FRIDAY, OCTOBER 29, 1886.

SONYA.

Special to The Warder.

MOVED AWAY.—Mr. John Broad has taken his departure to Toronto. We wish him success in his new home.

BUILDING.—Mr. Jas. Ferguson is building an addition to his house. An increase in the family a short time ago calls for more house room.....Mr. Wm. McCracken is also erecting a new house.

Corn of our farmers has not finished harvest yet.

Mr. Ronald McDonald has taken to himself for better or for worse Miss Mary Thorburn. We would advise some more of young men of this locality to follow suit.

VALENTIA.

Special to The Warder.

HYMENEAL.—Last week Mr. Warder, who has for some time been running Davidson's grist mill, led to the marriage altar Miss Mary J. Grills, one of Valentia's most promising young belles. The marriage took place at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. Mervin Grills. Rev. Mr. Allen was present, and did his part of the ceremony with his usual gracefulness. After the marriage Mr. and Mrs. Warder, accompanied by a number of relatives, enjoyed a pleasant drive. Returning from the drive the whole party did justice to the sumptuous tea prepared by Mrs. Grills.

NORLAND.

Miss Rebecca Ferguson, daughter of Mr. M. Ferguson, of this village, died in Toronto on Saturday, 16th inst. Her remains will be brought home to-night and interred to-morrow (Tuesday) in the Pine Grove cemetery. Her death is deeply regretted, and the bereaved family have the sympathy of the entire community in this their hour of trouble.

Mr. Isaac Sprung has removed from our village and will hereafter enjoy the country air.

Divine service will be held here on Sunday evening next (6.30 p. m.) by Rev. D. Perrie. As this gentleman is a great favorite with everyone we bespeak for him a large congregation.

Miss Foote has notified the trustees of this place that she will not remain as teacher for 1887. The trustees wished to re-engage her, but she has decided to leave.....Miss Sharpe, teacher at Beech Lake, is also giving up her position there.

Mr. Ross shot a fine deer to-day.

IRONDALE.

Special to The Warder.

Our worthy P. M. is superintending the addition of another story in height to his back premises. This is done to provide accommodation for the travelling public, the loss of which since the burning of Bell's hotel and the occupation of its premises by the Toronto Loan Co., has been severely felt. In Mrs. Barr the travelling public will find a most obliging hostess.

Mr. Jas. Flood has nearly finished his house, which is the best of its class I have yet seen. We hope soon to see him with the lady of his choice in full possession.

The reported marriage of the daughter of a Glamorgan resident to one of our Snowdon boys is said to be a canard set afloat by a disciple of Machiavelli, of whom there are a few in this locality.

It is said that the Toronto Loan Co. are about to resume work at their mines here. The erection of a boarding house is being hurried on as fast as possible, plant and tools are said to be on the way for use in the mines. Perhaps it would be as well to favor this corn grano salis.

Our literary society, whose meetings have been so pleasant and profitable, met last week to listen to a brilliant and profitable discourse from its president. Notwithstanding a neuralgic thaler, which had penetrated him for some time, he gave a splendid resume of the researches of Englishmen in the Asiatic regions. Many of the members of the society having stated that they would be busy for some time it will not meet again until the end of the year.

We are now experiencing Wiggins' storm, which has come somewhat late. As I write the house is shaken to the foundation by the wind, and the rain beats a heavy tattoo against its walls. This with the crash of falling timbers in the distance finishes pro tem. the chronicles of HYMENEAL.—A very pleasant event occurred in the household of Mrs. A. Best on the 5th, as Mr. A. Collins concluded to begin matrimonial felicity by a union with Miss C. Best. The knot was tied by Father Maguire in St. Mary's church. After the ceremony the bridal party drove to the residence of the bride, accompanied by numerous friends. Mr. T. Collins assisted the groom, while Miss S. Best waited on the bride. Both ladies were beautifully arrayed in brown satin, trimmed with lace of a lighter shade, and hats to match. Sumptuous repasts, dinner and tea, were partaken of, and some time after the latter the groom took his bride to her new home. The wedding presents were handsome and numerous, and accompanied by the good wishes of the givers.

