Councillors Crandell, Connolly, Bryan;
Mallon, Ray, Sootheran, Walters.

Absent. Mayor Walters, councillar
Lennon and Winters. Mr. Lennon and Winters.

Deputy reeve T. S. Williams, present report of the special committee councillor Sootheran's memorial re-Post Office site, recommending no ch in the memorial.

Mr. Ray spoke in favor of sending the fly-sheets calling on the electors "not vote" and "to vote" with the memorial vote. Mr. Mal'on spoke. Mr. Walter thought it should be sent through the member for South Victoria. Mr. South ran defended his action in not sending it through the member. Mr. Mallon again apoke. Mr. Bryans said it would make no difference what they did; the sight w bought long ago. Mr. Lennon joined in. Some one suggested "business." Mr. Mallon thought it a long time between drinks—(here he took a glass of water).

Mr. Ray then moved, seconded by R. Bryans, in amendment that in connecting with the resolution and as a portion of the documents to be submitted to the Hon. the Minister of Public Works, two f sheets, one purporting to represent the the Government had already purchased site for the Post Office and Custom Hens and another purporting to contain a tel gram from the Deputy Minister of Publi Works, saying that all transaction relating to the Post Offic site were being held in abeyance; also a memorand giving the number of qualified voters the town of Lindsay as well as the number who voted on the post office site."

Councillor Crandell grew eloquent and thought the report should not be amenda at the council Deputy-reeve Bryans advocated to amendment, and claimed the memoria was not stating facts. The work won be going on the old Church Site before Councillor Connolly thought the committee had not been instructed in an line of action, and that they should no be censured. Councillor Sootheran ad mitted the advertisements were consider at the committee. Councillor Conn let the cat out of the bag, in stating C Deacon had given the information regard ing the centre of population. Coun. Waiten suggested that COL. DEACON WAS PROBA LY THE FOURTH COMMITTEEMAN, though he is not on the council at all. Therenp Councillor Connolly went for Harry fine style. He said it made no differen if he is big; he appealed to the reeve to prevent Mr. Walters from interrupting him. He was hard on himself in blaming told him some of the report was changed and that the fly-sheets were to go with the report. The reeve explained that he meant it was open to come up to night vote should go to Ottawa; but that all the facts should be told. It is generally believed that the telegram published was not all published, or was not authentic. He thought self-interest should have nothing to do with such matters. Councillor Connolly again spoke, and claimed that self-interest should influence

Councillor Lennon repudiated the charge of unfairness in opposing the memoria. All he wanted was fair play. He mi dozens of others, were as honest in ap-holding the Church site, as were the best advocates of the other site. He did not fear to have the fly-sheets sent to Ottawa. He believed the other fly-sheet would not stand inspection at Ottawa.

Councillor Crandell again spoke, an referred to the Peterboro double-dealing The reeve, let the council blaze away. Mr. Ray made an explanation. He did not wish an expression or a fact kept back from Ottawa. Then came dickering as to which was the amendment.

Messrs. Bryans, Lennon, Walters and Ray, voted to send the full statement of facts. After five or six trials, the cour cillors got the thing through their head Messrs. Sootheran, Mallon, Bryan, Con-nolly, Crandell and Williams, opposed it The memorial was then carried Councillor Connolly reported his co mittee for not obeying his summons attend committee meetings. Reeve Smyt and sympathy in reference to committees.

Councillor Mallon contended that no work would be done after Sept. 1st. Nothing had been yet done in Eastward There were some East Ward electors in the audience, and Mr. Mallon made a glowing appeal for the East Ward. Councillor Connolly said Mr. Malian was speaking to a shadow.

Mr. Mallon contended he was speaking to the reeve and council.

Mr. Connolly then called him to order. The reeve ruled Mr. Mallon in order. Mr. Mallon then finished his oration, and remarked he was coming to Mt. Connolly's assistance.

Mr. Connolly then corrected Mr. Mallon and said East ward had got more that VICTORIA ROAD.
