REFORM MEETING. — The reformers at their election news.—The grits are busy at their election on this township, while the grit candidate is circulating. Mr. Bescham was chosen chairman. Mr. Dean was the first speak. chairman. Mr. Dean was the first speakor called. His speech consisted in maligning the editor of THE WARDEN. Mr.
Melatyre showed forth particularly what he had done for the temperance cause.
Two of his supporters from Grant's were other, one being unable to walk straight (too much temperance). At the close of the meeting, there not being enough good reformers to move a vote of thanks to the apeakers, the chairman had to move one, and then no one seconded it until he was going to put it to the meeting. Three cheers for John Cruess finished up this

"THE SCRIPTURE READINGS,"

DEAR WARDER —

Would you kinply allow me a few short remarks on a pemphlet which I have just received bearing the above caption and synot, by Rev. Dr. Dewart of Toronto, In it I find the following questions pro-tons of disease and those which affect its cause. The first are as useful as palliatives, the second, if a genuine efficacy, produces a radical cure. To the letter class belongs Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Dyspeptic Cure. Thoroughness of oderation is its special attribute in all cases of Biliousness, Costiguess. Indigention, Kidney Compa Grand Master to dwell with him forever. Costivness, Indigestion, Kidney Complaints, and Female Weakness. To Bro. W. A M.