The first party of the season was given by J. Morrison, and the young folks tripped the light fantastic toe and apparently enjoyed themselves.

JANETVILLE.

Special to The Warder.

ILLNESS.—Mr. John Burn, sr., our respected postmaster and council man has been ailing for some time past, but hopes are entertained of his speedy recovery.

SCHOOL.—The trustees of the Janetville school have secured the services of Mr. R. J. Mills for another year to take charge of the senior department of the school.

REVIVAL.—The Rev. Mr. Power has commenced a special service in the Bethel church, on the fourteenth line, and is preaching every night to a moderate congregation.

MILLING.—Mr. Robt. Armstrong's new grist mill will soon be completed and in operation, a want that is felt in this locality, especially among the villagers who have to get their flour from Lindsay.

ACCIDENT.—A serious accident befel a young man, formerly a resident of this place. Mr. John Marshall, who lives now in Ops, about five miles from Lindsay, while unhitching his horses at dinner time, one of them made a kick and struck him on the side of the head, leaving the mark of the cork of the shoe over the right eye and otherwise bruising the cheek bone, but he is getting better.

GOODERHAM.

Special to The Warder.

Mr. R. L. Hurd of Toronto is here inspecting his ranche and stock thereon. One of his employees left here a few days since in a hurry.

We are to have a cattle fair here on the 27th of the present month. To Mr. Chas. Way of this village and Mr. S. Kettle of Ursa will belong the credit of inaugurating the first fair in this municipality. Cattle buyers are confidently expected to be present, the fair being advertised in nearly all the Montreal and Toronto papers, as well as others. It is hoped that the residents of Glamorgan and adjacent townships will send in their stock and help to make the affair a success.

We understand that one of our merchants is about to sell out and retire into private life. Has he made his stake?

THRESHING is in full swing now. Mr. Elliott takes the lead this year. Grain is good and a splendid yield.

Our L. O. L. has not met this month; no quorum. Where was its acting secretary? Did the weather scare him? And the Irondale brethren? We want to see them here.

Mr. Jno. W. Graham is here visiting his friends and looking after his farm property. He looks well. Toronto evidently agrees with him.

Lumbering operations are beginning to look lively again. Two camps for M. Boyd & Co., and two in prospect for W. J. Trounce & Co. near here will make a good market for farm produce.

Our telephone, which has been laid up for repairs, is again in operation, and the boys will have a lively time.

LORNEVILLE.

Special to The Warder.

Quite a number of farms in and around this section have changed hands this fall. Mr. F. Miller is leaving the McEachern farm and Mr. Graham, from Hartley, moves in, in the spring. Mr. McInnes leaves the Reid farm on the fourth concession, and has leased the widow Campbell's property in the Glen. Also John Westlake has taken for a term of years the Whetter property, near Manilla. Mr. A. Shaw succeeds him.

Teams have been four or five sales in this vicinity lately, but things in general, with the exception of, perhaps, cattle, are rather dull. I attribute this to poor prices in general for all a farmer has to sell.

The heavy gale of wind of last Friday night uprooted one part of Mr. Best's barn, and he is now engaged in replacing it.

We had some heavy frosts last week, followed by quite a snow storm on Sunday. Those who had their mangolds still in the ground found them damaged considerably.

Mr. Donald McIntyre has re-opened his hotel, the late occupants have left to go farther north. As Donald is a genial, jolly good fellow, we bespeak for him a good run of custom.

One of our leading farmers, Mr. Christopher Anderson, has refitted his dwelling in first class style, in order to make it more comfortable for the winter. Now with a good coat of paint it would present a very handsome appearance.

Our worthy overseer should look after that gravel pit at the south end of the 6th, as it is getting unsafe for travel, especially at night.

Mrs. Bingham left last week to join her husband, late principal of our school, near Stratford. She also took an addition to the family with her.

WHAT we would like would be to read in THE WARDER that private apology of the inspector's to the Rev. Mr. Wilson.

WE were sorry to read in the last issue of your paper an account of the death of Mr. Alexander Hewitt. He resided in our neighborhood last year and was in every respect a very promising young man.

