Outpure,—With deep regret we chronicle the death of Mrs. Wm. Mc-Callans, of this place, who died on the 6th inst. She leaves a husband and six small children to mourn her loss. Mr. McCullum has the sympathy of the whole community in his and froing hereavement. and and trying bereavement.

Gone is another dear,
Gone from earth away,
Gone in blies to appear,
In realms of enclose day,

Obildren, do not grieve; Thy mother is not dead; The's now she doth becenve, She's only gone about.

Muchand you are ead; The lose you deeply leel; Remember joye are had From Him, the would doth heal.

It you do faithful prove, Your loved one then you'll see, In realms of endless love, In elect evernity.

LIFFORD,

Jorrings.—Mr. John Mills is home after three weeks of a visit in the north feeling hearty. He says Fencion Falls is just the place only it is a little icy.....Mr. Fowler is improving in health, he expects to be able to saw wood soon.....Miss Fowler, the Post mistress, gave her house a complete finishing searcher of the now house and has moved into it, he intends to build a stone foundation under it in the spring and have it veneered. He has also built a frame stable for his little solf, Letty correspant norms is the topic of the day here, they are going ahead of polities correlate. Richard Wilson has a heautiful chestout team of bloods that he refused the handsome sum of $350 for. He can drive them at the rate of twelve miles an hour corresponder Harry Time is working in Ourponter Harry Time is working in his shop this winter turning out a number of rigs. His work takes the lead, don't fail to call and place your order. He purchased a fine driving mare (Black Jenny) from Mr. John McKee, he says for beauty and fast travelling she is second to none in

COLLING WOOD.

POLIFICAL.—The fact that the Dominion elections are so near at hand has caused the political areas to be thoroughly alive. The prospects for the Grit candidate are, to say the least, discouraging. Mr. Anglin, editor of the Catholic Tribune, Toronto, is the Rielite candidate for this constituency. The people of this riding are not anglin' after him, although Mr.
Anglin thinks that his anglin' in this direction will be sure for victory. He parture from this place was given an oyster supper. He has gone to take a prominent position on the other

SERVED RIGHT. -As a freight train SERVED RIGHT.—As a freight train was running on the Barrie line of the If. N. W. on Sabbath last, two of the care ran off the track, tore up quite a lot of the rails and wrecked one of the care. The company had better keep hely the Sabbath day.

GEO. E. Morrie had a fit, in Bradford, a short distance from here, on Sabbath evening last, and it took four men to held him.

According.—A couple of girle, who

Men to held him.

Accident.—A couple of girls, who were hanging on to a sleigh the other day, were run over by another sleigh, which was just behind them as they jumped off. They were not badly hart, but terribly frightened.

COROCONK.

It is some time since Cobosonk has been noticed in your very interesting columns, but glad to inform you we are here and prospering. Work in the woods is going shead in fine style, and already the river banks and yards at depot are fast filling with logs, cord wood and other products of the forest, and no doubt the sturry workers are long will have a good substantial lining in their pockets.

Mr. Barron was with us last wednesday night, and says Oleomargarine is made out of dead cate. He did not give us the receipt to menafacture the article, but he certainly knows how. He also in his very docile manner made an attempt to instill into the minds of the listeners that the country was on the verge of ruin. Special to the Warder.

Oner.—Mre. Lapp, mother of Mre. Robt. Staples, departed this life Jan. 80th, at the ripe age of 91 years. Mrs. Robt. Staples is very low and feare are entertained of her recovery. Stokense.—There are a great many in and around the village on the sick lies.

Solving, was Codenic friends.

Business in a healthy condition at the Codenic store. Mr. Wateon is still attentive to the wants of his outtomers, and he keeps his stock up to a very good standard.

Miss Eine Roberts, of Port Hope, is visiting among Cartwright friends.

Miss Susan Ginn has returned have been her visit among Manvers.

The raffle for the fancy team of carriage ponice, owned by Mr. Wm. Coulter, of Pontypool, that was to some off on Wednerday, Feb. 2ad, has been postponed to March 1st,

I shall also weigh lite's anchor,

I shall also weigh file's anenor,
I, too, drift upon the tide,
The day you shall say to others,
It was yesterday she died.
One day I shall know the resting,
The prophete, angels, tell,
And the joy of heavenly greeting;
One day it will all be well.

How appropriately the above lines might have been quoted only a few days since by her who, safe from life's days since by her who, safe from her scarce, temptations and sorrows, is calmly sleeping in the sold and silent grave, death's long, last sleep. We refer to Miss Annie Paul, second daughter of Mr. George Paul, lot 22, con. 21, Cartwright, who died at her father's residence on Tuesday morning, Feb. 1st. The deceased was only 16 years and 10 months old, and up to almost a year ago presented all the external indications of health and strangth, and was for her age a and strength, and was for her age a fine specimen of womanhood. Last winter she caught a very bad cold, form of bronchial affection; and though excellent medical skill was the disease would not be checked, and after many months of patient suffering, death claimed poor Annie for his own, who in his was well liked, and who, we believe, has not left behind her one single enemy. On Wednesday, Feb. 2nd, is spite of the very inclement weather, a comparatively large funeral procession followed the remains to their last recting place, in the burying ground of the country of the place, in the burying ground of the country of the place, in the burying ground of the country of the country, where Acrice to Consumptives.

On the appearance of the first sympton—as general debility, loss of appetite, pallor, chilly sensations, followed by night-sweats and cough-prompt measures for relief should be taken. Consumption is a scrofulous disease of the lungs:—therefore use the great anti-corolula or blood purifier and strength restorer,—Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery" superior to cod liver oil as a nutritive, and unsurpassed as a poeteral. For weak lungs, spitting of blood and kindred affections, it has no equal. Sold by druggists the world over. For Dr. Pierce's Trentise on Consumption, send ten cents in stamps to World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y.
