HUGHES VS. COULTER.—To the Editor of THE WARDER: SIR—Referring to item in your last issue headed "Highes VS. Coulter," purporting to be a report of a proceeding taken by the town against Dr. Coulter, in part of the grains and the public during the holidays, to get the benefit of the bargains and hear what they indeed the proposed.

Said what was not true and we'll end the matter.

HUGHES VS. COULTER.—To the Editor of THE WARDER: SIR—Referring to item in your last issue headed "Highes VS. Coulter," purporting to be a report of a proceeding taken by the town against Dr. Coulter, I beg to state that the same is intentionally misleading, if not gratule tously wrong. It is quite true that upon the hearing of the case of the town of Lindsay vs. Dr. Coulter for an alleged offence against the Public Health Act, there was conflict of evidence between the prosecution and defence. The evidence won of the two witnesses for the prosecution, namely, Dr. Burrows and Dr. McAlpine, was conflicting, while that of the three medical gentlemen who gave evidence for the defence, namely, Drs. Coulter, DeGrassi and Kempt, agreed. These facts sppearing, His Womship could not do otherwise than dismiss the action, and express, when delivering his judgment, that he could not hold that this was a case of diphtheris. It is a matter of regret that any reports should be misleading, especially when the opinion of medical gentlemen of the town be put in question. And especially does it seem an injustice that a declaration which was not in evidence upon the trial of the action, and therefore foreign to the issue, should be reported. How this declaration was obtained, though expressed as a voluntary declaration, you may possibly surming the public during the holidays, to get the benefit of the bargains and hear what they invested the process of the town of the case of the town of the case of the town of the two witnesses for the process.

The Golden Lion requests the intensity of the case of the t

Mr. Richard Lees, Principal Model
School, Linctony:

DEAR Sin, In effering to you this slight token of our regard, we your pupils of the model school, desire you to accept it as a recognition of your faithful and efficient labore, as a mark of our sincere personal regard for you, and as a memento of the kind relations that have always existed between us, but which, to our deep regret, are now to be severed.

We are not ignorant of how great the demands have been upon you, of your duties in the Model school in addition to those in the high school, but we can bear witness that your labor in both capacities have been increasingly successful.

It is an opportunity given to few to judge of a teacher from the standpoint both of a scholar and a laborer. But this opportunity has fallen to many of us, and we are glad to place on record our esteem for the sound training that we have received at your hands as scholars and taschars, and our hearty appreciation of the standpoint taschars, and our hearty appreciation of the standpoint seems of the sound training that we have received at your hands as scholars and taschars, and our hearty appreciation of the standpoint taschars, and our hearty appreciation of the standpoint seems of the sound training that we have received at your hands as scholars and taschars, and our hearty appreciation of the scholars and taschars, and our hearty appreciation of the scholars and taschars, and our hearty appreciation of the scholars and taschars, and our hearty appreciation of the scholars and taschars, and our hearty appreciation of the scholars and taschars, and Far-relly, former pupil of Loretto Academy, has passed a very successful examination at the Normal school, Toronto, having obtained a professional second class cer-tificate grade A, with honors. Those Oakwood Meetings. — Mr. Geo. Graham has not as yet answered our questions relative to those Oakwood meetings. We are somewhat trouble to know why? But perhaps he had an object in view in writing the lying letter to the Post. Mr. Graham and the Post may as well know that their lying scheme shall be exposed. The people of Oakwood know we gave a true statement of facts; and they must face the music. The matter could not have been stirred up only on account of the gratuitous attempt to injure this journal. Come friend George, make the Post somit that you and it said what was not true and we'll end the matter.

The Lindsay Meeting.

Last evening not having anything new or interesting to read at home, we made up our mind to attend the political meeting, where we were assured there was to be a grand display of local talent. Arrived and seated we found our worthy townsman, Mr. Dobson, in the chair, and Mr. Hudepeth engaged in making a speech which we gave particular attention, as it nificant or the notorious Jack Barron. was the first we ever heard him deliver, not approve of, and still think had better not been said, yet it was after all a very fair speech for the occasion. If he did not convince he was at least interesting, and his gentlemanly manner contrasted wonderfully with the opposition. After Mr. Hudspeth had spoken about an hour, Mr. Barron was told by the chairman that he had three quarters of an hour to reply, and he spoke for him a patient hearing. But the gentlemany as sothoroughly wound up that he could not run himself down in less than an hour, though he made a desperate effort to do so by talking so fast that he dazed not only himself but the audience It was painful to witness so much wasted energy in effecting an abortion, gun that was supposed to be loaded to the muzzle with all manner of deadly shot, wasted energy in effecting an abortion, and though we listened attentively and and though we listened attentively and spent a sleepless night trying to take it in, but the drift of that wonderful tirade of mere words and legal jargon is now as uncertain and incomprehensible as ever.

Mr. Barron came forward in a manner that showed he telt himself master of the situation. He was not abashed, he was positively elated and self-possessed in a remarkable degree. The flush of triumph was upon his cheek before he had spoken a word. He knew exactly what he was going to do for he had come fully prepared for it, and he seemed to have only one fear and that was he would not have time to pour out those long pent-up streams of which and any right in one prove the yields.
