BRYNSON

Special to The Warbler. On Saturday, Oct. 29, one of the pioneers of Ops, the late John Moore, after an illness of four weeks died at his residence. Mr. Moore was one of the first settlers of this township, having, together with his father and two brothers, arrived here about the year 1868.

of Edward having to be kept at home; but pray why must all their brothers and sisters remain there too? Parents who send, or rather agree to let their children come to school occasionally, if they seem to make but little progress do not say they are too stupid to learn, do not call their teachers a slant, but in the name of justice give both teachers and scholars a chance.

BURNT RIVER. Special to The Warbler. Burns—Bears appear to be plentiful here, they have been seen quite frequently. Two were in Mr. Jones' field in one day. Game is plentiful, hunters say there are more deer about than for some time.

BEAVERTON. Special to The Warbler. LEVY—Mr. F. J. Griffin, who has been in business here for some time, has left and gone to Midland to carry on business there. The bright store across the bridge will be greatly missed. It makes, however, a good opening for another live man.

Thompson has sold his fine brick residence to the north of the village and has bought a lot on Mars street from Mr. Jas. Ritchie, where he intends erecting a fine dwelling next summer.

UNION'S CABIN.—This well-known play was presented to a large house here on Thursday evening of last week, but the acting was not first-class. Should the same troupe visit us again I don't think they would be very heartily welcomed.

WEATHER.—We have had delightful weather for the last two weeks. The farmers are busy with their roots, which they report to be an excellent crop.

MANSEVILLE

Special to The Warbler. PRESENTATION.—The following presentation was made in St. Andrew's church on Monday the 25th inst., at the close of the annual congregational meeting, by the rev. Mr. Gillies:—To Mr. Alexander McPherson:—

DEAR SIR,—Having heard with regret of your intention of removing from our midst to a distant part of our Dominion, we, as a congregation, feel that we are to suffer a heavy loss in your removal. For years you have been the main pillar of this church, using your utmost efforts and influence, regardless of time, trouble or expense, to promote its interests and sustain the gospel cause amongst us. We owe in a large measure our success as a congregation to your untiring efforts. As a neighbor you have always been kind, civil, and most obliging. As you are now in all probability appearing before us for the last time in the capacity of a ruling elder of this congregation and a trustee of this church property, we feel that we cannot allow you to take your departure without expressing our high appreciation of your valuable services in these offices; and now as a slight token of the esteem in which you are held in this district, I beg to present to you this watch, not only in the name of this congregation but also in the name of your friends and neighbors of the different religious denominations of Eldon. A spirit of willingness and liberality was manifested outside of this congregation as well as in it. As you are about to take your departure, let me assure you that the best wishes of the Eldon people for your future welfare will follow wherever in the providence of God your lines may fall. On behalf of St. Andrew's congregation and the people of Eldon generally, signed, JOHN GILLIES.

EDEN-MARPOSA

Special to The Warbler. Root Crop.—Now the exhibitions are over the farmers are busy taking up their root crops which are excellent, one man selling his so cheaply as to be almost giving them away; but the villagers hearts are made merry and they are thinking no doubt that his 'bed will be a bed in heaven,' as Pat would say.
