Pearson Mr. Patton is a most intimate friend. In the evening he accompanied another warm friend, Mr. John Dobson, to St. Paul's church. Mr. Patton is a genuine specimen of a good business man.

RECEPTION TO THE CHIEF—The 10:55 train for Peterboro, containing Sir John and Lady, remained for about 15 minutes at the Lindsay station, where an immense crowd assembled. As soon as the train came to a standstill an immense throng rushed in and crowded around, utterly preventing any access whatever. The Citizens' band played a few selections, and Mr. H. Headly, warden of Victoria county, on behalf of the crowd, read an address to the eminent statesman.

TIME FLIES—It will be only a matter of three or four weeks more, and my sale of coat prices will be finished. The sale has been eminently successful, far and away beyond my expectations. I have still a fine assortment of reasonable goods, and when you can procure them at cost price don't allow the cold for a moment to pinch you. Dress goods, mantles, shawls, flannels, blankets, combers, clothing ready made and on order. Full lines of all these in stock and at cost price. JOHN KENNEDY.—50-1

BOARD OF TRADE—On Monday last a meeting of the merchants and other business men was held in the Mechanics' Institute rooms here to consider the advisability of forming a Board of Trade. John Dobson Esq., was elected chairman, and Mr. H. R. Dean Secretary of the meeting. Mr. Portman manager of the Montreal Bank was energetic in calling the meeting and briefly explained the object and aims of a Board of Trade. Nearly all the prominent men in Lindsay attended and signed the articles applying for incorporation. The necessary papers will doubtless be received from Ottawa in a few days.

DEER HUNTING—Last week Mr. Stephen Washington of east Oakwood with Tom Warriner visited the hunting lodge of Mr. Eves and Levi Washington of Victoria Road. The camp is located in the north country where the deer product is mountain of rock. The visitors were honored in royal style by their Victoria Road friends, and the reverend gentlemen honored them by shooting a fine deer. The fun of making a band which of the game, for three miles gave sufficient occasion to the sport to make it interesting and instructive. The visit returns their hearty thanks for the kindly treatment accorded them.

ROY J. E. FINCH—The above named gentleman delivered a most interesting lecture on Temperance, last Tuesday evening here. The opera house was crowded, the audience being only 10c. Mr. Finch was gentlemanly in his remarks, and gave no uncertain count on the necessity for electors to stand firmly by principle in preference to party machine. The man who stood to party before principle was a coward. His elucidation of the duty of the citizen towards the constitution was clear and impressive. Mr. Finch has done much good in more respects than his temperance. Rev. Messrs. Jones, McNeill and Ferguson were read and accorded votes of thanks complimenting Mr. Finch.

MR. GRAHAM'S LETTER—Last week's Post contains a note from Mr. Graham of Mariposa, apparently denying our statements re the new club building. We have for some time known that the Post was hunting the country for equivocal news; but we thought Mr. Graham would lead himself to such practices. Will Mr. Graham kindly answer the following? (1) At the meeting in Oakwood, before the Post was sent out, in addition to the resolution on Temperance, was one proposing condemning remark interference or aggression? (2) Did not Mr. Graham himself tell the editor of THE WARDER, that though the part of the resolution dealing with remark interference was not published in the paper for the last meeting, and the "two things went hand in hand" and were understood to come up at the meeting? We think Mr. Graham will say "yes" to each of the above.

"BEST"—After all the froth, flurry and law over the town's "warehouse" from the old Victoria Railway company, it seems the Bond—that celebrated Bond—is not worth powder enough to blow it up.
