

THE GOLDEN LION,

ELECTION NOTES.

Electoral Union.

A union of the electors from both political parties with that of the electorate, for many years distinguished as the 'Independent,' who refuse to be belabored 'Conservative' or 'Reform,' preferring to support or condemn administrations men, or measures on their merits without regard to party, antecedents or political affiliations. This and all other political parties can promote the interest of the state (of their health and comfort) by buying their Dry Goods from the Golden Lion.

The Grand Old Man.

When Mr. Gladstone rose under the inspiration of human sympathy and recited an ancient tale of his wrongs, it was a still-life picture only equalled by the dreamy sweetness of wearing the comfortable and presentable clothing offered at the Golden Lion, at such prices as to make the combined sensations indescribable.

Requisition.

The Golden Lion requests the favour of a call from his patrons and the public during the holidays, to get the benefit of the bargains and hear what they intend doing for them during the winter months.

Dolmanetts.

Sling Sleeved Dolmanetts and Mantles in great variety and quality at the Golden Lion.

GRAHAM & LEE.—51-2. USEFUL INFORMATION.—The correct place, just now to spend half an hour both pleasantly and profitably, is at Kennedy's, where you can get your pick and choice of his dry goods and clothing at Cost Price. This is a rare opportunity, don't let it slip.—52-1. NEW DESIGNS OF FIRE-PLACES.—There are hundreds of new forms of gas burners being introduced, many pretty ones for instance. One of the most popular is of brass and iron with a number of imitation legs of wood thrown over it; this gives the appearance of an old fashioned wood fire. The new designs are in the form of animals of all kinds. One of the most unusual represents Satan standing in the midst of a furnace blowing out flames of fire from his mouth; another is a toad which sits on the hearth-stone and sends a flame of fire from its mouth. Then there are little fire clay cabins that are set on the hearth-stone in the midst of a garden made of same material and represents a house on fire. Everything imaginable is being represented. These fire-places as described will heat any room required, also it is a cheerful bright fire and burns only from 10 to 20 feet of gas per hour according to size, and unless I miss my guess before New Year's is past there will be some gay fire-places in some of our merchants' houses. J. SMITH. Gigantic Sale of American Rubbers and Overhoes.—The season's contents of 67 cases of American Rubbers and Overhoes at bankrupt prices. IF YOU WANT to see and hear something that will astonish you drop in at "The Fair," G. A. Weese's old stand, and see the new Ward regarding boots and shoes.—51-2. OBITUARY.—On Friday last a large funeral followed the remains of Mr. Richardson of East Oakwood to the Riverside cemetery, Lindsay. Death was the result of injuries received about six months ago from a horse falling on him. Mr. Richardson, at the time of his death, was 50 years of age, 29 of which he had lived in Mariposa, and was a staunch Liberal-Conservative. The sorrowing family have the heartfelt sympathy of all in this their hour of trouble. THE CANADIAN PACIFIC RAILWAY, always with the comforts of the travelling public at heart, offer the following very liberal arrangement for Christmas and New Year's holiday travel:—Return tickets at single fare between all stations on its line. Dec. 25th, 1886, good to return till Dec. 27th, 1886, and Jan. 1st, 1887, good to return till Jan. 3rd, 1887; and at fare and one-third Dec. 23rd, 24th and 25th and Dec. 30th and 31st and Jan. 1st, 1887, good to return till Jan. 4th, 1887.—52-1. ELECTRIC LIGHT.—We learn from Mr. J. W. Quinlan of Port Hope that Electric Light is being considered a tangible thing in Lindsay, the "Consumers Gas Co." having decided, after two weeks' consideration, not to put in a plant. The "Lindsay Electric Light Co." will, therefore, put in a fifty light plant as soon as some can be secured from the "Ball Co." in Toronto. Orders have already been placed with the "Co." for a number of lights by our merchants. We trust the scheme may be carried to a successful issue. We hope that our "city fathers" will see their way clear to give us Electric Light on the streets. Driveways. Unfermented grape juice for sacramental purposes at Parlane's.—50-11.
