MOUNT MORER.

Special to The Warder.

Mr. John Hickson, jr., of the 14th of Manvers, is the boss hunter of this part. He passed through this locality one day last week with his two sporting dogs. He was laden down with partridge. We like to see John get a good bag of game.

Mr. Wm. Germyn has purchased a splendid farm near Dunsford.

Mr. John Deyell, jr., paid us a short visit on Saturday. He is looking well and reports favorably. Come again.

Thoroughbred Chester white hog for service in Mr. Horeb, kept by W. Elliott.

Who can beat it? Mr. Hugh Crawford raised carrots this year on his farm measuring 114 inches in circumference.

NORTHERN JOTTINGS.

AUCTION SALE. The auction sale of the farm stock and implements, the property of John B. Campbell, of Fencion, took place on Wednesday, the 10th Nov., at his homestead farm, lot 23, con. 2. The bidding was rather slow. The cause is attributed to the Scott act being in force, which prevented the appearance of the whiskey jug or keg that used to be so common at sales in bygone times, to cheer the drooping spirits of the buyers. Mr. Archibald Campbell, of Woodville, wielded the hammer as auctioneer in his usual skilful manner. We learn that Mr. Campbell has rented his homestead farm to a Mr. Gould, of Laxton, for a term of years. Special to The Warder.

Camposit has rented he nonestead farm to a Mr. Gould, of Laxton, for a term of years.

TRACHERS ENGAGED,—We accertain that the following teachers are engaged for the ensuing year:—Mr. J. B. Powles, of Powles' Corners, Fencion, has been engaged by the trustees of S. S. No. 6, Eldon, Palestine, for the ensuing year, at a salary of $850. We learn that Mr. Powles is an experienced teacher. Mr. Lachlan McDonald is engaged by the trustees of S. S. No. 8, Sandringham, Eldon, for the coming year, as successor to Mr. Silas Smith, the present teacher, who is highly spaken of by the ratepayers of that section as an efficient teacher, who is highly spaken of by the ratepayers of that section have made a good selection, as Macie a professional teacher, holding a second class certificate. Mr. Amith intends geing to the Lindsay high school to presente his studies for a higher cartificate, we all wish Silas success. Mr. stirchard, the popular teacher at Lognoville, is recengaged for the coming year at a good selection will not Mr. Ripchard more gentlemanly than their past teachers that they will not notice all the truffing things said by the scholars.

Obstructure.—It becomes our ead duty to chronicle the death of Mr. Robert ODDFELLOWS.—An Oddfellow's Lodge of Instruction is to be held here on the evening of Nov. 25th, when Bro. J. B. King, Grand Secretary, will be present, together with a number of others from a distance. The 25th of Nov. is the anniversary of the institution of the lodge in this place. A year ago the lodge started with a small number but they have been steadily increasing and now they are quite a strong institution.

ENTERPRISING.—One of our enterprising hardware markents. Mr. H. West.
