PRINCE ALBERT.

PRESENTATION .- Mr. John Langdon, the able teacher of the Prince Albert Publie school, having tendered his resignation as teacher and severed his connection at the end of the past year, the scholars pre-sented him with an elegant dressing case and beautiful Christmas card and address, as a token of their esteem. Mr. Langdon is liked by his scholars who regret his departure but wish him prosperity in all his undertakings. The scholars of the ju-nior class presented their teacher, Miss Sullen, with an elegant cup and squeer, a beautiful ('hristmas card and ad dress.

CORSON'S SIDING BEXLEY. special to The Warder,

Sonoot En this place was held on Thursday afternoon, 28rd inst. A goodly number of parents and friends were present and all expressed thomselves as being well pleased with the progress made and the work done during the year, which is nearly over. A most interesting feature of the examination was a spelling-match among the pupils, which caused a great deal of excitement. A programme had been prepared, and after intermission, with Mr. Decater acting as chairman, the children gave recitations, a reading and a discloque, and sung several Kindergarten songs very lustily. An amusing recitation was given by Eddie Wilson, entitled, "The Sale of Old Bachelors," which was well received. Nellie McFayden, on behalf of some of the pupils, presented the teacher, Miss Angus, with a handsome gilt framed mirror as a Christmas box. Locking at the happy faces and thinking of the kind hearts a person would be led to exclaim with the poet (Shaftesbury):

"Kind hearts are more than coronets," well pleased with the progress made and the work done during the year, which is "Kind hearts are more than coronets.

And simple faith than Norman blood.'
The present teacher has been re-engaged at an increased salary.

The Sunday school social in Lamb's hool house was really a very lessant entertainment, and much credit due to the superintendent and teachers PRESENTATION. A beautiful clock was aceday. Due 22ud, by the parents of the children, as a token of their outcom for the very able and good manner in which he has conducted the school for the past the has conducted the achool for the past two years. The presentation was made by Mr. James Lamb, who addressed the aroughet school house in which a great number of the parents were attending the acamination. Mr. Stimon replied in miliable terms, and in the meantime many of the children shed tears at parting with their kind teacher. Miss Weldon, the teacher, was present, as was expected, was the quest of Mr. R. Lamb, or is expected that several of our young in the ricinity will attend the High

HUNTING.—A few of our experts went down to Harvey to hunt deer, and after arranging their camp all started out to try their luck. But on finding some deer tracks they parted company as is the custom their amongst the rocks. Mr. J. McGes and Mr. Emerson theirs as Co. No. I was so intent on their pursuit went to far from the camp and it got dark and a snow storm came on, so they had to enub for the night, while their comredes were very uneasy about them kept firing shots at intervals all night. In the morning the bove came to camp all right. They had heard the shooting but they could not manage to get out, and so they had to give up the hunt for want of ammunition and go home without any venteen. Never mind boye try again next year.

FRICHS.—We notice some of the neigh-bore are removing their fences from off the read allowance. This was very seed-ful, and would be a public benefit if others would go and do likewise.

WHITE PINE BALSAN

Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Bronchitis Whooping Cough, 1088 of Voice, Asthma

Forsome time past I have need WHITE PINE, BALSAM in my own family and for the prisoners in the gaol, and I cansafely say it is the best thing for Coughs Colds, &c., that I everused. ANDREW JACKSON, Gaoler, Lindsay.

Positively the best thing I ever used for Coughs and Colds is WEITE PIES BALSAN. D. RAY, Lindsay. Father and myself derived more bene-fit from Whits Pine Balsaw than from anything we ever used. ANNIR CAMP BELL, Lindsay.
