Mr. W. H. Hancock of Cambridge, was in town to-day (Thursday) on business.

Mr. James Denny, teacher, Bellevue, called at THE WARDER office on Wednesday.

Mr. Wm. Foster of Cunningham was in Lindsay and through Victoria County this week on business.

A large amount of district correspondence is crowded out of this issue. It will appear next week.

On Tuesday a horse belonging to a man named George dropped dead on the road, while being driven into town.

Geo. Matthews Esq., has reached home from his European trip looking if possible, healthier and happier than ever.

Master Bertie Smyth, who has been in Toronto under the care of a specialist, is, since his return, unable to be read.

Remember the base ball match, Bowmanville vs Lindsay at the Agricultural park this (Friday) afternoon at 2.30 sharp.

A. Ryley, Esq., clerk of Manvers, has returned from an extended visit through the British Isles and the continent of Europe.

Mrs. Weston, daughter of Lindsay's respected collector of customs, David Brown Esq., is home for a short visit under the parental roof.

Query! Who are to be the reform candidates for West Riding of Victoria in the Local, and for the South Riding in the House of Commons?

Your choice of 50 colored chamber sets at $2.25 per set, at Graham & Lee's—25-2.

Our band, twenty in number, joined Whitty and Port Perry musicians on the monster excursion to Peterboro last Wednesday. There were sixteen coaches well filled with passengers.

Mr. A. G. Henderson, proprietor of the Whitty Chronicle, with Mr. Campbell, of the same town, called on THE WARDER yesterday. Mr. Henderson reports business as brisk at Whitty.

George Preston, the lightning carbide curve pitcher, will occupy the box to-day in the ball game, Bowmanville vs Lindsay. Go and see him do the out and in shoot and double drop.

Last week we received a letter dealing with personal references. In itself the letter seems all right; but before publishing any correspondence we must know the name of the writer. It is our invariable rule.

A serious accident happened to Mrs. C. Y. Savers of Peterboro last week, while on an excursion to Stoney Lake. She entered the engine room to try her boy's clothes when her dress became entangled in the machinery. Her legs were both broken and she sustained other serious injuries.

It affords us pleasure to inform our readers that Mr. D. McMillan, well and favorably known as a teacher in Victoria County, will henceforward be local editor in the office of this journal. In securing Mr. McMillan's services we feel that the assistance of a most competent man has been secured.

The pleasant face of Miss Rose once more cheers her many friends in Lindsay. She has returned after a long vacation visit to friends in Victoria, Fort Erie, and other western points; and a trip per steamer down the rapids, and the St. Lawrence to Quebec, Montreal, etc.

Ladies, see Ritchie's new Flashes at $1.25 and $1.50 per yard in 10 different shades—35-2.
