

SUPPLEMENT TO
The Victoria Warbler.

LINDSAY, ONT., FRIDAY, DEC. 31, 1886.

HIGH SCHOOL LINDSAY.

One of the best Educational Institutions in the Dominion of Canada.

GRAND LINE FAMILY.

Special to the Warbler.

OBITUARY.—It is our sad duty to chronicle the death of Mr. J. Dewan, which took place on 22nd inst. at the family residence. Mr. Dewan was a victim of that fatal disease consumption, which carried him from this world of care in the prime of his life. He was 34 years of age. He had been ailing for some time previous to his death. The funeral took place on the following Friday. His remains were interred in the Downsville cemetery. Much sympathy is felt for the bereaved family.

PURCHASED.—Mr. T. McQuade Jr. has bought of G. English a bobby cutter, also Mr. R. Adams. Long drives for the ladies this winter.

Mr. T. Powers has had the painter and paperer working at his house for the last week. A wedding expected soon.

HEXLEY.

Special to the Warbler.

CHURCH OPENING.—On Sunday and Monday the opening services and tea in connection with the new Hexley Methodist church were held, and passed off to every one's satisfaction. On Sunday eloquent and appropriate sermons were delivered by Rev. J. C. Wilson of Peterboro. to large audiences. The collections were very liberal, and the pastor, Rev. E. Eves, rightly felt much pleased.

On Monday afternoon the corner stone of the edifice, left out on purpose, was laid by Dr. Wood of Kirkfield, assisted by Revs. Messrs. Eves, Wilson, McKee and Anderson. In the evening tea was served at the commodious residence of Mrs. Staples, and the good things provided reflected the highest credit on the culinary ability of the ladies, married and single, of the locality. Among those whose names we received as being active in the good work in the immediate vicinity are:—Mesdames Staples, Peel, Davey, Peel, Brentnell, Coulter, Staples and others.

After tea the audience repaired to the church where, after calling Mr. Sam Hughes of Lindsay to the chair, addresses were delivered and choruses rendered to the instruction and edification of the people. Rev. Mr. Eves, the pastor, gave a few introductory remarks characteristic of his genuine whole-souled nature. Rev. Messrs. McKee and Anderson each spoke in a strain to give assurance that they thoroughly understood how to reach the hearts of the young men as well as the young women of the country, while the lecture of the evening, "Signs of the Times," by Rev. J. C. Wilson of Peterboro, was alone worth the full price of the entertainment. Mr. Wilson reviewed at length the signs of the times, all tending to show that a premium is now being placed on Manhood, and that it is everything now to be a genuine, noble specimen of Christian man. The music on Monday evening was by the Cobocok choir, and was excellent. On Sunday the local choir performed similar noble service, and also deserves praise. It is also worthy of note that in ten minutes before delivering his address, Rev. J. C. Wilson received subscriptions entirely clearing the church of debt, with a balance towards the erection of a new shed. The handsome sum of $151 was realized.

Among those there present now resident in Victoria county but who formerly resided in Manvers, Clarke, Darlington, Cartwright or other of the townships of Durham and Northumberland, may be mentioned Messrs. or Mesdames Peel, Magwood, Levi Washington, Davey, Coulter, Brentnell, Benson, Bailey, Hughes, Waru, and others.