Special to The Warder Tue 12th was celebrated here in right loval and enthusiastic manner. lodges and visitors thronging in from every direction, and at one o'clock when all had arrived there was not less than seven thousand people as-sembled in honor of the occasion. The procession was a splendid page ant, and the observer could not fail to be struck with the ever changin solors of banner, costume and rega ogether with the martial bearing of the members, evidently vicing with each other. As to which lodge should bear the palm of presenting the finest appearance, and where all looked so well, a decision on this point would indeed be difficult. The process was quite a mile and a half long, and took about half an hour to pass a given point, and was composed of the following lodges:—Woodville, No. 32; Hartley, No. 1150; Emily, Nos. 952, 995, 646, 475, and Queen's Own 294; Omewee, No. 114; Omemes O.
