PRESENTATION AND ADDRESS. - The pupils of S. S. No. 5, Fennell, presented their teacher with a beautiful bible and photograph album, together with the following address: -

To Mr. John B. Powell:

DEAR TEACHER, - We, the pupils of a school section No. 5, having learned of your prospective removal from us, availed ourselves of this opportunity to express our very deep regret and sorrow at our intercourse during the past four years, has been to us at least most friendly and pleasant. Now that this relation of teacher and pupils is to be broken, we desire in some way to express our appreciation of your very valuable services and at the same time assure you of the high esteem in which you are held by the entire school. Your kind and Christian manner in conducting the school has been apparent from the beginning. The interest you have always taken in our intellectual welfare has endeared you to us in such a way as no words of ours could express. We believe you have honestly endeavored to help us in laying the foundation on which we may safely build the superstructure of a virtuous and useful life.

You will please accept this bible and album, not so much for their intrinsic worth as an humble token of our sincere regard. We would also pray that similar success may attend your efforts in the future, and by and by when life's work is over, we wish you an "abundant entrance" into God's kingdom. Ever following you with our prayers and good wishes, we wish you for the present a most grateful and affectionate farewell. On behalf of the school,

MIRIAM G. MOINES,
MAGGIE J. SMITHERIN.

DEAR SCHOLARS,

Words of mine cannot adequately express my feelings on the present occasion. In my endeavors during the past few years to instruct you in the common branches, I have honestly endeavored to do my duty towards you. The position of teacher in a school of from forty to seventy pupils has its discouragements; it also has its encouragements. Nothing would be more gratifying to me in our last meeting together, than to hear your expressions of approbation; and to find that as year after year sped away the passage of time only served to strengthen the bands of friendship between us. I thank you for the many little acts which you have performed from time to time, making my work lighter, and showing me that you believe in the sentiments contained in the following lines: -

"Little deeds of kindness: little word of love,
Make on earth an Eden, like the Heaven above."

I thank you for the beautiful presents that you have so kindly presented. I shall prize them not for their money value, but as a token of the esteem and affection in which I am held by you all.

In conclusion I pray that in the future God's best blessing may attend you, that you may in early life be led in that way, which has the promise not only of the life that now is, but that better life which is to come.

Wishing you a merry Xmas and a happy New Year, I bid you for the time being farewell.

JOHN B. POWELL, teacher.
