THE LATEST EXCURSION TO TORONTO.—The Foresters' excursion from Peterboro to Toronto last Tuesday was well managed. It stands forth as the only excursion that started on time here, or left for home on time. We need only mention that Mr. Geo. Minnis was the driver of the engine, and Mr. "Bill" Rowden, conductor of the train. The actual running time from Lindsay to Toronto was two hours and ten minutes, including a delay of thirty-five minutes west of Uxbridge, at a gravel pit, and another of fifteen at Scarborough.

MILKADO.—This opera was presented in Lindsay last week by Templeton's splendid company. Indeed, there has been only one company here for years that could equal this one. But the all Lindsay audiences, the one greeting "Milkado" small, though select. The play in itself is a weak, silly thing, with few good points; but it is most attractive and pleasing when presented by such a magnificent company as visited Lindsay. We should be pleased to see it again here; but Lindsay houses do not tend to encourage good actors to return.

THE OLDEST ORANGEMAN.—The Orange Sentinel is publishing claims for the above distinction and among others we notice the following from Mr. John Irwin, sr., Lindsay: "I was in the Sentinel, that Bro. Wilson and Bro. Gowan are claiming to be the oldest Orangemen in Canada. I take the belt from both of them. I was born in Arva, Co. Owan, Ireland, in the year 1808, and was initiated in the year 1829. That makes me 78 years of age, and 57 years an Orangeman. I am still a member of L. O. L. 96, Dunsford, Co. Victoria."
