Confliction of the Railway Works.

The successful conclusion of arrangements between the town and the G. T. Ry., must be gratifying to all. The town may thank certain members of last and this year's council, notably Robert Bryans, for paraletently working in the town's interests. The Railway company owe their thanks to Messrs. Ferguson, Rainsford and Matchett, for their ourgette action, While all owe The Warders credit for from the very first judiciously working for the object now attained.
