

BUSINESS CHANGE.

A CARD.

Having decided on retiring from the active management of my business, I beg to return my sincere thanks to the general public for the liberal and unwavering patronage extended to me during my business career, covering the very long period of over twenty-nine years. I have taken my son into partnership, and henceforth the management will devolve on him. The new firm being possessed of ample means will be in a position to buy on the most advantageous terms, and therefore can furnish their patrons with goods at prices as low if not lower than any house in the trade.

INTRODUCTORY.

NEW FIRM,
NEW LIFE,
NEW PRICES,
AMPLE CAPITAL.

DRY GOODS,
TAILORING,
CLOTHING,
GENTS' FURNISHINGS.

In making our bow to the public we assure them that our best efforts will be directed towards procuring the most reliable goods in the market. With capital sufficient to enable us to buy for cash, we will be prepared at all times to secure the cash discounts and to take advantage of special offers made by manufacturers and wholesale men to cash buyers, and the profit thereby gained we will liberally share with our customers.

By strict attention to the requirements of the trade, always keeping to the front with the newest styles and novelties, and with unexcelled facilities for the general conduct of our business, we hope to merit your confidence and receive an increased share of your favors.

A Happy New Year

To all my friends and patrons,

Also to those who are not yet customers, but for their own interest as well as mine should be, and hoping the circle may largely increase and the friendship already existing become stronger during the coming year. While thanking all for the patronage of the past, I again wish you in every sense a Happy New Year.

In preparing for another season's business, I wish to say that unusual efforts will be made to accommodate every desire of my customers to furnish them with such a stock that will contain every variety, style and quality (trashy Goods excepted) that the market can provide. During the time that will increase until Spring Goods arrive I will make it to the advantage of all my customers to purchase what they require in the BUYS & SUES LINE from me, as they shall have Winter Goods very cheap, and some lines less than they are worth. CASH will be the order of the day.