WAYSIDE JOTTINGS.

Special to The Warder.

JAMES Magill, Burton, sold to a couple of buyers from Clarke, 12 pigs, for which he received $101. This is the most satisfactory sale of grunters, to the seller at least, that has been effected for some time in Burton.

Messrs. T. Ivory and R. McQuade of Omemee, like the fox, have been on the trail after geese, hens, and the birds whose peculiar utterance, quack, is so strikingly expressive of what many medical aspirants are.

GAME shooting match to-morrow. Captains, R. Shackleton of Bunker Hill, and Jas. Brown, South Manvers. Twenty shootists have been called on each side, crack shots among the number. Mr. Ferguson of Lotus provides the oyster supper to be partaken of when the shades of night have fallen. Press forward, press forward, the prize is in view,

For the shooters that lose must pay for the stew.

DR. ALLAN of Janetville, Major Hughes, Balsam ville, Manvers, John Hughes Cartwright, and R. Kerrigan of Williamsburg recreated in a day's partridge shooting.

MR. A. McKee, Cartwright, had a valuable cow killed a few nights since by the blowing over of a straw stack.

MR. N. Just, head feeder for Meiser and Paul's steam thresher, fed while threshing for Mr. J. Grey, 60 bushels of barley in 15 minutes. In the morning of the same day he fed 40 bushels in 10 minutes. This same machine threshed for Mr. J. McKee of Cartwright 1060 bushels of barley and 120 bushels of oats in 9 hours and 20 minutes.

MR. R. Morrow, South Manvers, is retiring from the noble profession of agriculture; and consequently intends disposing of a large amount of farm chattel property.

CENTRAL MANVERS.

Special to The Warder.

PARTIE BIEN.—Brilliantly illumined was the house of mine host Mr. G. Kinkaid, and right heartily did he welcome his young friends under his paternal roof on the evening of the 15th inst., which evening he had set apart for a paring bee and general jollification. The young people worked well consequently paring a lot of apples, while jokes and witty sallies went the rounds enlivening the work and making the time pass pleasantly. Partaking of a sumptuous repast mine host took the cake from the manager of the Y. P. A. S. by opening the first dance of the season. After tripping the light fantastic toe to our satisfaction we returned home much pleased with our evening's amusement.

No doubt you will wonder at the circumstances as we do, but a man cannot be found on the country side whose name has been coupled with matrimonial alliances as that of our genial friend, John Somerville. This time the favored fair one hails from the suburbs of Omemee. We do not wonder much when we take into consideration his beautiful figure and smiling countenance, coupled with eloquence of manner, that he is such a favorite with the opposite sex. Divorces we never hear of, but how our hero gets married so often surpasses our knowledge. However, we must term him a much married man.

PERSONALS.—Mr. Richard Gillis, postmaster, Pontypool, is convalescent.....Mr. S. Beer is still under the doctor's care, but is recovering.... Two cases of whooping cough are reported on the eighth line.....Miss Sarah Somerville is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. Cavana, Cavan.....Miss A. Maguire, of Uxbridge, has returned home after a prolonged visit with friends in Manvers.....Miss L. Ingram has returned home from Uxbridge, where she has been visiting friends. .....Mr. J. Porter's sister, from Western Ontario, paid him a short visit last week.

SCRAPS.—Where was R. W. P. on Sunday?.....Who stole Tom's man? Time he was turning up now.....Snow on Sunday last.....Prayer meeting at Mr. F. Ward's on the evening of the 12th.....Grain is coming in fast. .....The dentist was much missed on Monday.

W. H. GROSS,

Dentist, Lindsay. Over 26 years' experience. If you want a set of artificial teeth that are beautiful, if you want a set of teeth that are durable, if you want a set of teeth that are comfortable, if you want a set of teeth that are life-like in appearance, if you want a set of teeth that will not irritate and make your mouth sore, if you want a set of teeth that are perfect in eating, speaking, and all other important particulars, go to Gross. Plates nicely lined with gold if desired. A full upper or under set from $9 to $25. Colored rubber plates (red or maroon) made for persons who want them.
