ers, John
Carri	ie, Lachlin	• • • • •
Curri
1	Miss McSweyn.
1 0 22	1.7 T

Brown, Ida..... Hazelton, Eva Fee, Gertie. Martyn, Lillie Williams, Edith Touchburn, Lila King, Rose. Nixon, Mand. Pollard, Minnie Irwin, Mabel .. Winters, Mabel. Meier. Minnie Fair, Florence Waldon, Maria

Wallace, Stella.... Jackson, Minnie Widdiss, Edna Barry, Kate Cullon, Fred..... Pilkie, Albert

McMahon, Bertha

THIRD CLASS-INTERMEDIATE.

Edwards, Lila Gregory, Addie. Free, Priscilla Jewett. Eva Finney, Eva ... Hunter, Wesley McKay, Mary

McNeil, Chas Helme, Herbert

Perrott. Mary Valentine, Lillie (Continued on eighth page.)

have the "will to do and the soul to dare" what he who now peacefully reposes in Westminster did.

LINDSAY "TRUE BLUES" GO TO RELLE-VILLE.

Still, as the moraing of each twelfth of July dawns over the British dominious do loyalists rejoice in commemorating the logical representation of their number wear-ing the lower their number wear-ing the logical as members of loyalists rejoice in commemorating the logical as members of logi more charitable if the Methodist minister had come to me and reasoned about the matter before he denounced me before all the people. In conclusion, the word of God says, "By their fruits ye shall know them," which is love, joy, peace, long-staffing, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness, temperance; and against such meekness, temperance; and against such day whence dates the certainty of conseignment and of civil and the procession. Every many the procession in the procession in the procession. Every many the procession in the procession in the procession in the procession. Every many the procession in the p