

THE TORONTO DAILY WEEKLY MAIL

Without exception the leading journal of the day... The Victoria Warder

FRIDAY, APRIL 29, 1887.

VICTORIA WAGON ROADS.

Would it be amiss for the Board of Trade to discuss the subject of gravel roads for Victoria? The county council at its June session is to take up the question...

INCONSISTENCY.

While Canadian and Ontario politicians are passing buncombe resolutions about people oppressed and not free, would it not be well to test their sincerity by introducing a recommendation to Mr. Mercer to bring Quebec forth into modern civilization?

REFORM TACTICS.

In the recent election we were charged seventy-five times in one night with being a "hypocrite" because we had that day been introduced to a gentleman named O'Donohue who came here to speak in support of Mr. John Macdonald's government...

WHY THE RECENT DESPERATION?

From various reliable sources we learn that the chief cause of the desperation of many of our opponents to defeat Mr. Hudspeth last week lay in their determination "to drive THE WARDER from Victoria."

THE HOME BILLS.

One contention of those opposed to the December campaign to Mr. Mowat has been granted by the Ontario government. The school law has been altered to allow the Holy Bible instead of the Roman edition to be used in the schools.

WHY IT IS.

The reason why the Fraser-Ross-Lynen wing of the Grit party is so hard on THE WARDER, is that through the primary action of its editor and Mr. James L. Hughes, of Toronto, the people are gradually being aroused to see that the public school system of Ontario is being disintegrated, and that most dangerous aggressions on the domain of popular education are to be met.

A NEW FACTORY IN LINDSAY.

A button factory is about being established here. J. W. Wallace is at once to erect an extension northward about fifty feet from his woollen mills, for Mr. Nicolle and others, as a button factory.

"THE HOME RULE" DEBATE.

On Tuesday night the debate in Ottawa on the Curran bill closed.

THE CRIMAS HILL FOR IRELAND.

The above bill is before the British House of Parliament. Resolutions condemnatory of it have been introduced into both Toronto and Ottawa legislatures; and buncombe speeches made in support thereof.

SWIPES' LETTER.

With the able letter from Swipes, in this issue, we cannot entirely agree. The conclusions anent the gentleman from Oakwood we think to be hastily drawn.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The Ministerial Association of Toronto recently waited on the Minister of Education anent the school law. That perfumatory person rudely insulted some of the ministers.

LITTLE BRITAIN.

THE LATE ELECTION.—From the extra efforts put forth by the Grits I had no expectation that in the three South Divisions of Mariposa, we would come out as well as we have done on the 22nd February.

THE "JESUIT" BILL IN THE QUEBEC LEGISLATURE.

The "Jesuit" bill in the Quebec legislature has been held in abeyance pending a reply from Rome. The action is due to Cardinal Taschereau who favors Levee as against the Jesuits.

DALTON MCCARTHY, M. P.

One of the coming men of Ontario in Liberal-Conservative politics is Dalton McCarthy, M. P. for Simcoe. His able speech last Friday against buncombe, clap-trap and disruption of the Empire, has stamped him a man in whom the people can rely for constitutional government of a lofty, progressive character.

COMMERCIAL UNION VS. H. P.

The following incident illustrates the innate belief the Grits have of the value of the National Policy to the country. The following report from the Globe of a speech by Dr McLaughlin, the Grit M. P. for West Durham, explains itself:—

"THE HOME RULE" DEBATE.

On Tuesday night the debate in Ottawa on the Curran bill closed.

THE CRIMAS HILL FOR IRELAND.

Of the Ministry Sir John Macdonald and Messrs. White, Foster, Pope, Carling, Howell and McLeod voted against the resolutions, and Messrs. Thompson, Costigan, Chaplin, Sir Adolphe Caron and Sir Hector Langwin for them.

covered which clearly showed how essential steam. The Grits cheered vigorously for Home Rule and Parliamentism; while the Conservatives gave three ringing cheers for the Queen and British connection.

As some misunderstanding appears to exist regarding Ireland's share in representation in the Imperial House of Commons, it may be well to set forth the facts. The following statement shows the number of members in the present parliament, and the population of each country in 1881:—

Table with 2 columns: Country, No. of Population Members. England and Wales... 465 35,974,434; Ireland... 103 5,174,836; Scotland... 73 3,735,573.

There are men in Ontario, ay, in Victoria county, who have cheered and applauded the shooting of landlords, the murder of Cavendish and Burke, and other fendish offences against law, order, and liberty in Ireland.

In the debate on the resolution of Mr. Curran before the House of Commons, anent the Irish Crimes Bill, Dalton McCarthy made a most powerful speech against Canadian interference in British affairs.

DOWNEYVILLE.

Special to The Warder. Much credit is due Father Connelly for having secured an organ of superior tone and quality, for his church at Downeyville. Ordered through W. W. Logan.

PETERBORO.

RAILWAY CONSTRUCTION.—Mr. Hendrie, who has the contract of building the connecting link between the Grand Junction and Midland divisions of the Grand Trunk railway at the south of the town, started a relay of men to work on the construction this morning.

BETHANY.

Special to The Warder. A few evenings since, whilst the Rev. Mr. Cortice was returning from Franklin he had the misfortune to drive over a stump in the road, causing his buggy to upset, and throwing him out with such force as to sprain his ankle and shake him up generally.

THE PROSPECTS FOR THE CREAMERY THIS SEASON.

The prospects for the creamery this season are exceedingly bright, Mr. Parker in his canvas for cream, exceeding beyond his most sanguine expectations.
