the point, Mr. Alex. Smith was chair nior department of the Public school was closed for the year on Monday evening in a very pleasant monner A few minutes at this meeting also. In point of number before 4 o'clock, when p eparations for there was little if any difference at either dismissal were being made by both teacher and pupils, a couple of hoys went forward, one of whom read the following address, the other presenting the teacher, Mr. Rennie, with a hi, hly ornamental silver tickle dish. Following is the address:-To Mr. Rennie, -- Dar Toucher, -- We, your pupils of the Oakwood Public school, embrace his of portuni v at the close of the present year to thank you for the decided interest you have taken in our welfare during the past. Your untiring zeal for our advancement and kindness in helping us have endeared you to us. here present you this gift, desiring you to accept it, not for intrinsic value but as a We had a good meeting here on Friday small token of the esteem in which you are held by us. Our sincere decire is that you may long live to use it, and that your whole life may be a continual sunshine. We all join in wishing you and your family a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year. P LITICAL -The meeting in the hall on Friday evening was well attended. Alterests of the Conservative party an invithe opposite party to take the platform for form stripe were present, one or two of whom made themselves conspict us. But they did not run the meeting. They were compelled by their opponents to do what their own common sense should have led them to uo. The school question was ably discussed by Mr. J. L. Hughes on Saturday afternoon. The people here are beginning to see that there is something in the school question after all. The fact that they are paying thousands of dollars more every year for school bo ke than they have any right to pay, ought to open the eyes of anyone who has an interes: in the welfare of our country. The Post cor, of this place would like to make the readers of that paper believe that " conservatives here have not much heart over their weak candidate and no doubt after Me Blake's inecting here their show will look small" Now we think that individual, himself, must be unconceivably small to get such nonsense as this into his head, but to write down such trach and send it for publication in a paper, is rition in in the extreme. Dies he think Mr. Blake will carry away the conservaling Vill looks first rate My all ill others within half a mile must of tipes? There seems to be a necessity for moresity be dum', as in the presence of Mr. Blake or someone to come her, to try to set things right, and our friend Mac, has such faith in the leader of his party, and an hamezing ignorance of the men he cells conservatives that he chi de ishly imagines that the great Mr. Blake by a single speech lasting two or three hours will turn most of those whose views were previously unfavorable to his. We have heard Mr. Blake before, and we have read a great deal about him in the newspapera, We remember about reading of his opposition to the hanging of neighb ring section. The presentation newspapers, ing of his opposition to the hanging of its made on behalf of the school by two its made on behalf of the school by two its girls, Ethel Walters and Lizzie its girls, Ethel Walters and Lizzie its girls, Ethel Walters and Lizzie its will explain the Riel question that he will explain the Riel question when he comes. However, we venture to state that the number of conservatives here after Mr. Blake has gone will be at least one hundred per cent, of what they were before he came.
