A FAIR NAME UNFURNISHED.—A story is going the rounds of the well-to-do farmers in Marvets, and Cartwright, as well as in all Victoria that if continued is sure to affect the fair name of a certain. The story is in effect that any farmer who gets more goods for less money in Lindsay this fall and winter than he ever could get anywhere else before. Now that story is affecting Lindsay for the better, and it is a true story. Farmers come along and see; but first consult our advertising columns.
