An Open Letter to Swipes' Defender and Apologist— "Fair Play."

To Fair Play."

Sir,—You are the reputed author of a communication which appeared in The Warder of 20th August, under the caption of "Swipes and his critics," from which it appears that though nominally, at least, of the elect, you either have been deceived by Swipes' vapourings or you believe "because you love the lie," for notwithstanding your disclaimers to the contrary you are out and out a defender of villifier "Swipes." This is apparent from the whole tenor of your communication. You start by asserting "that Swipes is always pointed," "that his letters are based upon truth, and that no one can deny his charges in them against the inspector." Further on you express, with evident satisfaction, the opinion, that if he, Swipes, gets a chance you think he can take care of himself.
