Laying Tile Drains.

Letter to Country Gentleman.

I notice a great deal about ditching in your paper of late, and as I have had a great deal of ditching to do myself (having cut and laid 5,000 feet of tile drain from March 1st to June 1st, 1886), I give you my experience as far as it goes.

Many people complain of the choking up of their drains, but if properly put down they ought to last and work perfect for a lifetime. In the first place, on account of expense, farmers are apt to get their tile too small. Secondly, they are often not leveled properly. If 2-inch tile (say two inch) be used, there should be a sole of boards underneath, because it stands to reason that some place in a distance of any given number of feet will be softer than others, and of course the tile on the soft place will settle down and cause a depression in the line, which will fill with sand, especially fine mica particles, which will obstruct the flow of water and cause the drain to choke at that point, and consequently all about it. Now if a sole of boards is laid underneath, they can not sink.

My way of putting down long ditches is as follows: In the first place I level my ground to get the proper fall, lay it off and stake the line of ditch. Then with a good pair of horses I run off the ditches with a furrow plow twice in each row, which cleans and throws it out tolerably well. Then I change the horses to a subsoil plow with long double tree, with chain attached, and long jockey stick to run up and down until the proper depth is reached, men following after, each one, and with narrow-blade shovels removing the loose earth. I use the common long handled shovel cut down to six inches in width, which is plenty wide enough for any ordinary drain. Then scrape the bottom with a hoe or drag, six inches wide, to smooth it and give the water an even flow. Then lay boards the whole length and lay tile on boards, one man to lay the tile and hold in place while another fills in some earth to keep them stationary. After the whole line is laid fill in with the 2-horse plow. I use 4-inch strips for the bottom. Our ground is mostly black surface soil, with subsoil of gravel and potter's clay mixed, impervious to water, and almost as hard as concrete, so that a man can hardly get a sharp pick into it; but I find that the subsoil plow loosens it six inches wide and three deep in every passage through the ditch.

This is my way of putting down ditches, and if anyone has any better, I should like to hear—I am always willing to learn. G. H. S.

BELLEVUE.

Special to the Warder.

WEATHER.—Since my last we had a big thaw here, and the beautiful has almost entirely left the fields, still their is tolerably good sleighing on the roads.

ENTERPRISING.—Callahan Bros., of near Downeyville, are setting up a portable saw and shingle mill on the shore of Sturgeon Lake, at the end of the concession line, which will be very handy for the farmers around who want to get lumber and shingles sawn, and who do not want to go all the way to Bobcaygeon.....We hear that Mr. R. Gordon is going to start a shingle mill also at Emily creek bridge. So putting all together we will be pretty well done for in that line.

THE Baptist congregation of this place have called for their pastor the Rev. Mr. Mint.

THE correspondent to the Post, from the Scotch Line, Verulam, had better mind his own business in future. If he wants to say anything, let him come along personally and no more of his mean insinuations.

GLENARM.

Special to the Warder.

AUCTION SALE.—Although the day was a very disagreeable one, quite a large gathering attended Mr. Morrow's sale. His stock was in good condition, and was sold very reasonable. Mr. Morrow retires from farming.

MR. A. McIntyre intends selling by public auction, on the 24th, his stock, implements, furniture. He has some very good animals to sell. Mr. McIntyre intends removing to Cunningston, as he is retiring from active work.

REMOVAL.—Mr. Hollingsworth has moved to the Campbell farm, Hartley, which he has leased for a term of years. He was a rare from Hope farmer. We wish him success.

MR. Rickaby, having purchased a bankrupt stock, is now prepared to give immense bargains. First come, first served.

MR. D. S. Ince, having moved to his new home, has sold his house in the village to Mr. G. Staples, who intends doing carrying on business on a larger scale than formerly.

MR. A. Stone has returned home from the lumber woods, having lost one of his horses while there, which was quite a loss to him, as it was one of his best horses.....Mr. T. Ferguson has also returned home and looks well after his winter's work.

INGOLDSBY.

Special to The Warder.

ELECTIONS.—We in this place had the pleasure of hearing the Mr. Cameron address the electors of this neighborhood, in No. 2 school last evening, when he very ably and satisfactorily discussed the questions of the day. He was followed by Mr Gould of Coboconk, who made a few remarks, asked some questions, brought up the old Riel horse and tried to ride him, but did not get on very well, and so sat down. In Mr. Cameron's reply, he so satisfactorily answered all questions, and so clearly explained all scandals that his opponents try to bring against him and the conservative party, it ought to convince his most bitter enemy. We here are sure of Mr. Cameron's return to parliament. We trust there is enough true hearts to uphold the flag that braved a thousand years. Long may it wave over us. God Save the Queen.

For Nettle Rash, Itching Piles, Ringworm Eruptions, and all skin diseases, use Prof. Low's Sulphur Soap.—59-4.

West's Cough Syrup stops tickling in the throat, stops that hacking cough and gives perfect relief; it is certainly worth a trial. All druggists.—59-4.

The standard remedy for liver complaint is West's Liver Pills; they never disappoint you. 30 pills 25c. All druggists.—59-4.

"An Old Saying."

"Try, try again" is a very old saying but it is nevertheless a very good one, and if you have been trying and trying to get something to cure salt rheum, ulcers, sores, burns, scalds, or blotches, and have been unsuccessful just try one more ointment, and let that be Johnson's All Healing White Ointment, and your verdict on it will be "complete success." The astonishingly healing powers possessed by this Ointment are unequalled, as a trial will suffice to prove 25 cents per box at Higinbotham's drug store.-d-1

The Dead Cannot be Raised, nor if your lungs are badly wasted away can you be cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery." It is, however, unequalled as a tonic, alterative, and nutritive, and readily cures the most obstinate cases of bronchitis, coughs, colds and incipient consumption, far surpassing in efficacy cod liver oil. Send ten cents in stamps for Dr. Pierce's pamphlet on Consumption and Kindred Affections. Address, World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y.

Prohibiton and Politics.

The anti liquor question is a strong plank to ride politics on, and one safe to lay hold of. All intoxicating beverages are safest when let alone, even in medicine. Burdock Blood Bitters is not a bar beverage, but a strictly pure medicine, reliable for diseases of the stomach, liver, bowels, kidneys and blood, and will not aid in making drunkards.—61-2

From Manitoba.

In a letter from James Irwin, Beaver Creek, Manitoba, he says "I was taken ill last summer with a very severe pain in my back. By using one bottle of Hagyard's Yellow Oil I was completely cured." Yellow Oil also cures lumbago, rheumatism and all external and internal pains.—61-2.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of Cutting Teeth? If so send at once and get a bottle of "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup" for children teething. Its value is incalculable. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers; there is no mistake about it. It cures Dysentery and Diarrhœa, regulates the Stomach and Bowels, cures Wind Colic, softens the Gums, reduces Inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup" for children teething is pleasant to the taste and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. Price 25c. a bottle. Be sure and ask for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup," and take no other kind.—16-1y.
